Getting Started with the Assignment:

1st - Read the book I Am Malala: The Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban by Malala Yousafzai.

2nd - Log on to Turnitin.com and complete the assignment by August 21st (the first day of school.)

Turnitin enrollment code: 15300522

Turnitin password: stmsabers

*If you encounter issues with turnitin.com, email a copy of your paper and an explanation of the issue to Mrs. Tasch at otasch@hs-stm.org by the due date.

Assignment Prompt:

Many instances in Malala's life required her to grow up fast. When reading this novel, you may have found some of the situations she went through relatable. In a minimum of 1 page, write a reflection essay where you discuss an accomplishment, event, or significant moment that marked your transition from child to teen. Discuss what this event was and why/how it made you grow up.

Requirements:

- Answer the prompt above in a formal essay: MLA heading, 12 pt. Font, double spaced
- Must be at least 1 page in length
- Be mindful of grammar and punctuation
