

Meet Bam-Bam:

He is an 8 year old Piebald Dachshund and has the best personality.

He rolls on his back for belly rubs, stands on his butt to be noticed and gives really nice kisses and hugs.

He has learned to sleep in his own bed on the floor by my bed, of course, and enjoys squeaky toys.

He has been in a house full of other dogs and will always want to play with at least one.

He has been vetted, chipped, up to date on shots, potty trained and even had a bunch of teeth pulled but still eats his 1/3 cup kibble twice a day.
