

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Leonard “Skeets” Langley

Inducted in 2012

Leonard “Skeets” Langley and the trio he formed were one of the most unique, sought-after musical groups in the Northwest for almost 10 years.

During that time, Skeets competed in the World Cup of the Accordion in Prague, Czechoslovakia and placed second. The following year, he represented the USA in world competition in Germany and he was awarded the World Cup, making him the Accordion Champion of the World.

After returning home he finished his degree and Masters of Music and began teaching.

He has been an elementary school teacher of 30 years in Minneapolis and has taught over 10,000 young people how to play woodwind, percussion and brass instruments.

