✝SAINTS/FEASTS OF THE WEEK✝

Nov. 9-The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica– The oldest and highest ranking of the four major basilicas in Rome. The Basilica of St. John Lateran is the cathedral of the diocese of Rome, the official ecclesiastical seat of the Holy Father, the Bishop of Rome, not St. Peter's Basilica as so many mistakenly believe.

Nov. 10-St. Leo the Great–A Roman aristocrat, a Doctor of the Church, most remembered theologically for issuing the Tome of Leo, a document which was a major foundation to the debates of the Ecumenical Council of Chalcedon. and the first pope to have been called "the Great". He is perhaps best known for having met Attila the Hun in 452 and persuading him to turn back from his invasion of Italy.

Nov. 11. -St. Martin of Tours– Bishop of Tours, whose shrine in France became a famous stopping-point for pilgrims on the road to Santiago de Compostela in Spain.

Pope Francis Prayer Intention for November

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

[Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

5 de noviembre de 2017 • Trigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Los escribas y fariseos no eran los primeros ni los últimos en ser descubiertos buscando el reconocimiento y el prestigio. Ni eran los únicos en empavonarse con su propio orgullo, pero fallando en honrar a Dios en este proceso. Los levitas en tiempo de Malaquías también son el ejemplo que guía ese mal comportamiento. Desde luego, esto no es solo un asunto para los líderes religiosos en tiempos bíblicos. Muchas personas permiten que sus deseos por estima los guie a la ignorancia de las aportaciones de los demás, esperando aparecer ser solamente los responsables por el éxito. Aun el desarrollo que se buscaba puede animar el fuego cuando aquellos que comparten el éxito son reconocidos legítimamente. En las palabras de Jesús: "el que se enaltece será humillado".

EL MÁS GRANDE ENTRE USTEDES SERÁ EL QUE LOS SIRVA

Nota las diferencias entre las acciones de los escribas y fariseos con lo que san Pablo describe como el comportamiento de los líderes de la comunidad de Tesalónica: ellos eran gentiles, mostraban afecto por las personas y trabajaban duro para no ser ninguna carga. Ellos tomaron muy en serio la enseñanza de Jesús de servir con humildad y como resultado los tesalonicenses fueron inspirados en creer en la Palabra de Dios. El verdadero servicio es inspirador. Piensa en las personas en quienes nosotros realmente admiramos, aquellas que nos inspiran a ser cosas excelentes y extraordinarias. Frecuentemente hay personas que guían, pero que no delegan su talento o puestos a otras personas, sino al contrario, humildemente modelan el tipo de acción al que debemos aspirar. Ellas no buscan la adulación o la alabanza, sino recibir atención porque su servicio está profundamente enfocado en el prójimo. Ellas vislumbran el rostro de Dios a quien sirven; nosotros vislumbramos el rostro de Dios en quienes sirven con humildad. "El que se humilla será ensalzado".

NOVEMBER 5, 2017—THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE GREATEST AMONG US

Whom do you admire? Is it the President of the United States or a movie star or a billionaire? These are people whom the world exalts as great. Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, they have places of honor wherever they go. Would you like to follow in their footsteps?

The scriptures for today offer different examples for us to follow. Jesus tells us that the greatest among us are the servants. These are the people we are to honor and imitate. We are called to be like Paul, who worked hard to serve the needs of his communities, and Jesus, who gave his life in service to the world.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

What is the name of the pope's cathedral? If you said the Vatican, or St. Peter's, you were off by a few miles, since the answer is the Basilica of St. John, the Lateran, the "Mother Church" of all the churches of the world and the cathedral of the Diocese of Rome. It takes its name from the Lateran family, the Trumps of their day, who somehow ran afoul of the Emperor Nero. He seized all their property, including their vast Roman palace and estate. We don't know how Plautius displeased Nero so badly, but eventually all the Lateran property came to Constantine, the first Christian emperor, through his wife, Fausta. Early in the fourth century, when Christianity was at last legalized, Constantine gave the property to the church. Soon the great meeting halls were expanded and adapted.

Over the centuries, the church building has been sacked by armies, ruined by fire, torn down, and rebuilt. The oldest and most unchanged part of the Lateran is a vast, separate baptistery with steps leading down to a huge green basalt pool. Imagine what a triumphal moment the dedication of this public church building was for a community that had worshiped in secret for so long! This Thursday's feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica is really about the tradition of consecrating space for worship, and so by extension, a feast for your parish church building and, given the beautiful second reading, for its baptistery as well.
