

A monthly newsletter from the West Point Parents Club of Colorado | April, 2020

Upcoming Events - Mark Your Calendars!

April 26: Mothers' Tea, 2:00 PM, at the home of Amy Mitchell

Mother's Day Tea - Sunday, April 26

The Mother's Day Tea has been postponed to Sunday, April 26. It will still take place at the lovely home of Amy Mitchell. Dana Arvin will be the guest speaker. The event will be from 2:00 - 4:00 PM, 755 Belfry Court, Castle Rock, 80108. Please RSVP to the Evite invitation. If you have questions, contact Amy at 720-244-2424 or derrygal@gmail.com.

Message from Shelisa Baskerville, West Point Parent Giving Officer

During these extremely difficult times we want you to know we are here for you and we wish you all safety and health. Please be advised that the West Point Association of Graduates has additional resources available. If anyone in our Parents' Club is in need of support because of COVID-19, please notify GrippingHands@wpaog.org. General inquiries can go to ParentRelations@wpaog.org. Coronavirus (COVID-19) guidance from West Point is available at <https://www.westpoint.edu/coronavirus>.

Welcome Class of 2024 Event

We are tentatively planning a "Welcome Class of 2024" gathering in late May. Details are in the process of being finalized and we will distribute information once the location and other details are confirmed.

WPPCCO Board Slate for 2020 - 2021

We are still looking to fill open positions on the 20/21 Board. If you are interested or would like more information, please email Pscriffiny@me.com or call at 720-331-9859.

Open Positions:

West Point Society of Pikes Peak Region (WSPPPR) Liaison
President(s) Elect for 2021-2022
Event Coordinator
Fundraising Coordinator
King Soopers Coordinator
CASAB Liaison
2024 Class Representative

2019 - 2020 West Point Calendar

WPPCCO Website

If you have any questions or would like to unsubscribe to this newsletter, please contact Kathleen Hogan. Thank you!

