I. Announcements

Bruce Morrison opened the meeting and discussed helping a family in Selden who are having difficulty financially getting through the holidays. We all contributed some cash and Ellen Morrison volunteered to shop for gifts for the children who are 10 and 2 years old. $300 was collected. Special thanks to the Brookhaven Town Councilman Kevin LaValle's office for arranging for the bicycle and dolls. And special thanks to The Ancient Order of Hibernians and Sandy and Bob Alvaro. Pictures of the purchases are below. Thank you to all of our members who contributed.

II. Discussion

Linda Miller and Bruce Morrison discussed a plan for a Nicolls Road Bus Route plan that was presented at Suffolk County Community College. The bus route is planned to serve destinations along Nicolls Road with connections to nearby downtown areas. One goal is to reduce automobile traffic along the Nicolls Road corridor.

Bruce Morrison discussed the 1st Annual Christmas Party that was held at the Ancient Order of Hibernians Hall on Magnolia Drive on December 5. Approximately 25 people attended and a good time was enjoyed with plenty of food and libation. Thank you to the Ancient Order of Hibernians Division 8.

Eva Cordero from Affinity Health Care discussed many Medicare options and rules and stated that she is available for questions at: 917-807-1137 or email ecordero@affinityplan.org

Britney Lawton explained the RELAY FOR LIFE which is planned for June 10, 2017 at Newfield High School. Britney is looking for participation from Selden Civic Association and will be joining us at future meetings, the telephone number for Relay for Life is: 1-800-227-2345

Sam Bifulco who is an aid for Brookhaven Town Councilman Kevin LaValle gave an update on projects currently ongoing at the Town of Brookhaven and future events such as Hobbs Farm Run the Farm event.

Chery Conrad brought an example of the Yellow Dot Program from New York State which is a form filled out and kept in the glove box of vehicles along with a sticker informing first responders in the event of a motor vehicle accident that personal information is available in the vehicle. Bruce Morrison will contact Assemblyman Al Graf for more information and forms.

Stephanie Larkin discussed Megan's Law petitions that can be filled out to continue the law tracking sexual predators within our communities in order to prevent attacks on our children. More to follow on this subject.
