

CMB Standard Policies of Practice

1. General Requirements

- 1.1 Any persons wishing to hold a licence at CMB must meet experience, education, and business practices levels. All persons providing mortgages to clients need to be licensed with FSCO, FICOM, RECA, and CMB.
- 1.2 No Independent Mortgage Contractor is to receive monies or non monetary incentives from other mortgage brokerages, agents or clients. Commissions and incentives are to be paid to CMB at all times.
- 1.3 Any and all forms of commission or payments made to C.M.B. Canada Mortgage Brokers Inc., are to be only deposited to it's account, or cheque mailed to the brokerage, and no cheque pickups may be intercepted by unauthorized officers of CMB.
- 1.4 All dealings with other mortgage brokerages on a co-broker arrangement requires approval from CMB. No mortgage applications may be submitted for approval on behalf of other CMB Independent Mortgage Contractors, without authority from CMB.
- 1.5 Any fees paid to affiliates for a mortgage referral must be paid from CMB. Your affiliate or COI must be approved by CMB and signed up using the CMB Mortgage Referral Program Agreement.
- 1.6 Any CMB office that is open to the public must be approved by CMB and registered with the FSCO, FICOM, RECA or any respective licensing body.
- 1.7 CMB does not use a Trust Fund Account.
- 1.8 CMB, Independent Mortgage Contractors, Executive Recruiters, CMB representatives, or agents cannot accept monies up front for unfunded residential mortgages, even though the industry allows this practice.
- 1.9 Errors and Omissions insurance is paid for by CMB at this time. All Independent Mortgage Contractors properly licensed with the FSCO, FICOM, RECA and CMB are covered under policy # 5761052.

2. File Audit, Storage, Receiving Documents, and Review

- 2.1 All files are audited by CMB and no commissions are paid for incomplete files or missing forms. Please fax or email the complete file to CMB head office after it is advanced. The Client Identification and File Closure Form must accompany each file.
- 2.2 Standard Insurance applications/waivers, under the forms section of D & H Expert, are to be signed by each mortgage applicant. This applies to all files even if the mortgage agent holds an insurance licence.
- 2.3 All records by the mortgage brokerage after January 2011 are stored in Electronic Format. CMB preserves all hard copies for 6 years. CMB will return certain client documents to the client if they make a written request to our Privacy and Compliance Officer. FSCO, FICOM, or RECA would also need to approve this request.
- 2.4 Every agent must receive documents directly from the customers. CMB prefers that clients fax or email any outstanding items to the agent directly. Never alter any document provided by the client. Always confirm the employment information is correct.
