

Hello, everyone!

Last session, the girls learned about French culture (the national anthem, national symbols, sports, music, and of course, fashion) and even learned a little bit of the French language (ask your daughter to count to five). They all ate a French-themed snack of crepes and croissants.

Just a reminder that the next session is on 2/1.

Can't wait to see everyone there!

Mae on behalf of LIT