CODE OF CONDUCT: Always display good sportsmanship on and off the court. Always be respectful and show a good and positive attitude toward the sport, teammates, and instructors. Come to class on time. Space is limited and we want to give all students passionate about volleyball an opportunity to better their skills. Failure to comply with our Code of Conduct will result in dismissal from the course so that another may have this opportunity.

I have read and hereby agree to abide by the Skills 'n' Drills Code of Conduct.

Player's Signature: _____ Date: _____

It is strongly encouraged that all players bring their own volleyball to this course and write their name with a sharpie on their ball. Balls will be shared among the team during class, but player's will take their own balls back home to practice at-home drills. The Tachikara Volley-Lite Indoor Volleyball pictured in the link below is an affordable beginning level ball found on Amazon (<https://bestreviews.com/sports-fitness/recreational/best-volleyballs>). There will be homework assignments consisting of watching YouTube videos and practicing single person drills.

Parents/Guardians: As the player's parent(s)/guardian(s), I(We) realize that any child participating in an organized sports program should do so only after being given approval by a qualified physician. It is my(our) responsibility to obtain this approval and forward to the course instructor. I(We) acknowledge that there is a risk of injury while participating in any physical activity and we give permission for our child to participate in Watermelon's Volleyball Skills 'n' Drills Course. I(We) understand that as parent(s)/guardian(s) we have assumed all risks while our child participates in this course. I(We) agree that Watermelon Inc. and all its instructors as well as the host, St. Mary's College of Maryland, will not be held responsible for any injury that could or may occur to our child while participating in this course.

I(We) understand that the fee for this course is $50 and we will bring cash and pay this fee during the first session. I(We) also understand that completion of this registration form does not guarantee a spot in this season's Skills 'n' Drills course.
