

Seamus Kennedy Performs at Maritime Museum

On Sunday, July 22, The Havre de Grace Maritime Museum hosted Seamus Kennedy, a four-decade veteran of the Irish/Celtic festival circuit. More than forty people attended the entertaining and participatory concert. The participants were from Havre de Grace, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and the Annapolis/Baltimore areas.

Not only is Seamus a solid musician, but also an all-round entertainer. With a thorough knowledge of the traditional and contemporary songs of Ireland and Scotland, he is equally proficient with American music, be it folk, country, bluegrass or a little Western swing.

Seamus is based in Annapolis but he has been entertaining audiences all over the United States for more than four decades. An accomplished guitarist with a ready wit and a vast storage of songs, he travels the country making folks laugh, sing, and forget their cares for a while. His strong interactive entertainment skills and his participation with the audience have helped him create an exceptionally loyal fan base everywhere he goes.

The Havre de Grace Maritime Museum Summer Concert Series is brought to you with the support of the Maryland State Arts Council.