User knowledge is vital to ensure users utilising the ERP system are as efficient as possible. From experience, Absolute ERP know that training courses are most efficient when conducted on-site based on familiar scenarios and basic data. We can provide various training courses tailored to all layers of your organisation, from light users up to advanced key users and even your IT support team. Our functional and technical consultants will provide the knowledge, continuity and experience you need to get your employees confident in using the system quickly and cost effectively.

- Training courses for new users

- ✓ Hands-on training ensures that new users can comfortably and efficiently explore and utilise the IFS interface.
- ✓ Tailored functional training of new users based on their business role in your company, including your policies and procedures, to ensure consistent use of the IFS system.
- ✓ No need for your hard-pressed key users to be available whenever new starters arrive.

- Training courses for key-users

- ✓ In-depth training of business-critical IFS modules based on “real life” scenarios
- ✓ Advanced training of the user interface enabling key users optimising the use of IFS as advance queries, tailoring of profile etc.

- Targeted training for the IFS support team (such as..)

- ✓ Targeted training enabling the support team to assist all levels of users
- ✓ Solution Manager training including user profile management and permission set administration
- ✓ Setup and use of the IFS Data Migration utilities
- ✓ Optimisation of batch queues and general system administration
- ✓ Custom Object creation training (from IFS Applications 8 onwards)

- Black-belt Queries

- ✓ The key to getting the most from IFS is to be able to construct, save and access well-constructed queries on frequently used screens. We can provide tailored courses to suit the level of experience of your users.

- Documentation and Media

- ✓ For all our courses we can provide full documentation, handouts and online training videos for your intranet. We will even manage your training records...
