

Whaley, Karen L.

Karen Louise Whaley, 58, of Pigeon, passed away Tuesday morning, October 26, 2004, at Scheurer Hospital in Pigeon. She was born in Willard, Ohio on August 9, 1946, daughter of Maxwell and Dorothy M. (Nagel) Heabler. On November 12, 1966, she was united in marriage to Frederick N. Whaley in Detroit. He survives her. For more than 23 years, Karen worked at Scheurer Hospital in the credit, collections, and billing office, where she loved her job and she loved to work. She enjoyed crafting and garage sales, and especially spending many hours with her grandchildren. She also enjoyed gardening, decorating, old movies and "I Love Lucy." She was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Pigeon. In addition to her husband, Frederick N. Whaley, of Pigeon, she is survived by a daughter, Jennifer Roestel and her husband, Timothy, of Owendale; three grandchildren, Heather, Kenny, and Allison; a brother, Robert Heabler and his wife, Jane, of Romulus; a brother-in-law, Barry Fill, of Canton; her mother-in-law, Ann Whaley, of Pigeon; and many nieces, nephews, and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents and a sister, Janis Fill. The funeral service will be conducted at 10 a.m. on Friday, October 29, 2004, at the First United Methodist Church, Pigeon, with the Rev. Margaret Passenger, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery. Visitation will be from 3:30 to 9 p.m. today and from 1 to 9 p.m. on Thursday at Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, and from 9 a.m. until the time of service at 10 a.m. on Friday at the church. Memorials for Karen Whaley may be made to Scheurer Hospital.
