

776

R.E. 'Bud' Markham

Services for R.E. "Bud" Markham of Oil City were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 5 at McGuire Funeral Home in Vivian. Interment was in Lakeview Memorial Cemetery in Oil City under the direction of McGuire.

Mr. Markham was born Aug. 3, 1928 in Bowleggs, Okla. to Ed and Ruth Markham. He was a veteran of World War II, having served in the Navy. He was retired from Marathon Oil Company and moved to Oil City where he served for four years as mayor. At the time of his death, Saturday, Nov. 2, 1996, he and his wife, Betty Player Markham, were living in Edmond, Okla.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Lloyd Markham of Springfield, Mo and Alan Markham of Edmond; two daughters, Debbie Karbs of Jones, Okla. and Linda Lowther of Oklahoma City, Okla.; nine grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; one brother, J.B. Markham; and three sisters, David Ruth Ellerd, Betty Jo Taylor and Nadine Russ.