Joys of motherhood

A hug for no reason.
Belly laughs.
The light-bulb moment when your child understands something you've been trying to teach them.
Smiles and giggles.
Mud pies.
Arms raised in the air after a big accomplishment.
Hearing Scripture and prayer from your child's lips.
Quiet moments on the couch.
Reading aloud together.
A family meal filled with conversation and laughter.
Watching your child be kind to another.
Recognizing a moment you'd like to freeze in time.
A child's look of surprise and joy.
A quiet conversation that heals a wounded heart.
The words "I love you" — and a sticky kiss.

Mission Message

HOPE IN SOUTH SUDAN

South Sudan is the newest country in the world, created by the separation of Sudan into two countries. But it is also one of the most volatile countries in the world. 1.5 million South Sudanese are internally displaced and many more have fled to other countries due to poverty, food insecurity, a lack of education and health care, and extreme violence against civilians. The United Nations formally declared that several regions of South Sudan are undergoing severe famine and more than 100,000 are reported to face imminent starvation.

The ELCA is responding to the disastrous humanitarian toll across the region through Lutheran Disaster Response. Also, the ELCA is beginning to establish an Evangelical Lutheran Church Africa Mission in South Sudan, breaking ground in 2016 for a Lutheran center and health clinic. The center will offer English language lessons and computer training, and the clinic will give much needed health care. Learn more at ELCA.org/globalministries.

Mawien Ariik and Wal Reat are South Sudanese who originally sought asylum in the US, and while here, became ELCA pastors. They have returned to South Sudan to coordinate and serve the new church. They are from rival tribes, but together they hope to grow the Lutheran church and bring healing to their country. Ariik says, "The message the church is conveying is that all tribes are children of God and we are supposed to remain as one." Hope is the common thread motivating them amid conflict, violence, and poverty towards a peaceful future.

Your mission dollars help this endeavor. Thank you!

We are church together for the sake of the world.

God's Work. Our Hands.

Healing hospitality

Repeated headlines about violence can make us “feel like locking our doors and never entering society again,” writes pastor and author Max Lucado. After another mass shooting, he penned an online opinion piece that urged people to do the exact opposite by opening their doors, their hearts and their circles.

“It’s no accident that hospitality and hospital come from the same Latin word,” Lucado writes, “for they both lead to the same result: healing. When you open your door to someone, you are sending this message: ‘You matter.’”

Because daily life is filled with rejections, extending an invitation — even to a simple meal — can be life-altering, Lucado contends. What you think is a messy house might be a sanctuary to someone else, “and to those who eat alone every night, pork and beans on paper plates tastes like filet mignon.”

Our kitchen tables are “God’s secret weapons in the war on fear,” Lucado says. “We never know what one meal will do.”

Pastor's message..

The way of prayer: Practices for unity

by Pastor Tara Lamont Eastman

Jesus Prays for All Believers

"My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one: I in them and you in me. May they be brought to complete unity to let the world know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me."

This gospel reading from John 17 deals with the themes of belief and unity in the lives of the believers in Jesus. When I think of when I've been most impressed with Christians, it's been when they live out beliefs in real ways by taking action to serve others — in Jesus name. It might sound trite, but the chorus "They will know we are Christians by our love.", comes to mind...

We will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand;
We will walk with each other,
we will walk hand in hand;
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land.

And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

One thing essential thing for unity to occur in the community of church - is prayer.

Prayer — meeting together — encouraging each other; all of these are essential actions that Hebrews 10 call us to live into as a community of faith: And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another...

Without being united in prayer, pastor con't..

we can tend to float along on good intentions and unattainable ideals, but remain unconnected. Prayer is the spiritual practice that keeps us together in unity. Prayer could be described as spiritual rubber cement. Or in this case...a high five for unity.

Let me explain.

Prayer is important, but it can be difficult to practice. Some people feel they don't have the right words to say or the plan of how to go about it. Years ago, someone taught me a prayer exercise that is very helpful. It does not require a seminar and is as close to you as your hand. Actually, it uses each digit on your hand to give a way to practice prayer...

Five Finger Prayer Practice..

1. Your thumb is nearest to you. So begin your prayers by praying for those closest to you. They are the easiest to remember. To pray for our loved ones is, as C.S. Lewis once said, a "sweet duty."

2. The next finger is the pointing finger. Pray for those who teach, instruct and heal. This includes teachers, doctors, and ministers. They need support and wisdom in pointing others in the right direction. Keep them in your prayers.

3. The next finger is the tallest finger. It reminds us of our leaders. Pray for leaders in politics, business, industry, and administrators. These people shape our nation and guide public opinion. They need God's guidance.

4. The fourth finger is our ring finger. Surprising to many is fact that this is our weakest finger; as any piano teacher will testify. It should remind us to pray for those who are weak, in trouble or in pain. They need your prayers day and night. You cannot pray too much for them.

5. And lastly comes our little finger; the smallest finger of all. Which is where we should place ourselves in relation to God and others. As the Bible says, "The least shall be the greatest among you." Your pinky should remind you to pray for yourself. You are a part of the practice of prayer – and praying for your own needs is important too!

The "Five finger Prayer" is a simple way for me to remember how prayer can be to make a part of my daily life. If unity is a goal worthy of working and praying towards, the five finger prayer can bring people together

HOSPITALIZATIONS

The church office no longer receives calls from the hospital when a member is hospitalized. It would be appreciated if someone from the family would call the church office when a hospitalization occurs. In addition to calls no longer being made to the office by hospital volunteers, the computer used by the clergy at the hospital to locate hospitalized members has been removed. Thank you for your assistance. In case of hospital emergency, please contact Pastor Eastman at 716 969-3950.

in faith, community, love, unity and prayer. This practice is one that we can do on our own and can be shared as a community of faith when we gather together for Bible Study and worship.

In 2017, Tree of Life Lutheran Church, established a prayer practice called the 12:02 Prayer Challenge for Tree of Life Lutheran Church.

This spring, it's time for us to remember to practice this action of prayer for our church as we move forward in our mission and ministry to be united in worship, share Jesus and serve all people. Here are the instructions for the 12:02 TOL Prayer Challenge...

1. Pledge to pray for our community at 12:02 am or pm daily.
2. Set an alarm or phone to 12:02.
3. Pray the prayer listed below or add your own prayers of thanks/needs to it as you like. (See above Five Finger Prayer.)
4. Read and memorize Romans 12:2
5. Every time you think of Tree of Life, remember Romans 12:2.

"Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect."

TOL Prayer: O Lord, Open our eyes to see where you would lead us. Awaken our ears that we would hear your voice guiding us. Inspire our minds that we may comprehend your love for us. Soften our hearts that we would offer grace to those we meet. Watch our feet that we would walk the paths you show us. Guard our hearts from selfishness that we would give freely. Inspire our words so we may speak of hope and healing. O Lord, we follow you. Amen.

Council Corner

The Tree of Life Church Council met Monday, April 8th. I could not attend, so here are some thoughts I have:

*Worship services for Holy Week went very well – Maundy Thursday at TOL, Good Friday joint worship at First Lutheran, and Easter Sunday worship preceded by morning prayer, a breakfast & an Easter egg hunt!

*The church secretary's office is all moved to Forest Avenue. Please stop by and say hi to Rosemary! Beryl will be moving over soon to join us and will share an office with Jan.

*We are still seeking volunteers to form a Transition Team. The exact definition of this team isn't done yet, but they will be charged with looking at what to include in our historical room, which will include historical papers, books & artifacts from both Holy Trinity and Immanuel congregations, and what to bring over to Forest Avenue from Second Street. If you are interested in being on this committee, please see Darcy or Pastor Tara. This is a very important task in preserving both congregations' histories.

*Speaking of Pastor Tara, did you know that she was honored as one of three Women of the Year by the Zonta Club? Congratulations, Pastor Tara!!

A blessed woman

The last chapter of Proverbs describes a woman who loves God and strives to be a good wife and mother.

Directions: Use the picture clues to complete Proverbs 31:15, 28.

She gets _____ while it is still _____ ;

she provides _____ for her _____

Her _____ rise _____ and _____ her blessed.

PROVERBS 31:15, 28 (NIV)

Answer: up, night, family, food, children, up, call

*We will be holding a congregational meeting & vote on Sunday, May 5th, after worship, regarding selling the Smith Street parsonage. Look for more info on that in another article in this newsletter.

*Our income is still down. Thank you to all of you who have continued to give, and to those of you who have been able to give a little more. I know we're not always able to do that, but if you can give a few more dollars a week, it is much appreciated!

I want to personally thank you, my church family, for reaching out in so many ways after the sudden loss of my husband Bob's mother, Sylvia. You don't know how much your love and concern meant to all of us. We are truly blessed. Thank you.

Tree of Life has been through some trying times of late, but everywhere I look I see signs of life, of God's love and grace. The deer are in the outdoor chapel, the flowers are coming up and blooming around the church, we have our church family to share the peace with each Sunday. God's blessings abound.

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to speak with me, another council member, or Pastor Tara..

Christ is Risen! Christ is Risen, Indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Darcy Whitney,
Council President

Thank You

Thank you to all who helped with the Wednesday evening Lenten suppers either by bringing food, setting up, or cleaning up. Thank you also to those who helped with the Easter morning breakfast and Easter egg hunt! You all helped to make a memorable Lenten season.

HEART-SHAPED breakfast

Treat Mom with this yummy, beautiful yogurt parfait.

What you need:

- Large heart-shaped cookie cutter
- Greek yogurt (any flavor)
- Toppings (mini chocolate chips, granola, shredded coconut, chia seeds, oats, slivered almonds, blueberries, sliced strawberries, raspberries, bananas)
- 2 teaspoons maple syrup

What you do:

1. Place cookie cutter on a plate. Spoon in yogurt, spreading it to the edges of the cookie cutter.
2. Add toppings, making a nice design. Remove cookie cutter.
3. Drizzle syrup around the edge of the plate.
4. Serve to your mom on Mother's Day!

Time-management tips

A general rule for the good use of time is to accustom oneself to live in a continual dependence on the Spirit of God, receiving from moment to moment whatever it pleases him to give us, referring to him at once in the doubts which we necessarily run into, turning to him in the weakness into which goodness slips from exhaustion, calling on him and lifting oneself to him, when the heart, swept away by material things, sees itself led imperceptibly off the path and finds itself forgetting and drifting away from God. Happy the soul which ... never stops saying to itself a hundred times a day, "Lord, what wouldst thou that I should do? Teach me to perform thy holy will, for thou art my God."

—François Fénelon

A life of praise

Despite becoming an invalid while in her teens, an 18th-century English poet who used the pen name Anna Steele wrote prolifically — often about praising God. The closing stanza of "Now I Resolve With All My Heart," one of Steele's 144 hymns, is a timeless prayer that's fitting for the start of each new day.

O may I never faint nor tire,
Nor wandering leave his sacred ways;
Great God, accept my soul's desire,
And give me strength to live thy praise.

At the March 2019 Church Council Meeting, there was a motion to sell the Parsonage at 620 Smith Avenue along with some of the surrounding property around the Parsonage. The motion was seconded and was passed unanimously to bring this recommendation to the Tree of Life Congregation. This is considered a necessary action due to financial reasons.

The procedure for sale of church property is governed by the 2017 revised Constitution in Chapter 5.03.i, which states that one of the Powers of the Congregation is “to sell, mortgage, lease, transfer or otherwise dispose of its property by any lawful means”.

This is to inform you of a Congregational Meeting to seek approval to enter into this transaction.

This meeting will be held on Sunday, May 5th, 2019 at 11:30 AM following the Church Service.

We are looking forward to your attendance at this important meeting and vote
