

Borderland State Park Interpretive Program

259 Massapoag Ave, North Easton, MA
Park Phone: (508) 238-6566

Classical Woodwind Quintet Concert

In the Ames Mansion

Friday October 16, 2015

7:00pm

Ames Mansion

$10.00 donation

The Friends of Borderland present the North Winds Quintet in a chamber music program of classical, romantic and contemporary music in the library of the Ames Mansion at Borderland.

Members of the North Winds Quintet include Flutist Jacqueline DeVoe, Andrea Bonsignore, oboe, clarinetist Marguerite Levin, Michael H. Weinstein, French horn, and Gregory Newton, bassoon.

The group will perform a program of pieces by Haydn, Farkas, Hindemith, Klughardt, and an entertaining interpretation of Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf".

A $10.00 donation to the Friends of Borderland is requested for this event. The park will be open for this event only. Parking will be in front of the Mansion, please enter the service entrance located at 257 Massapoag Ave., North Easton, MA. Reasonable accommodations available upon request. Rain or shine. For more information, please call Borderland State Park at 508-238-6566.

Coming Event

department of Conservation and Recreation