

Rocky Mountain Motocross Qualification for 2015 Summer Series Year-End Awards

The 2015 RMX Summer Series consists of 11 total races: four rounds in the North, four rounds in the South and three rounds combined North & South. The final three combined races count for North & South points, but are also a mini-series called the “Triple Crown”, where separate Triple Crown points are kept. It is possible for the same rider to win three series championships, North – South & Triple Crown.

Qualification guidelines:

1. Purchase an RMX Membership for the 2015 Summer Series. One Membership is good for all 2015 RMX Summer Series Events – North, South, and Triple Crown.
2. North & South Series:
  - Separate awards will be given for North & South. It is possible for the same rider to win North & South Championships.
  - Attend at least 6 Summer Series events.
  - Points & Championship Awards:
    - Top 5 in points for every class will receive Championship Awards
  - Attendance & Contingency Awards:
    - Riders that attend at least 6 events qualify for contingency prizes no matter how you finish in points.
3. Triple Crown:
  - The last three rounds of the Summer Series are combined North & South and also create the Triple Crown.
  - Points & Championship Awards:
    - Top 3 in points for every class will receive a Triple Crown Award.
    - Rider must attend all three rounds to be eligible.
