OJ Simpson, Oklahoma City & The World Order

What does the O.J. Simpson trial have to do with the Oklahoma City bombing and what, in turn, do both of those incidents have to do with the One World Order? For those who are not students of the conspiracy concept of history, they are totally unrelated. But President Franklin Roosevelt said that nothing ever happens in politics by accident. If it happened, it was intended. The O.J. Simpson trial (not necessarily the murders) as well as the Oklahoma City bombing (including the murders) can definitely be considered political incidents.

The relationship between those incidents and the One World Order is straightforward. We only need to understand what the One World Order is all about, who needs it and who rules it. We have discussed this phenomena before but only each segment individually and separately. Many people have a need for an overview that can be used as a teaching tool. This issue of the Intelligence Newsletter will perhaps help fill that need.

In past issues we have discussed in some detail the worldwide Freemasonry movement. We have shown that they are considered the "battleaxe" of the World Revolutionary Movement (WRM) as only a part of the One World Order. Their assignment is to create incidents and situations that create the popular demand for revolution or civil war. This effort is now supplemented heavily by such organizations as the CIA. Of more importance the Freemasons, because of their beliefs and rituals, infiltrate Christianity with ancient Babylonish, Egyptian and Persian doctrines. These concepts are identical to those found in the Jewish Talmud and Kaballah because the Masons use these same documents, rituals and beliefs. This point cannot be overemphasized. It is partly because of these activities of the Masons that we now have "Judeo-Christianity" instead of the Christianity that Christ taught. What Jesus taught in Matthew 23:15 can be applied to the Masonic movement as well as others that will be discussed in this issue. "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more the child of hell than yourselves." The Talmudic Pharisees taught the Masons because the Masons learned and used their rituals, symbology, and belief system including the brotherhood of man concept. The Masons, in turn, have taken it to Christianity.

There are those who blame the Masons for everything. They teach that the Freemasonic movement is in total control of the world. To this writer, that could be considered intellectually dishonest. Some teach with a sincere belief but are blinded because of fear. Some teach as they do because of monetary gain since they have a much better chance of publishing their books if they refrain from telling "the rest of the story."

The Christian Crusade for Truth library includes a multitude of books and other publications relative to the Masonic movement. These books include writers who are Masons and teach of their great exploits as well as their philosophical origins. The Masonic movement has produced some of the highest ranking leaders, not only in this country, but in other countries all over the world. Our library also includes books written by those who vehemently oppose the Masonic beliefs. This writer is not being moved by emotions, fear or financial gain. The Masonic movement teaches unscriptural, anti-Christian and pagan philosophies. But they are not their own masters.

There is an old adage or maxim that goes like this: If you want to understand the controlling influence in any matter, follow the money trail. The Masonic movement does not control the money of the world.

Eustace Mullins, in his book The World Order (Library of Congress Card #84-082357) makes this very important statement: "Five men rule the world. None of them holds public office, but they choose who shall hold office in the nations. These five men comprise the apex of the pyramid of power, the World Order. We may ask, why should there be a World Order? Is it not sufficient to hold absolute power in a single nation, or in a group of nations? The answer is No, because of the nature of international travel, international trade, and international finance. International travel requires that a person may travel in peace from one nation to another, without being molested. Excepting cases of anarchy, revolution or war, this requirement can usually be met. International trade requires that traders of one nation can go to another nation, transact their business, and return with their goods or their profits. This requirement too is usually met. If not, the offended nation can exercise military force, as Great Britain did in its Opium Wars."

"It is the third requirement, international finance, which called into being the World Order. In earlier days, when international trade consisted of barter, payment in gold or silver or piracy, the seizure of goods by force, there was no need for a world arbiter to determine the value of instruments of trade. The development of paper money, stocks, bonds, acceptances and other negotiable instruments necessitated a power, able to exercise influence anywhere in the world, to declare that a piece of paper represented one billion dollars in real wealth, or even one dollar in real wealth. An entry on a computer, flashed from London to New York, states that someone owes five billion dollars to someone else. Without genuine power backing, no such sum could ever be collected, regardless of the factuality or morality of the debt. As anyone in the Mafia can tell you, you don't collect unless you are willing to break legs. The World Order is always prepared to break legs, and break them they do, by the millions."

"...The World Order rules with its pieces of paper, but behind every paper is a force which can be employed anywhere in the world. The force may be disguised by various subterfuges as international agreements, associations or other camouflage, but its base is always force." End of quote.

Eustace Mullins' analysis of the international affairs of nations is right. But do you notice all of this is based on the laws of man? Supposing that the entire world was willing to obey, and believed sincerely in, the Laws of God. There is only one God. Most of us in this nation are Christian, albeit many are Judeo-Christian and haven't been taught some basic tenets. However, we believe in the God of the Holy Bible.

What was Adam's mission? Genesis 2:5 tells us that there was not a man to till the ground so he formed Adam to do just that. The word ground in the Old Testament is an interesting word. It means dirt, or soil, of course. But it also means that Adam and his family was, and is, to act as God's servants by obeying Him in maintaining the divinely created and intended relationships vertically and horizontally (Theological Word Study Book of the Old Testament, Vol. 1, page 11).

In terms of international law, Adamic man was, and is, to teach all of the peoples of the world that there is one God and that His Laws, not man's laws, are to be applied universally. It also means that Adam (down through true Israel) was to maintain that relationship.

It becomes obvious that there would be no need for international laws of man if we had international Laws of God. We could travel in peace anywhere. We could buy and sell with honest weights and measures as taught in the Laws of God. Any disobedience to the Laws of God would be disciplined in accordance with those Laws. But, the peoples of the world are not ready to listen yet even if true Israel knew what to teach. So we have a need to understand what is happening within that tight circle of those who rule behind the scenes.

Returning to the points that Eustace Mullins made. To be sure, there are Masons who are also members of this "force" to insure that all international transactions are conducted smoothly. But the international transactions are not being conducted for the benefit of the Masonic movement. The truth is that the efforts of the Masons are for the benefit of the World Order. There are also a multitude of other people who help support this force. It is not only a military force, either. The international police force called Interpol is a part of it as is the CIA and its counterparts in all of the nations participating in this World Order. All of them in their own way, intentionally or innocently, are those who have been made twice the child of hell. All of our people, regardless of their vocation or belief system should look in the mirror and ask the question, "Am I supporting man's laws or God's laws?" If we were honest, we would find that all of us are guilty to one degree or another.

There has been a "world order" of one sort or another for thousands of years. Ancient Babylon had a "world order." The "world," for them, was defined as their zone of influence in old Persia and those who traded with them. It is important to note that Eustace Mullins stated that, "The development of paper money, stocks, bonds, acceptances and other negotiable instruments necessitated a power able to exercise influence anywhere in the world." The Canaanites were the originators of the modern concept that Eustace Mullins described. Hosea speaks of the Canaanites in chapter 12, verse 7, "He is a merchant (or Canaan), the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress." But those Israelites of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin who were taken into captivity by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon became, in reality, "Canaanites."

Werner Keller, a German, wrote the book The Bible as History. It was first published in Dusseldorf, Germany by Econ Verlag Publishers. Werner Keller describes in great detail the work that Professor Robert Koldewey, working for the German Oriental Society, did in ancient Babylon. What they found as they excavated the ancient city, one of the seven ancient wonders of the world, was astounding.

There were clay jars, which were sealed with tar that contained the records of Israelites who had been taken to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar. They were eager students and quickly learned from the Babylonians the ways of the Canaanites. They found documents of commercial transactions that rival those of today. Babylon had International Banks with letters of conveyance for transmittal of money without the actual money itself being shipped. They had lending institutions, which charged usury (interest) for both personal and real estate loans. There were insurance companies with some that equaled Lloyds of London in scope. For a price, they would insure anything. Every morning, at a site next to the River Euphrates, they established the price of goods leaving and entering Babylon. It was called the Quay and it was very similar to the stock markets, the merchantile markets and the gold and money exchanges of today.

So the World Order of today is nothing but a continuation of earlier systems. When the Canaanite Order became extinct, the Babylonish Order became all powerful. God destroyed Babylon, just as He said he would do in Isaiah 13. Selected verses read thus, "The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see...Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty...Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it...And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah...It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there." (Isaiah 13:1,6,19,20).

Modern archaeologists write that they have discovered how God destroyed Babylon. We have a tendency to want everything to happen immediately. We also want to believe that it all will happen in our lifetime, which of course, is nonsense. We want to believe that God acts abruptly and quickly. This is not always the case. Remember, "..that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." (2 Peter 3:8) According to the archaeologists studying the old Babylonian area, it seems that God destroyed Babylon with a drought that lasted 600 years! The entire area became a sandy desert and the sand totally covered the city. The Euphrates changed its course and was no longer within reach of the destroyed city. The conditions that Isaiah prophesied came to pass.

The World Order through the years has developed a system of organizing and using international agreements known as treaties (NAFTA and GATT as examples) to implement their programs. They organize and utilize associations to further their goals. Examples of this are the Council on Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission, Rhodes Scholarship Foundation, and the Club of Rome.

These organizations have been developed the world over and this phenomena has been going on for many years. They are quasi-official with the exception of treaties and agreements but even they are the ideas and efforts of non-governmental groups. However, these groups speak with authority for the government. They do not act as Political Action Committees (PAC's) or as political lobbyists. They simply develop a program the World Order wants and then they tell Congress what laws or agreements to create. Other governments of the world must act and comply in the same manner. If the governmental body does not comply, the World Order's information media goes into action and those governments not complying are toppled.

But how do they control the masses, the ordinary tax-paying citizens? They do it through the dictum of divide and conquer. Thus we have the relationship between the O.J. Simpson trial, the Oklahoma City bombing and the World Order.

The various civilizations and races throughout the world have through the ages developed their own laws, morals, mores and lifestyles. This has happened because true Israel was not taught through the years what they were suppose to teach when they were given the great commission. It is comparatively easy to exploit those differences by setting one civilization or race against another. The governments of the world have, under the direct supervision of associations connected with the World Order, issued mandates and decrees, which directly pit one ethnic group against another.

Some examples are in order because this is so blatant and common among us that we have come to expect it. The forced opening of the borders of the United States to foreigners of races other than our majority has created a condition of mistrust, dissent and, in ever increasing amounts, hatred. Either our Congress is made up totally of students who have graduated from high school as functional illiterates or they are intellectually dishonest prostitutes. They knew what they were doing because they were repeatedly warned. They were ordered to do what they did.

Because of that gross negligence of duty, government both at the federal level and the state level was forced to infuse money into the infrastructure that it did not have. Thus, they went to the World Order for more money, borrowed at usury.

Cities and towns throughout this country have been transformed into a Beirut, Lebanon atmosphere. Television, Radio, Newspapers, Magazines and books doggedly talk about the plight of these people. Americans have always been among the most generous people on earth. But conditions have become so extreme even Americans say "enough is enough." Those of you who live in the "great heartland" cannot comprehend the immensity of this unless you travel a lot. Along the border with Mexico, for example, there is such an infusion of aliens who simply walk in and start building tar-paper and cardboard shacks called "colonias." There is no water, sewer, roads or power in these areas. Because of federally mandated regulations, the states along the border are required to provide these services. That means bonds are issued (by the World Order banks), which must be paid for by those citizens who are the backbone of the nation. Also, until one actually visits cities like Los Angeles, Houston, Miami, El Paso, etc. it is impossible to comprehend why Americans are saying, "enough is enough."

Surely, all of these situations are miniscule when observed separately. Any good, Christian, White person would normally overlook these observations as racist remarks and there are those who will say that this message is racist, if not "neo-Nazi!". But the fact of the matter is that most good, Christian, White people are now cognizant of what has happened to them in the exact same manner as good, Christian, White people have now realized in South Africa.

Thus, just as was done in South Africa, France, England, Germany and most of the other White nations, the World Order has covertly pitted White against Black, Hispanic against White, and Black against Hispanic.

The O.J. Simpson trial had a better viewing rating than did the "soapies" and it was intended to be that way. First, the jury selection process permitted, (which appears to have been in an un-Constitutional manner) a disproportionate large number of Black persons on the jury. Then, some of the disproportionately small number of White persons were removed or excused. This situation is now being openly discussed within the media as the reason for the acquittal of Simpson, particularly in such a short time of deliberations. Thus, there has been an inordinate expenditure of funds for television coverage with the obviously expected results of additional alienation between Blacks and Whites. Deja Vu, South Africa. Just as it was intentionally orchestrated in South Africa, it was intentionally orchestrated here in this country. All of this is to divide and conquer.

The situation surrounding the Oklahoma City bombing appears to have been accomplished for the same reason, divide and conquer. There are too many loose ends in the official investigation. The key action, which has alerted nearly everyone was the tremendous speed in which they demolished the remains of the building and then buried the rubble in a secured, fenced off area. There was much to hide from the public in those ruins. Even so, the concept of a massive cover-up is now being extensively exposed. We may know the truth soon.

What would be the motive for such a dastardly action? Remember Eustace Mullins' word about breaking legs to show force? David Rockefeller said recently that the window of opportunity for the World Order is closing. They recognize that the people of the United States, that great plum in their plans of total control, is awakening and learning some very disturbing truths. The alternative news "media" is exploding in size and content. The same technology is now available to all of us with which to expose the evil among us. Good, honest, God-fearing Christians are banding together in loosely knit groups. Some are called the unorganized militia. Other groups go by different names and calling but it is all for the same purpose. American Christians are not going to let the same thing happen here as happened in Rhodesia and South Africa.

So the immediate government cry (at the insistence of the ADL) was for an anti-terrorist bill, then more gun control and even discussions on how to figuratively put serial numbers on fertilizer! The radio talk shows were denigrated. Americans were warned not to speak in derogatory terms about the government. All of this was to show force and to give a warning. Again, the World Order has spoken.

We all talk about the World Order. There have been hundreds, if not thousands, of books written on the subject. We all have read that the World Order is made up of people from all creeds, religions and races. That is true. As was pointed out, some say that the Masons are behind it. That, too, is true but only in part. It can honestly be said that Pogo was right. We have met the enemy and he is us!

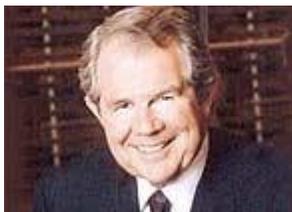

That is true in this country only because we have done nothing about it. It is because of ignorance, fear and pacifism that we have allowed it to continue. But that is changing. Our people are learning in increasing numbers that all of our wars, from the War of 1812 to the current undeclared "police-actions" have been perpetrated by the World Order just to expand their power base.

It isn't entirely over money. When they already own all of the money in the world, what else is there? Congressman John Schmitz once said, "When a person has all the money he needs, his goal becomes power."

He among the Christian community who has become proselyted and made "two-fold more the child of hell" seek that inordinate power because of personal reasons. He is not driven by a belief system higher than his own personal or family greed.

But there are those who want the money only partly because of what it buys for them. Above that personal greed is a higher power, that of the elevation of his people to a supreme level of world stature and power. There is only one race of people on earth with that drive.

But author after author, cannot bring themselves to expose it. Popular opinion is against them if they did expose those behind the World Order. In 1991, the Washington Post reported a poll which revealed that 59 percent of Americans believe that the United Nations should rule over the laws promulgated in this country! Of course, the poll may not have said that in the first place, even if there was a poll. But the authors believe there was.

Pat Robertson

The Evangelist Pat Robertson, in his book The New World Order wrote that there was a Masonic connection to the elite or those who are thought to be the masters of the World Order. But then, as he discloses a connection to the true masters of the World Order he still seems to skirt the issue.

Pat Robertson first writes about Adam Weishaupt and his plan to abolish monarchies and governments, private property, patriotism and nationalism, family life and the institution of marriage, and all religion. Of course we know those plans to be the same as Communism but we also fully realize that international bankers underwrote the Bolshevik Revolution bringing on Communism. Pat Robertson does mention Jacob Schiff and Paul Warburg, by individual name only and not as a part of a higher power, financing the revolutionists. He reports that Weishaupt infiltrated and captured the Continental Freemasonry and transformed it into the Illuminated Freemasonry. Pat Robertson then quotes what a former Mason, Comte de Virieu said about the Weishaupt takeover, "Tragic secrets. I will not confide them to you. I can only tell you that all this is very much more serious than you think. The conspiracy which is being woven is so well thought out that it will be impossible for the Monarchy and the Church to escape it." Obviously, Comte de Virieu did not have the intestinal fortitude to disclose the power behind Weishaupt and Masonry, either.

Adam Weishaupt

Pat Robertson then disclosed this, which all knowledgeable (and truthful) students will affirm: "That same year, 1782, the headquarters of Illuminated Freemasonry moved to Frankfort, a center controlled by the Rothschild family. It is reported that in Frankfurt, Jews for the first time were admitted to the order of Freemasons. If indeed members of the Rothschild family or their close associates were polluted by the occultism of Weishaupt's Illuminated Freemasonry, we may have discovered the link between the occult and the world of high finance. Remember, the Rothschilds financed Cecil Rhodes in Africa; Lord Rothschild was a member of the inner circle of Rhodes's English Round Tables; and Paul Warburg, architect of the Federal Reserve System, was a Rothschild agent."

Notice that the emphasis is placed on occultism possibly penetrating the Rothschild and Warburg families, not that it just possibly could be the other way around and there is a creed and race that is using Masonry and the occult for their own ulterior purposes.

To give a better understanding of this higher power and creed that drives the masters of the World Order, we quote Professor H. Graetz, in his worldwide recognized History of the Jews. He wrote this, "The Talmud must not be regarded as an ordinary work, composed of twelve volumes; it possesses absolutely no similarity to any other literary production, but forms, without any figure of speech, a world of its own, which must be judged by its peculiar laws."

"The Talmud contains much that is frivolous of which it treats with great gravity and seriousness; it further reflects the various superstitious practices and views of its Persian (Babylonian-ed.) birthplace which presume the efficacy of demonical medicines, of magic, incantations, miraculous cures, and interpretations of dreams. It also contains isolated instances of uncharitable judgments and decrees against the members of other nations and religions, and finally it favors an incorrect exposition of the scriptures, accepting, as it does, tasteless misrepresentations."

"The Babylonian Talmud is especially distinguished from the Jerusalem or Palestine Talmud by the flights of thought, the penetration of mind, the flashes of genius, which rise and vanish again. It was for this reason that the Babylonian rather than the Jerusalem Talmud became the fundamental possession of the Jewish race, its life breath, its very soul, nature and mankind, powers and events, were for the Jewish nation insignificant, non-essential, a mere phantom; the only true reality was the Talmud." End of quote. We will shortly quote other documents that bring into daily practice that which Professor Graetz discusses as the Talmud. The Persian influence on the writing of the Talmud must take into account one other point. The Persians received much of their beliefs, occult and magic from the Egyptians. In other words, it all comes from the same source. Certainly, the Masons were not the ones most responsible for bringing it down through the centuries. The Talmud far outdates the Masonic Order.

Reiterating what Eustace Mullins said, "The force may be disguised by various subterfuges as international agreements, associations or other camouflage, but its base is always force." Carroll Quigley wrote about Cecil Rhodes in his book Tragedy and Hope, "Cecil Rhodes was beholden to Lord Rothschild, with financial support from Lord Rothschild...he (Rhodes) was able to monopolize the diamond mines of South Africa as De Beers Consolidated Mines and to build up a great gold mining enterprise known as Consolidated Gold Fields." We know that great gold mining enterprise is now a Oppenheimer operation, which is also connected to the Rothschilds. Cecil Rhodes, again with the help and tutoring of Lord Rothschild, established and funded Rhodes Scholarships at Oxford. He organized the "Circle of Initiates" and the "Association of Helpers." These then became known as the "Round Table Organization." All of these were some of the forerunners to our modern organizations, the CFR, the Trilateralists, the Royal Institute of International Affairs (RIIA) and the Club of Rome. These are the organizations that Mr. Mullins described as "associations and other camouflage."

We know that the Bible describes the first effort of developing a World Order when the Tower of Babel was constructed. The Canaanites tried it and failed. Then Nebuchadnezzar tried it in Babylon. It was here, in Babylon, where it was picked up by the Israelites turned Jews, but it was also in Babylon where the Talmud was developed. It has been used ever since as a germ, or idea, to keep alive that which was learned there. Reiterating what Professor Graetz wrote about the Talmud, "The Talmud must not be regarded as an ordinary work, composed of twelve volumes; it possesses absolutely no similarity to any other literary production, but forms, without any figure of speech, A WORLD OF ITS OWN (emphasis mine-ed.), which must be judged by its peculiar laws." That is their confession that the Talmud takes precedence over the Bible and that they must have a world of their own. There are two ways in which that can be accomplished, either destroy all other peoples or obtain total mastery of the world as it exists. Other nations have tried that before many times but they have never succeeded. This current attempt will not succeed either because the Bible tells us that, too, as John the Revelator teaches us about Mystery Babylon. We know Mystery Babylon to be the system developed in ancient Babylon and perfected by the Talmudists, which has been brought forward and is to encompass the entire world. As Professor Graetz says, "a world of our own." That, in the simplest of terms, is what political Zionism is all about.

Is Professor Graetz alone in that assessment? No but it would also be a mistake to believe that all peoples of the Jewish faith are in agreement with Graetz. Many, if not most, simply want to be a member of society and they have no dream of world conquest. Using that knowledge, those who think with emotion instead of reason want to believe that some other power drives the concept of a One World Order. Since Freemasonry embraces the same Talmudic concepts, they are conveniently chosen as the sole perpetrators. There are no social stigmas attached, nor is it politically incorrect, to attack the Masons. One cannot be called "anti-Semitic" for criticizing the Masons!

Professor Graetz is not alone in his assessment. Maurice Samuel in his book You Gentiles says this, "We Jews, we, the destroyers, will remain destroyers forever. Nothing that you will do will meet our needs and demands. We will forever destroy because we need A WORLD OF OUR OWN."

Baruch Levy in his missive to Karl Marx said this, "The Jewish people as a whole will be its own Messiah. It will attain world dominion by the dissolution of other races, by the abolition of frontiers, the annihilation of monarchy, and by the establishment of a world republic in which the Jews will everywhere exercise the privilege of citizenship. In this NEW WORLD ORDER the Children of Israel (sic) will furnish all the leaders without encountering opposition. The Governments of the different peoples forming the world republic will fall without difficulty into the hands of the Jews. It will then be possible for the Jewish rulers to abolish private property, and everywhere to make use of the resources of the state. Thus will the promise of the Talmud be fulfilled, in which is said that when the Messianic time is come, the Jews will have all the property of the whole world in their hands."

Again, those who think with emotion instead of reason, cannot see that these men and many, many more with identical intentions, were men in knowledgeable positions. Any intelligent person need only look around them at the world power structure as it actually is and realize that what these men said has already come very, very close to fruition.

We have studied the Hegelian Dialectics in the Intelligence Newsletter for many years. We have discussed the dialectics of World War II and the Cold War with Russia. That Cold War ostensibly has ended. Was that also planned and, if so, by whom? This is what Chaim Weizmann in World Conquerors said, "We are one people despite the ostensible rifts, cracks and differences between the American and Soviet democracies. We are one people (the Jews-ed.) and it is not in our interests that the West should liberate the East, for in doing this and in liberating the enslaved nations, the West would inevitably deprive Jewry of the Eastern half of its WORLD POWER."

There have been many "wanna-be" world dictators throughout history and perhaps some may have succeeded except for the fact that they had a "champagne taste and a beer budget!" How does this current attempt fair in this regard? The world-wide Zionist movement has enough funds at their disposal. It is not necessary that they have all of the money in their own bank accounts for them to be a serious threat. They only need to have CONTROL of the money in circulation. By the Rothschild technique of being in control of the central banks of the nations of the world, they have the CONTROL of the world's money. Depressions can be created at will as can an accelerated economy. Thus, the well being of nearly every person on earth is directly influenced by the very people who demand a WORLD OF THEIR OWN.

It is a system of parasites. The common thief is a parasite, as is the pirate of old. The governments of the world create laws that are parasitic. The U.S. Congress itself became a parasite when it passed the laws, which permitted the large foundations to be created. Those foundations (Ford Foundation, Carnegie Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, etc.) are fundamental to the efforts to further lobby or direct Congress to pass laws to further expand the parasitic system. Every public works law, health law and education law is parasitic in that it demands money from the host to be given to the parasitic element, worthy or not.

The modern system of sociology and psychology are creations of the parasitic system and those in command of it. Our modern-day civilization demands that anyone brave enough to openly discuss the parasitic system be declared "unbalanced" at best or an "enemy of the state." At worst, the words usually used are "Right Wing Extremist" or "Anti-Semitic."

When William the Conqueror conquered England in 1066 he brought with him the parasite system of land ownership in fief where you must pay taxes or you lose ownership of the land you worked so hard to possess. The United States has that parasitic system today. During the early years of the United States, only those who owned property were allowed to vote. Now, everyone is allowed to vote. One only needs to show a driver's license to qualify which is permitting even aliens to vote. Thus, we have a parasitic system in its true form in existence in this country.

The life cycle of this once great Christian Republic is being changed by this incessant parasitism, first created at the Tower of Babel, modified many times including at the ancient city of Babylon, and perfected through the system of Talmudic Bolshevism. This parasitic system has sucked the life blood of our civilization with such perfection that it inevitably will destroy its host unless the American people decide to make a change. Obviously, if, or rather when, the American people decide to make that change, the parasitic element will modify itself sufficiently to mask themselves. They will attempt to penetrate and even take over the efforts to develop a new system.

It was this way during the early years of the Roman Catholic Church. As Maurice Pinay, in his Plot Against the Church reveals, the heresies that were intentionally introduced to destroy the Church were matters of history. Then, after Martin Luther nailed his theses on the Wurtemberg Cathedral doors, which culminated in the Protestant Movement, the parasites modified themselves just enough for their true identity to be hidden. They then were able to assist and then direct the efforts of the Protestants.

Another example was during the days preceding the writing of the Magna Carta in England. The parasitic system sucked the life blood out of the people of England from that of the freedom and liberty they possessed during the Celto-Saxon period. When the citizens, starting with the Christian clergy, demanded that a change be made, the parasites already began to modify their methods. The Magna Carta was forced upon King John but there wasn't that much of a change in the system of the parasites. It just appeared to be a little better after the signing of the document.

So it is here in this nation of people who can look back to their ancestry with pride for hacking out a new nation here on this continent. But, just as in any parasitic system, the virus simply mutated itself.

How have these parasites been so successful? The concept is simple. They have only needed erroneously to "prove" that the Laws of God do not belong to Christians but that they are the sole property of the Talmudists. This is an oxymoron. Christians profess to follow the teachings of the Holy Bible. The Jewish people openly profess that they follow the Talmud as their life principle and not the Holy Bible. Then, shouldn't the Christians follow the Laws, Statutes and Judgments of God as found in the Bible, in both the Old and New Testaments and give the Jews their Talmud?

As a so-called Christian nation, we are following two different systems. We supposedly follow the system of Biblical Principles on Sunday and we feel good all day for doing that. Then, starting on Monday morning, we are forced into following and obeying the Talmudic system used by the parasites. But the parasites have modified their virus just enough to appear as noble and righteous. We have a welfare system, health-care system and retirement system that warms the emotions of most Christians. We are told by the Judeo-Christian preachers how proud we should be to pay for single women having a child on a yearly basis with it all being paid for by the parasitic system. How proud we must be for families to have been on welfare for three and four generations with no intentions of getting off the parasite system. How proud we must be to pay for bonds used to construct the infrastructure for new public housing to be used by aliens who have no lawful right to be here. We are told how proud we must be to integrate the public schools in order to learn of the "beauty" of other peoples.

There is a name for those Judeo-Christian preachers. They are Priests of Baal. Isn't that what was taught in Babylon where the Talmudists came from? The Mathematical maxim states, "Things equal to the same thing are equal to each other."

There is only one way to get rid of the parasites. The virus cannot live in the light of truth. It is like the sunlight striking any virus body. It cannot survive in those intense rays of sunshine. "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you." (Jas 4:7) Submitting to God means to submit to His Laws, Statutes and Judgments, not just talk about Him on Sunday. The book of James is in the New Testament, you know, just in case one wants to tear off the Old Testament. Paul, also in the New Testament, says, "For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies" (2 Ths 3:10-11). The parasitic system has become so brazen as to allow those who will not work to be "busy-bodies" and lobby for even more dole to the parasites.

We reiterate. Only a system, which is directly, without Talmudic equivocation, based on God's Laws, Statutes and Judgments will work. Is it even possible for the Christians of America to learn what the parasitic system is all about and then change it? The answer is a resounding YES. The process is already in motion.

As was said earlier, the window of opportunity for the New World Order is closing. That is a truism. The advent of audio tape recorders and duplicators, the video camera and viewing sets, the Fax machine, the computer and modem, the desk-top publishing capability of those computers, the internet, etc. has made it possible for the alternative news media to possess the same power as the controlled media. The information now becoming available to the American people staggers the evil mind of the parasitic element and it is causing them to become extreme and even violent in their actions.

For every action of violence on the part of the parasitic element, more Americans are waking up to the threat of the One World Order. The parasites have become frantic. They are rushing around changing the "rules of engagement" to kill on sight anyone carrying a weapon. They are attempting to classify anyone "terrorists" who disagree with their edicts. (They have a fetish of wanting to burn, or blow up and bury, the remains of any of their actions.)

The election of November, 1994 petrified them. But, once again in true parasitic form, the virus is already modifying itself to become acceptable to the hosts. They called it a Republican mandate. No, it was a "get big brother off our backs" mandate.

In turn, Americans must not accept ANYTHING LESS THAN TOTAL SURRENDER TO GOD'S LAWS, STATUTES AND JUDGMENTS! Those Christians who no longer go to the Judeo-Christian churches because of the Talmudic parasitic system, know that the Laws of God are in their hearts. "For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:" (Heb 8:10) They know what needs to be demanded for rape. They know what needs to be demanded for homosexuality. They know that the victim of theft is to receive restitution, not some system of imprisonment and fine, which does nothing but further fund and perpetuate the parasitic system.

The American people are crying unto the Lord in the only way they understand. At the grass roots level, citizens are banding together to face excessive parasitic government. They are demanding a return to states' rights. They want the ownership of the vacant land settled and they demand that it go to the respective states. They demand that prayer be returned in the schools. They demand an end be made to the incessant ridicule of Christianity and everything it stands for. They demand a removal of the violence being shown to our children on television and the movies.

Yes, life has become most interesting in America today. One can readily see the ancestry in the faces of most Americans. It was our ancestors who took on a big parasite system in 1776. At the time it was like David with his slingshot against Goliath. It is not too different today. But with God anything is possible. Remember that!
