Will there be a tootball season?

We are currently living in times of great uncertainty. First and foremost, our thoughts are with all of you as we hope you stay safe and healthy in the coming weeks and months. With regards to our industry, right now we're not sure if football is going to be played or not this season. If you asked us a month ago on whether there would be a football season in 2020, we would have said yes. However, the last few weeks have not trended in the right direction and those chances of having a season are probably 50/50

One thing we do know is that unlike a lot of our competitors you won't see us handicapping Korean baseball, Russian table tennis, golf, UFC, European soccer or Nascar just to earn some quick money and pass the time away. We're not experts on those sports! We never have been and we're not going to pretend like we have an edge just to take your money. BP Sports is a football service first and foremost! We also handicap basketball in the football off-season. Therefore, we might dive into a little of the NBA that is scheduled to start later this month, but that is it!

What we have been working on the last three months is football prep. Two months ago, we got you covered with the CFB preview in our spring issue and last month we previewed the NFL season. We gave you several best bets, power ratings, projected lines on every single game and more. If you didn't see these issues yet, check your email or just go to bradpowerssports.com and download them. Quite frankly, we don't think there is a single service or handicapper that has put in more time and effort this off-season.

In this issue, we are proud to include all of our Group of 5 conference team previews (66 pages for 66 teams). We think it has more college football gambling information by team than any other preview in the market! Let us know if you agree or disagree. In the next six weeks, we will finish our Power 5 conference team previews and also finalize all of our preseason ratings. We will take that updated information and create the first ever BP Sports CFB Preseason Magazine. It will cost $20 for a digital download and we subscriber you will get our updated power ratings on all teams plus all the game picks when the season starts.

For those of you that are already signed up for the upcoming football season, again we hope that this season will be played. If for some reason it is not, then we will handle refund options at that time. We're going to be real candid...if there is no 2020 football season, BP Sports is going to take a major hit financially. We won't go out of business, but let's just say the company will have seen better days.

Since we are a "mom and pop" type of business, we are happy to announce that any customer that is already signed up or will sign up for 2020 football (newsletter or VIP) will be automatically enrolled in our "grandfather" program. The "grandfather" program means that no matter what price inflation rates are in the coming years and decades that we are in business, you will never pay more than what you paid this year for our services. For example, if you paid $79 for this year's newsletter. That will be the cost of the newsletter next year. It will be the cost of the newsletter for you in 2025, 2035 and even the year 2045 as long as we're still here and in business.

Again, our thoughts and prayers are with all of you out there. Stay safe and healthy and we will be talking to you very soon. The next issue will be sent Wednesday, August 5th.

Sincerely,

Brad Powers and Staff

BP Sports VIP Packages With still so much uncertainty about the upcoming football season, we will not be taking any Football VIP orders until August 1st. Quite frankly, we don't want to have hundreds of you sign up for a higher-priced package only to issue a bunch of refunds a few weeks later. Plus, we don't if it will be NFL only this season as some colleges may play, some may not. We want to get you a fair price as we get closer to the season.

If you do want to support BP Sports this summer then sign up for the Powers' Picks newsletter for $79. You can sign up at bradpowerssports.com or call 702-419-0473.

Offense/Defense Analysis

There's no doubt that UCF has been the top Group of 5 program in the country the last three years. While UCF "slipped" to 10-3 last season, statistically they were just as good as their 2017 and 2018 teams ranking No. 5 in yards per play margin (+2.4), No. 4 in yards per game margin (+194,4) and No. 5 in scoring margin (+20.4). The difference was the inability to win close games (1-3 last) year vs 5-0 combined in '17-'18) and the Knights were "only" +6 in TO's after being +17 in 2017 and +14 in 2018.

being +17 in 2017 and +14 in 2018. This year's team could be their best edition yet, UCF returns 16 starters and we've never had a Group of 5 team ranked higher (No. 17) coming into a season! The Knights have plenty of experience at QB as Dillon Gabriel threw for 3,653 yards (29-7 ratio) as a freshman last year. Otis Anderson (also plays WR) and Bentavious Thompson return after combining for 1,330 yards and 13 TD's. UCF loses top receiver Gabriel Davis (1,241 yards, 12 TD's, 4th round pick). However, Tre Nixon and Marlon Williams are back after combining for 1,547 yards and 13 TD's. The offensive line returns three starters as UCF could top last year's 540.5 total ypg (No. 2). Last year's defense ranked No. 5 in yards per play and they notched 117 TFL's (No. 3). This year's unit brings back eight starters led by Eric Mitchell (11 TFL's) and Kenny Turnier (13.5 TFL's) while the secondary is the best in the AAC with Richie Grant and Aaron Robinson. Currently we have UCF projected to be a favorite in all 12 games this season

Currently we have UCF projected to be a favorite in all 12 games this season. The home opener vs a Top 20 North Carolina team and a road trip to defending AAC Champ Memphis will go a long way in determining whether or not UCF makes their third major bowl bid in four years!

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis After a going just 12-48 from 2009-2013, the Tigers are now 57-23 in their las six seasons, which is the third best record among Group of 5 programs. Last yea the Tigers had arguably their best season in school history winning 12 game and also their first outright league title since 1969. Like many Group of 5 pro grams, an historic season usually means a Power 5 school will hire your coac away and that was the case with Mike Norvell off to Florida State.

away and that was the case with Mike Norvell off to Florida State. Ryan Silverfield takes over after serving as the offensive line coach the last fou years. He inherits a good situation as the Tigers return 14 starters led by QE Brady White who threw for 4,014 yards (64%) with a 33-11 ratio. The Tiger, also bring back 1st-team All-AAC RB Kenneth Gainwell who ran for 1,459 yards and 13 TD's while adding 610 receiving yards. Damonte Coxie returns a WR after leading the Tigers with 1,276 yards (16.8 ypc and 9 TD's) but Mem phis does lose stud RB/WR Antonio Gibson who combined for 1,104 rush/rec yards and 12 TD's. Gibson was a 3rd round draft pick. Three starters are bacl on the offensive line and they also get back TE Sean Dykes and WR John Wil liams back from injury. The defense loses their leading tackler Austin Hall and DE Bryce Huff (15.5 TFL's). Keep an eye on DE Joseph Dorceus (14.5 TFL's and CB TJ Carter. Note that Silverfield hired former San Jose St/Coloradd coach Mike MacIntyre as his D.C. and kept special teams coach Pete Lembo. The schedule could see the Tigers favored in as many as nine or ten games with The schedule could see the Tigers favored in as many as nine or ten games with road trips to Purdue and Cincinnati along with a home game vs UCF being the toughest. Memphis could flirt with double-digit wins again but we don't se them matching last year's historic win total.

2020 Oftense/Detense Analysis

Luke Fickell is doing a great job here with back-to-back 11-win seasons and the Bearcats also just signed the best Group of 5 recruiting class. With that being said, we thought the Bearcats were extremely fortunate last season to win II games. They beat UCF, Houston, Tulsa, ECU, USF and Temple despite being out-gained in all those games by an average of 101 ypg! They were 4-1 in one-score games and were just a couple plays away from a 4 or 5-loss season This year's team will be just as good. Desmond Ridder is back at QB after throwing for 2,164 yards (18-9 ratio) while also adding 650 rushing yards. Rid-This year is year as the provided of the provi

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

After going 3-10 in 2018 (their worst season since 2002), expectations weren't high for Navy last year. However, the Midshipmen matched the second-big-gest improvement in win-loss record of any team in FBS history! Navy won 11 wins for only the second time and their only losses came against Memphis and Notre Dame on the road. We upgraded Navy 17 points in our power ratings from the start of the season, which was more than any team in the country.

from the start of the season, which was more than any team in the country. This year we expect Navy to take a step back. The number one reason is the loss of QB Malcolm Perry who ran for a QB FBS record 2,017 rush yards last year (21 TD's) while also throwing for 1,084 yards (7-3 ratio). Perry Olsen will be the likely replacement. Navy does return FB's Jamale Carothers and Nelson Smith who ran for a combined 1,305 yards and 21 TD's last year. Top slot back CJ Williams (508 rush/rec yards) also returns along with leading receiver My-chal Cooper (21.1 ypc). The offensive line loses their top guy in center Ford Higgins. Niumatolo brought in a new D.C. last year in Brian Newberry and it paid dividends. Navy went from allowing 426 ypg (No. 86) to only 314 ypg (No. 16). This year they bring back seven starters led by LB Diego Fagot who had 100 tackles and 12 TFL's. The team suffered a big loss in spring when DE Jacob Springer (8 sacks, 16 TFL's) entered the transfer portal.

The schedule sets up well as Navy avoids UCF and Cincinnati and also gets Memphis at home in conference action. The Notre Dame game has been moved from Ireland as the Irish will visit Annapolis for the very first time! Currently, we project 10 of their 12 games to be decided by single-digits. If Olsen works out well at QB, Navy could contend for the AAC crown.

2020 Offense/Detense Analysis

2019 was a breakout year for the Mustangs. They were ranked for the first time since 1986, had double-digit wins for the first time since 1984, were 8-0 for the first time since 1982 and set a slew of school records -- including points (544), points per game (41.8) and sacks (51). However, they did lose three of their last five including a "no-show" in the bowl game against a depleted FAU team. This year's team welcomes back 13 starters led by QB Shane Buechele who threw for 3,929 yards with a 34-to-10 TD-to-INT ratio. Leading rusher Xavier Jones departs after running for 1,276 yards and 23 TD's. The Mustangs also lose leading receiver James Proche who had 1,225 yards and 15 TD's and was a 6th round draft pick. It should be noted that Reggie Roberson (803 yards, a oth round draft pick. It should be noted that Reggie Roberson (803 yards, 18.7 ypc) was their top guy until he missed the final five games due to injury. All-AAC TE Kylen Granson (721 yards, 9 TD's) is also back. The offensive line returns four starters led by All-AAC LT Jaylon Thomas. While last year's defense allowed 445 ypg and 33 ppg, they were one of the best at creating pressure. However, SMU loses their top two pass rushers in LB Patrick Nelson and DE Delontae Scott who combined for 22 sacks and 36 TFL's! SMU does bring back their leading tackler in Richard McBryde (98 tackles, 9.5 TFL's). As far as the schedule we currently project nine of their games to be decided by a TD or less. SMU should start the season 3-0 and then they host TCU and Memphis, arguably their two toughest games. We certainly think the Mustangs will be back in a bowl but it will be tough matching last year's 10 wins.

zuzu Uttense/Defense Analysis

Dana Holgorsen's first season in Houston made headlines for all the wrong reasons. It started with star QB D'Eriq King and leading receiver Keith Corbin deciding to take a redshirt after four games to preserve eligibility. It was a bold strategy by Holgorsen but the Cougars would stumble to 4-8, their worst record since 2004. Houston's lack of depth showed as they outscored their opponents by 29 in the first half and were outscored by 69 points in the second half. While the season seemed like a big disappointment, note that Cougars were only fa-vored in two games as they went 0-6 against ranked teams.

This season, Houston looks poised for a big bounce back thanks to the return of 18 starters. QB Clayton Tune got plenty of experience last year (1,533 yards, 11-9 ratio) with King out and leading rusher Kyle Porter (615 yards) also returns. The receiving corps returns their top three guys led by All-AAC Marquez Stevenson (907 yards and 9 TD's) and Corbin is also back. The offensive line stevenson (507) yards and 5 1D 5) and colorin is also back. The defense three brings back four starters and eight with starting experience. The defense struggled mightily last year as the Cougars allowed 6.8 yards per play (No. 127 in the country). For better or worse, most of their players return led by NB Grant Stuard (97 tackles, 9.5 TFL's) and there are many incoming transfers.

The Cougars have arguably the toughest schedule in the AAC as they play the top 5 teams in the league and four of those games are on the road. Mix in a couple of long road trips to BYU and Washington St in non-conference action and despite the much improved roster, Houston might struggle to get past 6-6.

Power Ratings Diff vs Last Year -6.0

Tulane head coach Willie Fritz is one of the more underrated coaches in t country (see ATS stat below). He is slowly building this Green Wave progra the right way and the Green Wave just finished consecutive seasons with bo wins for the first time in school history. While they didn't have a gaudy rece last season (7-6), we think it was their best team since 1998. Tulane was No. in ypp, No. 26 in ypg, and No. 41 in ppg margins.

2020 Season Win Projection

In ypp, No. 26 in ypg, and No. 41 in ppg margins. This year Fritz will have his work cut out for him in getting Tulane to a 3 straight bowl game. The Green Wave lose QB Justin McMillan who threw f 2,444 yards (17-10 ratio) and also led Tulane with 745 rushing yards and TD's. Keon Howard (formerly of Southern Miss and 18 pass attempts he last year) is the likely replacement. Corey Dauphine (575 yards, 8.0 ypc!) back at RB but the Green Wave lose their top two receivers in Darnell Moon and Jalen McCleskey who combined for 1,294 yards (15.2 ypc). The versat Amare Jones could see more touches after notching 1,611 all-purpose yar last year and they also bring in Oklahoma transfer Mykel Jones. The offense will line brings back three starters led by LG Corey Dublin. The defense will the strength of the team especially up front where everyone returns (98 card starts). Keep an eye on Patrick Johnson (4 sacks) who plays the Joker position The opener against SE Louisiana appears to be the only easy game on schedule. Currently, we project Tulane as a favorite in only four games the season. Fritz probably gets them to five and then it will come down to the fir weeks on whether they can get to bowl eligibility or not.

and Memphis (missed FG's did them in). Tulsa has been better than their record the last three years but they are just 3-11 straight up in one possession games. the last three years but they are just 3-11 straight up in one possession games. This year's team will likely continue the upward trend thanks to what could be a much improved offense. QB Zach Smith returns after throwing for 3,279 yards (19-9 ratio) last year. All-AAC RB Shamari Brooks is also back after running for 1,046 yards. Tulsa's top two receivers return in All-AAC Keylon Stookes (1,040 yards, 16.8 ypc) and Sam Crawford (777 yards). The Golden Hurricane return four starters on the OL led by LG Chris Paul but the unit must improve protecting the QB (No. 118 in sacks allowed) and also running effectively (No. 125 in ypc). The defense is the major question mark coming into the season with just four returning starters. Tulsa loses their top CB in Reggie Robinson (4 INT's) and also their best pass rusher in Trevis Gipson (8 sacks, 15 TFL's). Both were drafted. Keep an eye on LB Zaven Collins (97 tackles, 8 TFL's).

The schedule features a probable win (Northwestern St) and two probable loss es (at Oklahoma St and at UCF). Currently, we project their other nine games to be decided by single digits. If Tulsa's fortunes in close games reverses, they could flirt with bowl eligibility. Totals' players note there could be value in betting Tulsa OVER the total in their games this year.

LULU VILLIEU/ DUIGING MIDDIANS For much of the 1990's and early 2000's, Temple was arguably the worst FBS program. The Owls had 17 consecutive seasons of four wins or less and they were booted from the Big East conference. Now, the Owls are coming off argu-ably their best 10-year stretch in school history despite having five different head coaches. Last year under first-year head coach Rod Carey, the Owls con-tinued their winning ways including a pair of wins over Power 5 teams for the first time since 1991.

first time since 1991. However, we think Temple will be taking a step back in 2020 as Temple lost four players to the NFL Draft (school record). Temple will have to rely more on its offense this year. QB Anthony Russo returns after throwing for 2,861 yards (59%) and a 21-12 ratio. Leading rusher Re'Mahn Davis returns (936 yards and 8 TD's) and the Owls also bring back their top two receivers in Jaden Blue and Branden Mack who combined for 1,971 yards and 11 TD's. Blue had a school-record 95 catches. Temple must replace center Matt Hennessy (3rd round pick) on the offensive line but they do return three starters. The defensive losses are heavy as the Owls lose their top six tacklers including LB's Shaun Bradley and Chapelle Russell who were both drafted. AAC Defensive POY, DE Quincy Roche (13 sacks) also transferred to Miami. Keep an eye on DT Ifeanyi Maijeh (10 TFL's) who is by far their best defender. The schedule isn't easy as Temple might be favored in only five or six games.

The schedule isn't easy as Temple might be favored in only five or six games After five straight bowl appearances, Temple might struggle to get to bowl eligibility this year. With that being said, check out the ATS Stat box below!

country. There's a lot of new energy in Tampa. In a conference filled with potent offenses, USF averaged an AAC-worst 330.8 ypg last season. Scott and Company do have some pieces to work with starting with QB Jordan McCloud who threw for 1,429 yards (12-8 ratio) last season. However, keep an eye on North Carolina transfer Cade Fortin and Alcorn St transfer Noah Johnson who might be better fits for the new offense. The Bulls do lose leading rusher Jordan Cronkite (687 yards) but Johnny Ford (787 rushing yards in 2018) and backup Kelley Joiner (364 yards) return. USF loses their top receiver in TE Mitch Wilcox but he only had 350 yards and everyone is back at WR. USF loses their top defender in DE Greg Reaves (10 TFL's) but bring back leading tackler Dwayne Boyles (75 tackles, 12.5 TFL's) at LB and also All-AAC CB KJ Sails (3 INT's).

The schedule isn't easy as we currently project USF to be favored in only four games. Even with an improved roster and more energy in the building, we don't see the Bulls getting to a bowl in year one under Scott.

It's been nearly five years and we still don't understand why East Carolina fired Ruffin McNeill. After 11 straight seasons of at least five wins, the Pirates are just 13-35 SU and 16-31-1 ATS since. Last year new head coach Mike Houston did stop the regression as ECU "improved" to 4-8. However note that the Pirates beat a pair of FCS teams. The highlight of the season might have been the back-to-back close losses to Cincinnati and SMU where ECU's offense put up 93 points. The problem is the defense allowed 105.

This year's offense should be exciting thanks to the return of QB Holton Ahlers who threw for 3,387 yards (21-10 ratio). The Pirates also return their top two RB's in Demetrius Mauney and Darius Pinnix. The receiving corps is a team strength with their top three targets back in All-AAC CI Johnson, Tyler Snead strength with their top three targets back in All-AAC CJ Johnson, Tyler Shead and Blake Prochl who combined for 2,337 yards and 13 TD's last year. The offensive line returns three starters led by LT D'Ante Smith. The defense needs improvement after allowing 469 ypg (No. 119). ECU has a new D.C. in Blake Harrell and lost a pair of starters late in the spring in DE Chance Purvis (12 TFL's, legal issues) and safety Daniel Charles (transfer portal). ECU also loses NT Alex Turner (11 TFL's) and 1st-team All-AAC Kendal Futrell (11 sacks). The good news is their top three tacklers return led by LB Xavier Smith.

Right now we're projecting East Carolina to be a clear favorite in one game (v FCS Norfolk St). Seven of their underdogs roles are by a TD or less so we do think they're capable of pulling a few upsets. However, bowl eligibility doesn't look like a good bet in 2020.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Boise St has been by far the most successful Group of 5 program in the last 20 years with 13 AP Top 25 finishes, 16 seasons with at least 10 wins and three Fiesta Bowl Red Zone championships. While the program isn't as strong as it was in the QB Kellen Moore Scoring % 8 days of 2008-2011, the Broncos have been remarkably consistent under head coach KO Ret Bryan Harsin (see power ratings chart below). Boise St is 64-17 SU under Harsin an last year notched 12 wins for the first time since 2014.

Those 12 wins last year were quite an achievement considering the Broncos had start three different QB's for the first time since 1993. True frosh Hank Bachmeid started the season and was 7-1 as a starter, but took too many hits and was banged u Jaylon Henderson was the most efficient of the three (12-to-2 ratio) but departs. R George Holani ran for 1,014 yards as a freshman and returns as Boise has had a 1,000 yard rusher for 11 straight years. The Broncos lose their top WR John Hightower (18, ypc, 5th round draft pick) but bring back Khalil Shakir and CT Thomas who combine for 1,394 yards and 11 TD's. The offensive line loses four starters including 2nd roun draft pick Ezra Cleveland at LT. The defensive line loses all of their starters includin STUD Curtis Weaver (18.5 TFL's, 5th round draft pick). The Broncos are led by L Riley Whimpey (83 tackles) and Ezekiel Noa is back after missing the last 10 games The schedule is highlighted by one of the most anticipated home games in school history as Florida St visits in Week 3. That game is bookended by road trips to A Force and Marshall. If the Broncos manage a 4-0 start, they'll be heavy favorites their final eight games. At the very least, this looks like another 10-win season for th 18th time in the last 22 years

After back-to-back 5-7 seasons, even the most optimistic 2019 Air Force predic-tions couldn't have predicted 11 wins and arguably the best Falcons' team since 1998. The Falcons' dominated most of their opponents on the scoreboard and in the box score as they ranked number one in the country in several categories including pass yards per attempt, sacks allowed and fewest penalties. We've never had Air Force rated higher in our power ratings than at the end of last year as they enter 2020 on an 8-game winning streak (second longest to LSU).

enter 2020 on an 8-game winning streak (second longest to LSO). This year's team figures to take a step back with only nine returning starters. QB Donald Hammond is back after throwing for 1,316 yards and 13 TD's while add-ing 553 rush yards and 13 more TD's. Leading rusher Kadin Remsburg returns after gaining 1,050 yards and 8 TD's but the Falcons lose both of their WR's Geraud Sanders and Benjamin Waters who combined for a 1,404 receiving yards and 14 TD's. Keep an WR's Brandon Lewis (4.4 speed), David Cormier (6-3 225) who both missed last year. The Falcons do bring back a couple starters on the offensive line led by LG Nolan Laufenberg who was a 1st-team All-MWC selection. The defense welcomes back leading tackler Demonte Meeks (98 tkls, 9 TFL's) but loses all-MWC 330-pound NG Mosese Fifita (6 sacks). There is no game on Air Force's schedule that we would deem un-winnable.

There is no game on Air Force's schedule that we would deem un-winnable. however, with a lightly experienced team they do have two of their toughest games early against Boise St and at Purdue. While the Falcons won't match last year's 11 wins, they should easily get to bowl eligibility. Finally, it should be noted that Air Force got in 13 practices before the COVID-19 shutdown.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

After not making a bowl game for 11 consecutive seasons, Brady Hoke got the Aztecs going with a 9-4 record in 2010. Hoke then left for Michigan and his D.C. Rocky Long took the program to new heights including four double-digit win seasons in the last five years. San Diego St has now made 10 straight bowl games! After Long surprisingly left to become a D.C. at New Mexico, Hoke returns as head man in 2020 (he was the DL coach here last year).

On offense, the Aztecs struggled last year ranking No. 122 in yards per play. San Diego St will have to replace QB Ryan Agnew (2,462 yards, 14-6 ratio) but Carson Baker did get a start in the upset win over BYU. He was the clear leader after the Aztecs got in six spring practices. The Aztecs lose leading rush-er Juwan Washington (500 yards) but bring back their next three rushers. They also welcome back their top two receivers and three starters on the offensive line. Obviously, the defense has been the strength of the program. Last year San Diago St trapked No. 2 in the aguntary in agering (12.7 med rushing (75.4) Diego St ranked No. 2 in the country in scoring (12.7 ppg) and rushing (75.4). They do welcome back eight starters but lose leading tackler Kyahva Tezino (99 tackles, 10.5 TFL's) and All-American Luq Barcoo who led the country with 9 interceptions. Keep an eye on All-MWC candidates DT Cameron Thom-as (5.5 sacks), DE Keshawn Banks (13.5 TFL's), WAR Tariq Thompson (4 INT's) and CB Darren Hall (16 PBU's). Per Game 6.0

No game on San Diego St's schedule is un-winnable. They don't play Boise St or Air Force, arguably the two best team's in the conference. The Aztecs won't match last year's 10-win total, but they are the best team in the West division.

Craig Bohl has done a great job bringing some stability to Laramie as the Cowboys have had their best 4-year stretch since the late 1990's with three 8-win seasons in the last 4 years. Last year, the Cowboys pulled off a big upset over Missouri in the opener en route to their first unbeaten season at home since 1996. However, note that Wyoming won several games last season on the scoreboard but not in the box score (see game-by-game recaps on the right).

This season Wyoming welcomes back 13 starters led by QB Sean Chambers who missed the last five games due to injury. Chambers, a dual-threat rushed for 567 yards and 10 TD's. Also note that talented 6-foot-5 221-pound Levi Williams returns after starting the bowl game. According to Bohl, both will play. Wyoming should have a powerful rushing attack thanks to the return of 1st-team All-MWC RB Xazavian Valladay (1,265 yards). He will be running behind an offensive line that returns all five starters led by Center Keegan Cryder. The defense has far more question marks as Wyoming loses their top three tacklers including 1st-team performers LB Logan Wilson (3rd round pick, 421 career tackles), safety Alijah Halliburton (130 tackles) and also LB Cassh Maluia who was drafted by the Patriots. They also have a new D.C. Keep an eye on DE Solomon Byrd who had 6.5 sacks last year. On special teams, they lose their all-time leading scorer in kicker Cooper Rothe.

The schedule is manageable but note we currently project 10 of their games to be decided by single digits. They do host the top 3 teams (Boise, San Diego St and Air Force) in the conference along with Utah. At minimum, this looks like another bowl season and if some guys step up on defense, they could challenge in the division

Colorado State is a program that has high expectations especially after bi a $220 million dollar stadium (opened in 2017). After inheriting a tea won 10 games in 2014, the Mike Bobo era in Fort Collins never had a through season (just 28-35 overall). The Rams made a surprising hire in ing new head coach Steve Addazio who was fired at Boston College last after going 44-44 in seven seasons.

after going 44-44 in seven seasons. Addazio inherits an experienced team with 15 returning starters led b Patrick O'Brien. O'Brien started the last nine games of last season due injury and threw for 2,803 yards with a 13-to-7 TD-to-INT ratio. The Ran leading rusher Marvin Kinsey (703 yards) but Marcus McElroy (370 got seven starts last year. Colorado St is loaded at WR with the return o top four targets led by 1st-team All-MWC Warren Jackson who had a through season with 1,119 yards and 8 TD's. TE Trey McBride (560 was also named 1st-team All-MWC. It will be interesting to see how Ad adjusts his run-heavier schemes to fit the pass-happy Rams' personne defense returns eight starters but they do lose 1st-team All-MWC safety Hicks (117 tackles). Keep an eye on DE Manny Jones (5 sacks). The s teams unit returns punter Ryan Stonehouse who averaged 46.4 yards per The Rams get a break in the schedule as they face first-year coaches The Rams get a break in the schedule as they face five first-year coaches Colorado will make their first visit to Fort Collins since 1996 and a games vs Power 5 teams are winnable. Unlike most first-year coaches th son, Addazio is in pretty good shape and we think the Rams will get to a

2020 Offense/Defense Analvsis

Jeff Tedford inherited a 1-11 team in 2017 and proceeded to go 22-6 in his first two years here (2018 team won a school-record 12 games). However, last year The Bulldogs were better than their record indicated as they were +0.3 yards per play and were only out-scored by a single point on the season. Tedford surprisingly stepped down for health reasons and now Kalen DeBoer returns to Fresno after serving as the offensive coordinator at Indiana a season ago. DeBoer was the O.C. here in 2017-18. Those who follow the sport closely, feel DeBoer might be one of the most underrated coaches in all of CFB.

The cupboard is not bare as the Bulldogs return 14 starters. Fresno does lose QB Jorge Reyna (2,654 yards, 65%, 15-11 ratio). Ben Wooldridge or Washing-ton transfer Jake Haener will compete for the job. Fresno's best player Ronnie Rivers is back after notching 1,251 combined rushing and receiving yards and 16 TD's. The Bulldogs also return leading receiver Zane Pope and four starters on their offensive line. Last year the OL dealt with major injuries as 11 different players started. The defense returns seven starters led by LB Justin Rice who was an All-MWC performer a year ago with 112 tackles and 8 TFL's. Also keep an eye on DT Kevin Atkins (5 sacks).

The schedule is not overly difficult as there are two likely wins (home games vs Idaho St and New Mexico St) and one likely loss (at Texas A&M). If the Per Game 6.3 Bulldogs can find a QB and reverse their fortunes in close games, they will be Scoring Qu back in a bowl game in 2020. 2020 Čobodula with DD Drojootod Linoo

Former head coach Nick Rolovich inherited a Hawai'i program in 2016 that was just 11-39 SU in the four years prior. Quite simply, Rolovich revived the program leading the Rainbow Warriors to three bowls in his four years. Last year Hawai'i won the West division for the first time and won 10 games for the first time since 2010. However, Rolovich departed for Washington State in January. The new coach is Todd Graham who boasts a nice 95-61 record in 12 years as a FBS head coach (Rice, Tulsa, Pitt and Arizona St) but hasn't coached since 2017.

We do like the coaching staff Graham assembled as many have Hawai'i ties. However, they are at a major disadvantage this season with no spring practice due to the COVID-19 shutdown. The Rainbow Warriors lose QB Cole McDonald who threw for 4,135 yards and 33 TD's and was a 7th round draft pick. The good news is that Chevan Cordeiro has plenty of experience with five career starts, 1,291 career pass yards and 14 TD's. Hawa'i brings back leading rusher Miles 1,291 career pass yards and 14 ID's. Hawa'i brings back leading rusher Miles Reed (908 yards and 8 TD's) but lose three of their top four receivers from one of the most productive units in CFB history (all topped 900 yards). The unit will be led by Jared Smart (1,129 yards). The offensive line maybe the strength of the team as they return four starters led by All-MWC LT IIm Manning. The defense returns their leading tackler Khoury Bethley and All-MWC CB Cortez Davis (14 PD's) but must get better up front after allowing 5.6 yards per carry (No. 124).

The schedule does feature three games against Pac-12 teams in the first 4 weeks. Currently, we project Hawaii to be favored in only five games and we certainly don't see them matching last year's 10 wins. Bowl eligibility should be the goal.

In 2018, Utah St had arguably their best season since Merlin Olsen was playing for them in the early 1960's. However, head coach Matt Wells left for Texas Tech and the Aggies re-hired Gary Andersen who was 26-24 here from 2009-2012 including an 11-2 record in his final season. Andersen then had a couple of head-scratching tenures at Wisconsin and Oregon State. Last year, Utah St was expected to take a step back even with Jordan Love at QB (only 9 returning starters) and they fell to 7-6.

This year the Aggies have two new coordinator This year the Aggies have two new coordinators program history in first-round draft pick Love (8, passing TD's). Power Ratings Diff vs Last Year 0.9

Nevada head coach Jay Norvell has done a solid job in Reno getting the Wolf Pack to back-to-back bowl games the last two years. However, last year's team was extremely fortunate to get to seven wins. Nevada went 5-1 in games decided by a TD or less and they were blown out four times by 26 or more points.

Last year the Wolf Pack struggled on offense as they had a freshman QB in Carson Strong and they couldn't run the football (No. 122 in rushing). This year's offense is much stronger thanks to the return of 10 starters as they welcome back all five starters on the offensive line. Strong is now an experienced sophomore and the Wolf Pack return their top two rushers led by Toa Taua (807 yards) and their top two receivers led by Elijah Cooks (926 yards and 8 TD's). The defense also struggled last year particularly in generating some havoc plays as they were No. 122 in TFL's. This year Norvell brings in a new D.C. in Brian Ward and he who had nine sacks and 15 TFL's last season. On special teams, kicker Brandon Talton was 21 of 25 on FG's last year including a couple of game-winners (56 yards as time expired in the upset over Purdue).

The 2020 schedule isn't overly difficult as the Wolf Pack don't play a single team in the top 60 of our power ratings. Our updated spread projections have 9 of their 12 games decided by a TD or less. Will the Wolf Pack be as fortunate as they were a year ago? Probably not, but they will still flirt with bowl eligibility.

After going 3-22 SU in first two years here, San Jose St head coach Brent Bren nan did a really good job last year getting the Spartans close to bowl eligibility San Jose St finished 5-7 but three of those losses came by a combined 8 points We upgraded San Jose 8 points in our power ratings from the start of the season (6th most in the country) but this year the Spartans could take a step back.

It starts with losing QB Josh Love who threw for 3,923 yards and was name. 1st-Team All-MWC last year. His replacement will likely be Nick Nash (70.6%) completions and 255 rush yards last year) or former Arkansas/Texas A&M QE Nick Starkel. No matter who starts, they will be throwing to a deep and tal-ented receiving corps led by Tre Walker (1,161 yards, 1st-Team All-MWC) Bailey Gaither (812 yards, 6 TD's) and Isaiah Hamilton (718 yards, 16.7 ypc) The Spartans do lose leading rusher DeJon Parker but San Jose only averaged so rushing ypg last year (No. 125 in the country). The defense returns sever starters led by safety Jay Lenard (95 tackles, 4.5 TFL's, 2 INT's). Similar to the offense, the defense did much better in the passing game (allowed only a 16-10 TD-to-INT ratio) but allowed 232 rushing ypg (No. 125).

The schedule is tough early with road games at Central Michigan, Penn State and Boise State along with a home game vs Air Force. However, the schedule eases up later and San Jose St could find themselves once again flirting with bowl eligibility. That says a lot considering the loss of a QB like Josh Love.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis Former UNLV head coach Tony Sanchez left the program in much better shape that what he inherited. The Rebels recently opened a $34.8 million football complex and they will now play their home games in the new $1.8 billion Al-legiant stadium, home of the NFL Raiders. Those selling points weren't lost on the 2020 recruits as new head coach Marcus Arroyo (Oregon O.C. last 3 years) signed one of the best classes in UNLV history in February

Arroyo inherits a lot of experience and talent especially at the offensive skill positions. QB Kenyon Oblad (18-9 ratio) is back after taking over the starting Job mid-way through last year. He proved to be a much better passer than Ar-mani Rogers (2017-18 starter) who also returns. Keep an eye on TCU transfer QB Justin Rogers, a former 4-star recruit who could be eligible this season. The Rebels have one the nation's most underrated RB's in Charles Williams (1,257 rush yards and 11 TD's). Former USC WR Randal Grimes (7 TD's) also returns along with their other top 3 receivers. Also note 2018 leader Brandon Presley is back after missing last year. The defense, which was a constant area of concern under Sanchez loses most of their best players including CB Jericho Flowers (4 INT's, 2nd-team All-MWC). Keep an eye on TCU transfer Adam Plant at DE.

The schedule is another area of concern for the Rebels in 2020. While their home schedule is attractive to fans that includes visits from Pac-12 teams California and Arizona St, we currently project the Rebels to be underdogs in all 12 games in 2020. If Arroyo wins three games, he would have done a good job.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

At the end of September 2017, things were looking good for the New Mexico program. The Lobos were off-back-to-back bowl appearances and it looked like they were heading to another one. However, the roof caved in as they finished the Bob Davie era on a 5-26 SU/8-23 ATS run (were 19-12 SU the 31 games prior). Last year the program had to deal with Davie being hospitalized and also the tragic passing of DL Nahje Flowers.

That's the bad news. The good news is that we absolutely love their new head coaching hire. Danny Gonzales is an Albuquerque native that played and coached at New Mexico and did a fine job as the defensive coordinator at San Diego St and Arizona St in recent years. He also brings in former New Mexico/ San Diego St head coach Rocky Long (146-107 career record) as his D.C. The offense brings back a majority of their weapons including QB Tevaka Tuioti. They do have to replace leading rusher Ahmari Davis (5.9 ypc and 7 TD's). Keep an eye on WR Jordan Kress who averaged 18.9 yards per catch last sea-son and also incoming frosh RB Nathaniel Jones who is one of the highest-rated recruits in school history. The defense does lose a majority of their top players after allowing a conference-worst 37.2 ppg last year. However, that is the side of the ball that Gonzales/Long have cut their teeth. On special teams, All-MWC punter Tyson Dyer is back after averaging 46.1 yards per punt.

New Mexico does play 13 games this season. They should top last year's two wins, but if you're looking for more, we believe that is too tall of a task for Gonzales and Co. in Year one.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

One of the better stories in college football the last decade has been the job head coach Bill Clark has done here. After notching a 6-6 record in 2014 (their best in a decade), UAB controversially decided to shut down their football program. After much deserved outrage, the program was re-instated and Clark surprisingly stayed on even though the Blazers didn't field a team in 2015 and 2016. Since returning in 2017, UAB has shockingly notched three straight bowl appearances, two division championships and a CUSA championship.

This year's team could be Clark's best yet with 18 returning starters. QB Tyler This year's team could be Clark's best yet with 18 returning starters. QB Tyler Johnston is back after missing five games due to injury. He will have to be more consistent after throwing 15 interceptions last year. The Blazers top 3 rushers are all back led by Spencer Brown who has 3,122 career yards but was banged up last season. UAB has two legit deep threats at WR in Austin Watkins who averaged 19.2 yards per catch and Myron Mitchell who averaged 16.3. The Blazers return their top 5 tacklers led by LB's Kristopher Moll (104 tackles, 16 TFL's) and Jordan Smith (10 sacks, 7.5 more TFL's). Maybe the biggest question mark on the team is how they replace 3-year starting kicker Nick Vogel.

We have UAB's schedule power-rated as the weakest in the entire country UAB could be a favorite in as many as 11 games this season with the only ex-ception being the road game at Miami in Week 3. If UAB were to pull off that upset, we might be talking about a major bowl bid this year for the Blazers. At the very least, they are the favorites in CUSA West.

2020 Roster Tation Rank Both 2020 Offense/Defense Analysis Western Kentucky had two historically great seasons for their program in 2015 and 2016 winning 23 games and back-to-back CUSA Championships. Head coach Jeff Brohm went to Purdue and the program fell off a cliff under head coach Mike Sanford with back-to-back losing seasons. WKU brought back Ty-son Helton last year who was the O.C. here in 2014-15. After an upset loss to FCS Central Arkansas in the opener, Helton pulled off one of the better coaching jobs in the country getting WKU to 9 wins, despite the fact they were only fa-vored in four games during the regular season!

This year's team is experienced with 16 returning starters but there are a couple of major question marks. First, WKU loses both QB's Ty Storey and Steven Duncan (transfered in April) who combined for 3,357 passing yards. They also lose 1st-team All-CUSA WR Lucky Jackson who had 1,133 yards. WKU might rely more on the ground game with RB Gaej Walker (1,208 rushing yards) back along with four starters on the OL (114 career starts). With no spring practice, the QB spot looks like it will come down to Davis Shanley and Kevaris Thomas. On defense, WKU was stout last year ranking in the Top 25 in PPG and YPG allowed. This year's D could be even better with 9 returning starters led by 1st-team All-CUSA DE DeAngelo Malone who had 99 tackles and 21 total TFL's. Outside of a couple of tough non-conference road games against Indiana and Louisville, the schedule is manageable. Currently, we project WKU to be favored in eight games. In conference play they do have key games vs UAB and FAU

(last year's division champs) both on the road. 2020 Cohodulo with RD Droigetod Lines

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

In hindsight, Lane Kiffin was probably one of the best hires any Group of 5 program has made in the last decade. On the field, FAU won a couple of CUSA championships including last year in dominant fashion over UAB. Off the field, his hire raised out-of-state applications to FAU nearly 40 percent! Now with Kiffer off the Ole Mise FAU was another his generate his mise in Willy Target fin off to Ole Miss, FAU made another big splash hire brining in Willie Taggart While Taggart's tenure at Florida St was a colossal failure, it is hard to ignore the success he had at WKU and USF prior. Taggart has a ton of Florida connections as does new DC Jim Leavitt who was also a USF head coach. However, we expect this year's FAU team to take a step back like most 1st-year head we expect this year's FAU team to take a step back like most lst-year head coaches this season. It starts with the lack of experience as FAU returns only 9 starters. Six are back on offense led by QB Chris Robison who threw for 3,701 yards with a 28-to-6 TD-to-INT ratio. Leading rusher Macolm Davidson (7.0 ypcl) also returns but FAU loses their top 3 receivers including TE Harrison Bryant who won the Mackey Award as the nation's top TE (also drafted in 4th round). The offensive line loses a pair of All-CUSA performers. The defense also loses its top three tacklers including a pair of All-CUSA LB's in Rashad Smith and Akileis Leroy (currently suspended) who combined for 210 tackles, 27 TEU's They also lose CB Meiko Dotson who led the nation with 9 INT's 27 TFL's. They also lose CB Meiko Dotson who led the nation with 9 INT's. The schedule isn't overly difficult as outside of the opener vs Minnesota, no game is un-winnable. We currently project FAU to be clear favorites in eight games with three more around pick-em. Even with the downgraded power rat-

ing, FAU is still a CUSA contender. 2020 Cehadula with DD Draiaetad Linae

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Marshall has been very consistent under head coach Doc Holliday winning at least eight games in six of the last seven seasons. Prior to last year's bowl loss to UCF, the Herd were also a perfect 6-0 in bowl games under Holliday whe enters his 11th season here. With that being said, Marshall's 17-9 straight up record the last two seasons has felt a little underwhelming especially when you consider Marshall is just 9-17 ATS in those two years.

This year's team should be just as good as recent editions. Nine starters are back on offense led by QB Isaiah Green who had an up and down 2019 season with only a 15-to-11 TD-to-INT ratio. He will be surrounded by plenty of weapons as 1st-team All-CUSA RB Brenden Knox returns after rushing for 1,387 yards and 11 TD's last season. Marshall also returns three of their top four receivers led by big play threat Willie Johnson who averaged 26.8 yards per catch. Three starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also back on the offensive line led by quark of the starters are also top four receivers led by big play threat Wille Johnson who averaged 26.8 yards per catch. Three starters are also back on the offensive line led by guard Cain Madden. The defense is much less experienced this season with only four returning starters. Still, 1st-team All-CUSA LB Tavante Beckett returns after leading the team with 121 tackles and 7 TFL's. DE Darius Hodge also returns after leading the Herd with 7 sacks. Marshall does lose 1st-team CUSA kicker Justin Rohrwasser who was drafted by New England.

The schedule is manageable as currently there is no game where we project the Herd to be more than a TD underdog. This should be another bowl season for Holliday and company. Whether it becomes more than that, depends on QB Green's level of improvement or lack thereof.

Southern Miss is one of the most consistent Group of 5 programs in the entire country. Outside of nightmare 2012-14 stretch, the Golden Eagles have had 23 winning seasons since 1994 (18 straight prior to 2012, and 5 straight since 2014). This stretch of being consistently above average has continued under head coach Jay Hopson with four straight winning seasons. However, there has been a sense that they've fallen a little short of expectation under him (see ATS stat box below). That includes losing the last three games of 2019.

This year's team welcomes back 14 starters including QB Jack Abraham who threw for 3,496 yards and completed 68% of his passes. The problem is he also threw 15 interceptions and will need to be more consistent. Leading rusher Kevin Perkins is back after splitting carries with the departed De'Michael Harris. Ist-team All-CUSA WR Quez Watkins departs after notching 1,178 receiving yards (18.4 ypc and a 6th round draft pick). The cupboard isn't bare as Tim Jones (902 yards) returns along with the speedy Jaylon Adams who excels in the return game. Southern Miss does bring back four starters on the offensive line. The defense returns four of their top five tacklers led by Rover Ky'el Hemby (93 tackles). Also keep an eye on DE Jacques Turner who had 13 TFL's.

Outside of a road trip to Auburn, there isn't a single game on the schedule that isn't winnable. Currently, we have Southern Miss favored in eight games. The Golden Eagles do need to do a better job of taking care of business under Hopson as they've lost eight games outright laying 5.5 points or more. Finally, the COVID-19 shutdown could impact them as they have two new coordinators.

Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz is doing a great job in Ruston. The Bull-dogs have six straight winning seasons and are the only program in the country to have six straight bowl wins. Last year's team won 10 games for the first time ever at the FBS level. It could have been more if not for a late season 2-game suspension for QB J'Mar Smith in which the Bulldogs lost both games he missed. pension for QB J'Mar Smith in which the Bulldogs lost both games he missed. With that being said, it looks like Louisiana Tech will take a step back in 2020. With COVID-19 shutting down spring practice, this certainly isn't the season to have one of the least experienced teams (only 8 returning starters) and also break in two new coordinators. QB Smith departs (2,977 yards, 18-5 ratio) and it looks like Aaron Allen will get the first crack at replacing him. Allen was okay in the two games he started last season (57%, 3-1 ratio). The good news is that leading rusher Justin Henderson (1,062 yards) returns along with three of their top four receivers led by big-play threat Griffin Hebert (17.9 yards per catch and 6 TD's). The defense was hit hard with only two returning starters. They lose a pair of 4th-round NFL draft picks in CB Amik Robertson and S L'Jarius Sneed who combined for 8 interceptions. Keep an eye on DE Milton Williams who led the team with 5.5 sacks last season.

The schedule isn't overly difficult. Outside of a road trip to Baylor, no game is In eschedule isn't overly difficult. Outside of a road trip to Baylor, no game is unwinnable for them. Currently, we project the Bulldogs to be favored in seven games this season, but there are many games on the schedule that we project to be decided by less than a TD. This looks like another bowl season, but we don't think they come near last year's 10-win total.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Charlotte has only been playing football since 2013 but is located in a nice recruiting hot-bed. Last year the 49ers got to their first bowl game in school history under first-year head coach Will Healy (only 35 years old and a rising star in the industry). The future looks bright for both Healy and the 49ers as he just signed their best recruiting class in school history.

The offense returns seven starters including QB Chris Reynolds who threw for 2,564 yards and 22 TD's while also adding 791 rushing yards and six more TD's. The 49ers will have to replace leading rusher Benny LeMay who ran for 1,082 yards last year. They do bring in Northern Illinois transfer RB Tre Harbison who had back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons to fill the gap. The 49ers will also have to replace LT Cameron Clark who was a 4th-round draft pick. Keep an eye on incoming OT recruit Ty'kieast Crawford who is the first 4-star recruit in school history. Also WR Victor Tucker who led the team 909 receiving yards (17.5 ypc) and seven TD's was a standout on film. The defense loses DE Alex Highsmith (14 sacks and 7.5 more TFL's) who was selected in the 3rd round of the NFL Draft. The 49ers also lose their top 2 tacklers but return DE Tyriq Harris and S Ben DeLuca who both dealt with injuries last season. Keep an eye out on DE Markees Watts who had 9.5 sacks last year.

The schedule isn't overwhelming but Charlotte might be favored in only five games this year and two of those (Georgia St and FIU) might be in the very short favorite role. Keep in mind, the 49ers only been favored in five games total in the last two seasons, yet managed 12 wins. 0000 0 . . . . .

Middle Tennessee has been a model of consistency for a Group of 5 program. Head coach Rick Stockstill enters his 15th season in Murfreesboro with an overall record of 91-86 including 68-41 in conference play. However, last season son the Blue Raiders had to replace their all-time leading passer in school his-tory (Rick's son Brent Stockstill), they played a tough non-conference schedule and suffered their first losing season since 2011.

Asher O'Hara won the QB job in fall camp and went on to have a successful season throwing for 2,616 yards and 20 TD's. O'Hara was only the second QB in school history (Dwight Dasher in 2009) to top 1,000 rushing yards. The Blue Raiders need to find a RB though to take some pressure off of O'Hara. Keep an eye on West Virginia transfer Martell Pettaway. Three of MT's top four receiveers return and the offensive line could be a strength thanks to the return of four starters. On defense, Middle Tennessee ranked last in CUSA in total defense ond they only robust four four starters that a context four four four starters and the offensive line could be a strength thanks to the return of four starters. Avg Sacks and they only return four starters this season. Safety Reed Blankenship is one of their better players. Last year he notched 58 tackles and two interceptions despite missing the last five games due to injury. Also keep an eye on LB DQ Thomas who is the leading returning tackler (74) and also notched 12 TFL's. 4th Down Off Att P/Gm 1.4

The schedule is not as tough as last season. Middle Tennessee has one of the bigger home games in school history when they host Virginia Tech on September 19th. Currently, we project MT to be clear favorites in two games, clear underdogs in three and it will come down to those remaining seven games on whether they can get back to a bowl game.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

FIU started playing football in 2002 and current head coach Butch Davis inher-ited a program that was just 17-43 SU in the five seasons prior to his arrival. Davis, who previously coached at Miami knew the area well and now has led FIU to three straight bowl games. Last year FIU notched their biggest win in school history with a 30-24 upset of Miami as 3-TD underdogs.

This season, Davis might have to pull off his best coaching yet as the Panthers This season, Davis might have to pull off his best coaching yet as the Panthers are one of the least experienced teams in the country with only 10 starters re-turning. On offense, QB James Morgan departs after getting drafted in the 4th round by the N.Y. Jets. Also gone are the Panthers top two rushers Anthony Jones and Napoleon Maxwell who combined for 1,572 rush yards and 18 TD's. QB Kaylan Wiggins and Arkansas transfer RB Maleek Williams are the likely replacements. Wide receiver could be a position of strength as the Panthers return their leading receiver Shemar Thornton and bring in Georgia transfer J.J. Hollomon. The defense is in better shape thanks to the return of twin brothers Rishard and Richard Dames in the secondary as they combined for 115 tackles, 10 TFL's and four INT's. Also keep an eye out on Boise St transfer LB Tyson Maeya who recorded 166 tackles, 12 TFL's and five sacks in 33 career games. The special teams lost kicker Jose Borregales to transfer.

Despite the inexperience, the schedule isn't overly difficult. Our current projections have the Panthers clear favorites in four games, clear underdogs in four games and it will depend on those four toss-up games on whether or not Davis can make it four straight bowl appearances. . . . #### 2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Even though the Owls are just 5-20 under head coach Mike Bloon enter the 2020 season with some optimism. They won their final thre 2019 and from what we can see, Bloomgren is building this progra way. They've been remarkably consistent (see ATS stat below). Al-Owls were No. 2 in the country in fewest penalties per game last ye another data point that shows this is a well-coached team.

The offense does have some question marks in 2020. Wiley Green starts a year ago at QB, but Tom Stewart was more productive and along with leading rusher Aston Walter (771 yards and 8 TD's). QB along with leading rusher Aston waiter (7/1 yards and 8 ID s). QB lins is a TCU transfer and is the favorite to start. The Owls do have a option at WR in the 6-foot-5 Brad Rozner who averaged 14.0 yards and was 2nd-team All-CUSA. Austin Trammell also caught 60 passe and he returns. The defense has a ton of experience coming back i cluding 10 starters. The Owls actually rank No. 1 in Bill Connelly's production on defense (96%!). Keep an eye on LB Blaze Alldredge 1st-team All-CUSA with 102 tackles and 21.5 total TFL's.

The schedule is manageable for the Owls as they will be favored in t and they have a couple other games that are near toss-ups (hom and Middle Tennessee). However, the Owls will need to have a QE emerge if they want to get to bowl eligibility for the first time since 2 ly note that Rice got in nine spring practices before the COVID-19 more than anyone in CUSA.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

North Texas has a lot of things going for it as far as a program. They have an enrollment of nearly 40,000 and are located in the suburbs of the Dallas-Forth Worth metroplex in a football-crazed state. Fifth-year head coach Seth Littrell has done a nice job here getting the Mean Green to three bowl games. However, after back-to-back 9-win seasons, the roof kind of caved in on them last season as they fell to 4-8. Statistically speaking they were closer to being an average team, but were just 1-4 in games decided by a TD or less. Litrell does bring in five new coaches this season including DC Clint Bowen.

There's some optimism heading into 2020. Littrell signed one of the best class es in North Texas history and will take over the play-calling. The major ques-tion will come at the QB position as the Mean Green have to replace their all-time leading passer in Mason Fine who threw for 12,505 career yards and 93 TD's. Austin Aune and Jason Bean are the likely replacements. Whoever starts at QB will have plenty of weapons around them including RB's Tre Siggers and DeAndre Torrey (combined 1,233 rush yards in 2019). WR's Jaelon Darden and Jyaire Shorter (combined 21 receiving TD's in 2019) also return. The defense has some more room for improvement, but the Mean Green do bring back their top two tacklers and DL Dion Novil who had 13 total TFL's a year ago. The schedule will see North Texas most likely start the season at 1-3 and then it will depend on how they do in close games. Despite losing one of their best players in school history in QB Fine and having an overhauled coaching staff, we think North Texas could top last year's 4-win total.

Offense/Defense Analysis

UTSA fired Frank Wilson last December after back-to-back losing seasons. The Roadrunners were a respectable 12-12 in 2016-17 and started the 2018 seasor 3-3 before collapsing to just 4-14 in their last 18 games. New head coach Jeff Traylor has ties to the state of Texas having been a high school head coach at Gilmer for 15 years (3 state championships). Traylor has also been known as a good recruiter at Texas, SMU and Arkansas the last 5 years. We like his coordi nator hires in O.C. Barry Lunney and long-time D.C. Tyrone Nix.

Traylor and company inherit an experienced and talented roster thanks to three straight Top 100 recruiting classes from 2017-2019. That's a big reason why UTSA is No. 85 in our roster talent rankings. QB's Lowell Narcisse and Frank Harris (both left-handed) return and they added in New Mexico St transfer Josh Adkins (22 starts last 2 years) recently. Leading rusher Sincere McCormick (983 yards and 8 TD's) is back as well as three of their top four receivers.

The defense has to replace their top two tacklers from last year. However, keep an eye on DT Jaylon Haynes who had two sacks and 10.5 TFL's a year ago They also bring in Oklahoma St transfer JayVeon Cardwell at CB.

All new head coaches and staff will be challenged more than normal this year UTSA is no different as they failed to get in any spring practices before the COVID-19 cancellations. However, the schedule does feature four or five winnable games and we think the Roadrunners will match last year's win total.

Just four years ago, Old Dominion won 10 games and a bowl game. However, they haven't had a winning season since and the Monarchs come into the 2020 season losers of 11 straight. Head coach Bobby Wilder resigned after 11 years on the job (77-56 career record) and ODU brings in former Penn St O.C. Ricky Rahne, Rahne doesn't have any prior head coaching experience but passed his first test on the job by signing one of ODU's best recruiting classes.

Rahne also inherits one of the more experienced teams in the country (No. 7 in Bill Connelly's returning production). Eight starters are back on offense but note ODU had one of the worst offenses in the country in 2019. The Monarchs were No. 129 in yards per play and also managed to throw only 5 TD passes all season! All four QB's return and all four have playing experience the last couple of years. We do like their receiving corps including Aaron Moore, Nigel Fitzgerald and Virginia Tech transfer Eric Kumah. The offensive line is led by 3-year starter Isaac Weaver at center. The defense was easily the better of the two units last year (ranked No. 46 in ypg, No. 66 in ypp and No. 79 in scoring). Nine starters are back led by MLB Lawrence Garner (111 tacklses). However, DE Keion White might be the best player on the team (15.5 TFL's and 3.5 sacks). He really flashed on tape vs Virginia.

The schedule sets up nicely as there are four or five winnable games in the first half of the season after the opener vs Wake Forest. However, ODU closes the season facing 6 teams that all made a bowl in 2019. This looks like a 3 or 4-win campaign which is a step in the right direction.

Offense/Defense Analysis

No program has had a worse 3-year run than the Miners who are just 2-34 SU since 2017. Head coach Dana Dimel has managed just one win over an FBS opponent the last two years and UTEP enters 2020 losers of 11 straight games.

It doesn't look like it will get any better in 2020 as UTEP is one of the least experienced teams in the country ranking No. 129 in Bill Connelly's returning production as they return just nine starters. It's not like the replacements are talented as we rank UTEP dead last in overall roster talent. The Miners lose their ented as we rank UTEP dead last in overall roster talent. The Miners lose their top two QB's including dual threat talent Kai Locksley (535 rushing yards). UTEP did get in six spring practices before the COVID-19 shutdown. Gavin Hardison and TJ Goodwin look like the top two candidates at QB. Their leading rusher Treyvon Hughes (682 yards and 12 TD's) also departs. UTEP does have a couple big play guys coming back. First, RB Quardraiz Wadley is back after missing last season (627 yards and 8 TD's in 2018). WR Jacob Cowing also returns after averaging 17.7 yards per catch last season. On defense, UTEP's best pass rusher Praise Amaewhule is back and UTEP is excited about the depth of their DL with a bunch of JUCO transfers. On special teams, kicker Gavin Baechle returns after impressing us on film. Returner Duron Lowe is also back as he had a 100-yard kick return TD vs North Texas.

The schedule will not be forgiving though as we project UTEP to be an underdog in all 12 games including 11 by double-digits. If Dimel somehow manages two wins this season, we would say they are taking a step in the right direction

Head coach Billy Napier is one of the best young coaches in CFB and when you consider he was an assistant under both Nick Saban and Dabo Swinney, we're not sure he will be in Lafayette long. Last year, the Ragin' Cajuns under Napier set several school records including most wins (11), scoring offense (37.9), total offense (494.1) and yards per play (7.0). We've never had ULL power-rated higher and the only negative was a pair of losses to an historically great (by Sun Belt standards) Appalachian St team.

This year's team should also contend for the Sun Belt championship thanks to the return of 14 starters. QB Levi Lewis (26-to-4 TD-to-INT ratio) returns along with senior RB's Elijah Mitchell and Trey Ragas. They have a combined 5,195 career rushing yards and 61 rushing TD's, which is more than any duo in the country entering 2020. The Cajuns do lose their top receiver in Ja'Marcus Bradley (10 TD's). Also noteworthy is an offensive line that loses a pair of NFL draft picks in OG's Robert Hunt (2nd round) and Kevin Dotson (4th round) Last year's defense was one of the most improved units in the country as they only allowed 19.7 ppg, a far cry from the 34.2 ppg they allowed in 2018. Seven starters return led by LB Joe Dillon who had eight sacks last season and DT Zi'Yon Hill. They do lose D.C. Ron Roberts to Baylor.

The schedule is not overly difficult as we currently project the Cajuns to be favored in 10 games in 2020 and all 10 of those are by a TD or more. Whether they can make a run at the Group of 5 major bowl bid will likely come down to a road trip to Appalachian St which has beat Louisiana eight straight times.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

After a disastrous 2017 season where Georgia Southern lost a school-record 10 games, the Eagles have gotten back to its option roots on offense and have had back-to-back successful seasons under head coach Chad Lunsford. Despite going from 10-3 in 2018 to 7-6 last season, there wasn't much of a drop-off in Georgia Southern's power rating. Why? Well, Georgia Southern went from +22 in 2018 to 7:6 last season and the transford from 3-0 in games decided by in TO's in 2018 to "just" +8 last year and went from 3-0 in games decided by 7 points or less to 3-3.

This year's team should be just as good as the past couple of years thanks to several returning key players. QB Shai Werts returns for his 4th-year as the starting QB. Werts has an incredible 19-to-1 TD-to-INT ratio the last two years and has 2,363 career rushing yards and 23 TD's. Georgia Southern also returns their top two RB's in J.D. King and Wesley Kennedy who combined to run for 1,628 yards and 19 TD's last season. While the defense only returns six starters, the Eagles return their top four tacklers. The LB position is certainly a strength as Reynard Ellis, Rashad Byrd and Randy Wade all return after combining for 235 tackles and 31.5 total TFL's last season. That includes CB Kindle Vil-Starters in a secondary that struggled last season. That includes CB Kindle Vil-dor who was a 5th-round draft pick. On special teams, the Eagles also lose kicker Tyler Bass who was a 6th-round draft pick.

The schedule features three tough road games at Boise St, UL-Lafayette and Ole Miss but we currently project the Eagles to be favored in seven games and we expect them to be playing in their 3rd straight bowl games under Lunsford.

2020 Offeense/Defense Analys Head coach Chip Lindsey had some big shoes to fill last seaso program under former head coach Neal Brown that went 31-8 three seasons with wins over LSU and Nebraska. Lindsey did no test as Troy slipped to 5-7 last season and suffered three outrigh The season also ended with a pair of houvart losses to the Sup Po (Appalachian St and UL-Lafayette).

This year's team welcomes back many of their top performers replace QB Kaleb Barker who threw for 3,628 yards (led Su replace QB Kaleb Barker who threw for 3,628 yards (led Sur school-record 30 TD's a year ago. Last year's backup QB Gunnat had 22 attempts and keep an eye on incoming JUCO Parker McN news is that leading rusher DK Billingsley (901 yards and 10 TD' so does 2018 leading rusher BJ Smith (1,186 yards) who missec season due to injury. Troy's top four receivers who combined fo and 19 TD's are all back as well. The defense took a major step ba but this year they return their top six tacklers from last season let All-SBC LB Carlton Martial who notched 126 tackles, 18.5 tot three interceptions last season. NT Will Choloh is also back (7.5 after earning 1st-team All-SBC honors.

Good news for Troy is that they play one of the easiest schedules i They get a couple of "lay-ups" to start the season. Road trips to Georgia Southern, Tennessee and Appalachian St late in the seas momentum but we think Troy should clinch bowl eligibility prior

zuzu Ottense/Detense Analysis

Arkansas St has become one of the more consistent Group of 5 programs in the country. The Red Wolves now have nine consecutive winning seasons. Arkansas St is 3-10 straight up at home in those nine seasons and have a 56-15 SU and 45-24-2 ATS (65%) record in Sun Belt play. Last year they had to deal with off-field distractions for head coach Blake Anderson (his wife passed away), and on the field, they suffered a season-ending injury to their starting QB Logan Bonner. Still, the Red Wolves managed eight wins.

This year's team welcomes back 14 starters. The QB position is in great hands whether it's Bonner or Layne Hatcher behind center as the two combined to whether it's Bonner or Layne Hatcher behind center as the two combined to throw for 3,998 yards and 37 TD's last season. They will have a lot of produc-tion to replace at WR as Omar Bayless (1,653 yards and 17 TD's) and Kirk Merritt (806 yards and 12 TD's) depart. The Red Wolves, hopefully will find more balance offensively in 2020 as they were No. 10 in passing ypg, but only No. 112 in rushing ypg. They return their top two rushers and all five starters on the offensive line. The defense does lose their top four tacklers from last season. Ist-team All-SBC DE William Bradley-King who notched 8.5 sacks and 13.5 TFL's last year transfered to Baylor in April.

The schedule features a pair of tough non-conference road games vs Memphis and Michigan. In Sun Belt play, Arkansas St figures to be large underdogs at Appalachian St and at UL-Lafayette, but could be favored in the other six. This looks like another bowl season for the Red Wolves.

Coastal Carolina has only been playing football since 2003 and was a success-ful FCS program prior to making the jump to the FBS in 2017. The Chanticleers were 51-15 straight up their last 5 years in the FCS, but have had 3 straight losing seasons at this level. They have been close each of the last two years in reaching bowl eligibility, but have come up one game short each time.

Techning bow englowing, but have come up one game short each time. Technically, Jamey Chadwell enters his 2nd year here as head coach, but he was also the interim in 2017. This year's team looks like their best yet at the FBS level with 14 returning starters. Both QB's return in Fred Payton and Bryce Carpenter who combined for 2,348 passing yards, a 64% completion rate and a 20-9 TD-to-INT ratio. Keep an eye out on RB CJ Marable, who should be among the best in the Sun Belt after rushing for 1,085 yards and 11 TD's while also catching 38 passes. He will be running behind an offensive line that brings back four starters. Overall, the Chanticleers are No. 5 in the country in Bill Connelly's returning production on offense On defense Constal has to in Bill Connelly's returning production on offense. On defense, Coastal has to improve their pass defense as they allowed a nation-worst 69.8% completion percentage in 2019. The good news is they have one of the better pass rushers in the Sun Belt in DE Tarron Jackson who had 10 sacks a year ago. They also return their leading tackler Teddy Gallagher.

There's one likely win and four likely losses on the schedule. It will come down to how Coastal performs in close games as they are just 6-10 in games decided by 7 points or less at the FBS level. Please note that Coastal Carolina did get in all 15 of their spring practices prior to the COVID-19 shutdown.

2020 Offeense/Defense Analysis For a program that just started playing football in 2010, Georgia St has a lot going for it. They play in a major city (Atlanta) that is located in a recruiting hot-bed. The Panthers also play in a new renovated stadium (formerly Turner Field, home of the Atlanta Braves) and have managed to go to 3 bowl games elevely. Let user they were never to have their best to go to a bowl games already. Last year, they were on pace to have their best team ever as they pulled a major upset over Tennessee in the opener and were 6-2. However, an injury to QB Dan Ellington (tore his ACL vs ULM but played next 4 games) severely limited their offense as they averaged just 20.5 ppg and 167 rush ypg in their final 4 games after averaging 36 ppg and 275 rush ypg in their first 9.

This year the Panthers must replace Ellington (3,115 total yards) and leading rusher Tra Bennett (1,453 yards and 12 TD's). They do return their top three receivers led by Cornelius McCoy (70 catches) as well as four starters on the offensive line. QB Cornelious Brown and Vanderbilt transfer Jamil Muhammad will battle at QB. The defense was the issue for most of last season as the Pan-thers were bottom 10 nationally in yards per play, yards per game and points per game allowed. The good news is the defense returns 8 starters including leading tackler Trajan Stephens-McQueen (110 tackles).

The schedule will see the Georgia St favored in maybe 4 games this seasor with the opener vs Murray St being the only game where the Panthers are a big favorite. Ultimately, if Georgia St gets to bowl eligibility for the 4th time in 6 years, it will depend on six toss-up games. However, until the Panthers find a QB, we think five wins is more likely than six.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Despite it's location, ULM is one of the tougher jobs in CFB as the Warhawks have only made one bowl game since joining the FBS in 1994. Matt Viator has done a solid job here getting ULM to bowl eligibility in 2018 and last year we thought ULM was underrated. The Warhawks had a couple of misleading losses (see right) while they also missed two extra-points that cost them games vs Florida State and UL-Lafayette.

vs Florida State and UL-Latayette. Viator will have his work cut out for him in 2020 as QB Caleb Evans departs as the No. 2 all-time leading passer in ULM history with 9,513 yards and 58 TD passes while also adding 2,168 career rush yards and 36 more TD's. No matter who starts at QB, they will have a couple of nice weapons in 2nd-team All-SBC RB Josh Johnson (1,298 rush yards) who was the first 1,000-yard rusher here since 2009. Also keep an eye on 1st-Team All-SBC TE Josh Pederson (NFL head coach Doug Pederson's son) who really flashed on tape. The offensive line does return only one starter and the War Hawks will see Viator take over the play-calling duties. The defense has been the issue for ULM the last couple of seasons and last year was no different as ULM was No. 123 in yards per play, No. 128 in yards per game and No. 127 in scoring allowed Eight starters return No. 128 in yards per game and No. 127 in scoring allowed. Eight starters return and keep an eye out on 1st-team All-SBC CB Corey Straughter who returns after notching five interceptions a year ago.

Just four years ago, South Alabama beat both Mississippi St and San Diego St in the same season en route to their 2nd bowl game in three years. However, inconsistency plagued former head coach Joey Jones in his last couple of sea-sons and it's been a tough go for Steve Campbell in his first couple of years here managing just a 5-19 record. However, last year's team started to make some strides and the Jags managed a big upset win over Arkansas St in the regular season finale as 10.5-point underdogs.

There's a strong nucleus coming back especially on offense. It starts with QB Desmond Trotter who took over the last four games of the season and was much more effective that Cephus Johnson (151.8 vs 100.1 QB rating). The Jags do lose a 1,000-yard rusher in Tra Minter but WR's Kawaan Baker and Jalen Tolbert combined to average 17.7 yards per catch and 9 TD's. The offensive line does bring back four starters. The defense brings back five of their top six tacklers including LB Nick Mobley (91 tackles) but loses some of their big-gest play-makers including DE's Jeffrey Whatley and Rocel McWilliams who combined for 9 sacks and 13.5 more TFL's. They also lose CB Travis Reed (3 INT's) who was a stand-out on tape. Keep an eye on LB Riley Cole (9 TFL's).

The schedule might see South Alabama favored in only two games this season but there are three or four more winnable games on the schedule and this is Campbell's best team yet. Getting to four wins would be progress in our opinion. Note that South Alabama is also moving into a brand new on-campus 25 000 extended at 272 millions. 25,000 seat stadium price tagged at $73 million!

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

You would think a Texas school with an enrollment of 38,644 (Top 50 nation-ally regardless of division) that is less than an hour away from both Austin and San Antonio wouldn't have a problem getting enough talent to field a competi-tive football program. However, that hasn't been the case for Texas St who has really struggled at the FBS level. The Bobcats are just 13-47 SU the last 5 years and have been atrocious on the road (see ATS stat box below). However, they did show some signs of life in year one under head coach Jake Spavital.

Spavital will take over the play-calling in 2020. A majority of their offense returns including QB Tyler Vitt who will battle Memphis transfer Brady Me-Bride who went to high school in Texas. No matter who starts, the Bobcats have to improve upon their 17-to-20 TD-to-INT ratio from last season. The Bobcats bring back a pair of talented WR's in Javen Banks and Trevis Graham who combined for eight TD's while averaging 15 yards per catch. Keep an eye on UCO transfer Parce Sturges of PB who started this area of a first part of the started the JUCO transfer Broc Sturges at RB who started his career at Arizona St. The bad news is that Texas St loses a majority of their production on defense including the school's all-time leading tackler in Bryan London (459 career tackles). London also holds the Sun Belt conference career record for tackles. The Bobcats also lose multiple-year starters in Frankie Griffin (258 career tackles) and Niko-las Daniels (254 career tackles). That's 971 career tackles lost!

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

After a slow start head coach Lance Leipold has this Buffalo program in great shape. Leipold was just 10-23 SU in his first 33 games here as the Bulls were out-scored by an average of 5.8 ppg. In his last 30 games, Buffalo is now on a 21-9 SU run out-scoring their opponents by 9.5 ppg. Last year, the Bulls closed the season strong winning six of their last seven games all by 19 points or more with a huge blown lead at Kent St being the only setback. The Bulls dominated the line of scrimmage out-rushing foes by an average of 251-94 each game and while they sacked opposing QB's 43 times, they only gave up 8 sacks.

This year's team could be just as good thanks to the return of 15 starters. Most of the skill position players are back including QB's Kyle Vantrease and Matt Myers who need to improve in the pass game. Arguably Buffalo has the most underrated backfield in all of CFB in Jaret Patterson and Kevin Marks who return after combining for 2,834 rushing yards and 27 TD's last year. The Bulls also return their top three receivers led by Antonio Nunn. The defense returns seven starters led by DE's Taylor Riggins and Malcolm Koonce who combined for 17.5 sacks. Three other All-MAC players return as the Bulls have the best DL in the MAC. Buffalo needs to get better on special teams after ranking No. 130 in net punting.

The schedule does feature a pair of tough games at Kansas St and Ohio St in non-conference action but every other game is winnable. The MAC regular sea-son title will likely come down to how Buffalo does in their final three games At minimum, this should be another bowl season for Leipold and company.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Ohio is one of the more consistent Group of 5 programs in the country. The Bobcats haven't had a losing season since 2008. With 113 wins at Ohio, head coach Frank Solich is the MAC's winningest football coach in history. Yet, the Bobcats remarkably haven't won a MAC title since 1968. Last year, expectations were high coming into the season but the Bobcats suffered four upset losses and had to win their last three games to finish above .500.

This year's team could be better at almost every position except one...quar-terback. Gone is 3-year starting QB Nathan Rourke who in his career threw for 7,457 yards, 60 TD's and added 2,634 rushing yards and 49 rushing TD's for 7,457 yards, 60 1D's and added 2,634 rushing yards and 49 rushing 1D's (school records for total yards and total TD's). His brother Kurtis Rourke is the likely heir apparent. Kurtis is two inches taller than his older brother and has a stronger arm. He will be surrounded by an experienced group of skill position players as RB's O'Shaan Allison and De'Montre Tuggle return after combining for 1,513 rush yards and 17 TD's last year. The Bobcats also return their top three receivers as Isiah Cox and Shane Hooks both flashed big play potential as the combined to average 18.1 yards per catch. The defense losse leading tackler Javon Hagan but returns almost everyone else. The special teams unit does have to replace both their kicker and punter. Penalties

The schedule is one of the easiest in the country and there is not one game on the schedule that we would deem "unwinnable". However, there are six games where we currently project the line to be less than a TD. If Ohio finds a QB, this could finall

After six straight seasons of winning at least six games from 2012-2017, Cen-tral Michigan had their worst season in school history at 1-11 in 2018. They brought in former Colorado St and Florida head coach Jim McElwain and it immediately paid off. The Chippewas were one of the most improved teams in the country winning eight games and earning a MAC West championship. This year's team could be just as good thanks to the return of 14 starters. How-ever, there is a major question mark at QB. Quinten Dormady departs after throwing for 2,312 yards (64.9%). Also David Moore tested positive for a banned substance in the middle of last season and his appeal was denied in Month 1971 banned substance in the middle of last season and his appeal was denied in March. He will miss the first five games of this season. Next in line might be Daniel Richardson or Cincinnati transfer John Keller. The Chips do lose RB Jonathan Ward who ran for 1,108 yards (6.1 ypc) and 15 TD's but return another 1,000-yard rusher in Kobe Lewis (1,074 yards, 5.9 ypc and 12 TD's). Central also brings back their top four receivers who combined for 2,848 receiving yards and 18 TD's last season. They are arguably the MAC's best receiving corps. The defense which was second in the MAC last season returns 8 starters led by 1st-team All-MAC LB Troy Brown who had 16.5 TFL's last season.

The schedule outside of a pair of games vs Nebraska and Northwestern is very manageable. We currently project CMU to be favored in nine games although eight are by a TD or less. Provided they survive the first five games without QB Moore, this looks like another bowl season. Note CMU did get in 10 spring practices (more than any other MAC team).

Western Michigan had nowhere to go but down when head coach Tim Lester took over in 2017. The Broncos were coming off arguably their best season in school history as they went 13-1 and appeared in the Cotton Bowl. WMU has been consistent under Lester reaching bowl eligibility each year but have come up short ATS wise (see stat below). Last year's team had a chance to win the MAC West title but lost outright as 10-point favorites in the wind and rain at Northern Illinois and then lost the bowl game on the final play.

This year's team has a lot of question marks. First, they lose QB Jon Wassink This year's team has a lot of question marks. First, they lose QB Jon Wassink who threw for 3,097 yards and was a multiple-year starter. Kaleb Eleby, who redshirted last season, is the likely replacement. Eleby played in 2018 when Wassink was injured and performed admirably (1,092 yards, 62,6% and a 4-3 ratio). However, the Broncos also lose 1st-team All-MAC RB LeVante Bellamy who ran for 1,472 yards and 23 TD's. The Broncos do bring back leading receiver Skyy Moore (802 yards) and also D'Wayne Eskridge (20.4 ypc in 2018) who missed most of last season due to injury. WMU returns four starters on one of the MAC's best offensive lines. The defense returns six starters led by 1st-team All-MAC LB Treshaun Heyward who lad 6.5 sacks and 15 TFL's. The schedule isn't overly difficult. The Broncos will be clear favorites in four games, clear underdogs in two, which leaves six toss-ups. Whether or not they contend for a division championship will depend on how the QB/RB positions turn out. At the very least, this looks like another bowl eligibility-type season. 2020 Schedule with RP Projected Lines Ball St has suffered through six straight losing seasons and four of them hav come under head coach Mike Neu. Last year the Cardinals had their best tear since 2013. Statistically speaking, they should have been a winning team a they outscored (+3.4 ppg) and outgained (+38.3 ypg) their opponents on th season. However, Ball St lost three straight games in November by a combine total of eight points. Change one big play in any one of those games and hea coach Neu's seat is a little less warm heading into 2020.

Speaking of 2020, there is a lot of optimism surrounding this year's team. Speaking of 2020, there is a lot of optimism surrounding this year's team. starts with the return of QB Drew Plitt who had by far his best season last yea including a 24-to-7 TD-to-INT ratio. The Cardinals also return leading rush Caleb Huntley who ran for 1,275 yards and 12 TD's. Ball St returns three of their top four receivers led by Justin Hall (684 yards and 6 TD's). The offensiv line brings back three starters. On defense, Ball St loses leading tackler Jaco White who was a 1st-team All-MAC selection. However, there's plenty of ta ent returning at each level led by their LB corps featuring Jaylin Thomas (9 tackles) and Christian Albright (10.5 TFL's). The CB duo of Antonio Phillip and Amechi Uzodima combuned for nine intercentions last season and Amechi Uzodima combined for nine interceptions last season.

We project Ball St to be a clear favorite in four games and a clear underdo in three games. Whether or not, they get to bowl eligibility will come dow to how they fare in those five close games. If you believe in "regression to th mean", Ball St should be in store for a more fortunate season as they are ju 5-11 SU in one possession games under Neu the last four years.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis Head coach Chuck Martin inherited an 0-12 Miami team back in 2014 but has quietly built this program the right way. The RedHawks are on a 23-8 SU run in the MAC, the best in the conference since 2016. Last year, Miami found a way to win the MAC championship despite being out-scored by four ppg and out-gained by nearly 73 ypg on the season. One of the main reasons was the ability to win close games. Martin, after starting 5-19 SU in one possession games has led the RedHawks to seven straight wins.

This year's team could be even better thanks to the return of 17 starters. Brett Gabbert was the first true freshman to start a season opener for Miami in their history. After an "up and down" season, he should be improved along with the entire Miami offense after averaging just 309 ypg last season (No. 122). Miami returns their top two RB's led by Jaylon Bester (14 rushing TD's). The Red-Hawks also return their top receiver and four starting OL led by 1st-Team All-MAC LT Tommy Doyle. On defense, the RedHawks bring back seven starters including their top two tacklers. They do lose All-MAC DT Doug Costin (12 TFL's) but DE Kameron Butler (14.5 TFL's) is back. Maybe the biggest area of concern on the team is the loss of their All-MAC duo at kicker/punter.

After a couple of tough non-conference games (at Pitt and vs Cincinnati), the schedule will once again feature a ton of close games. If Miami's recent track record in close games continues, they could be back in Detroit for the MAC Championship game. with DD Drojooto - I I I I

The Rockets have a proud football tradition and have not had a losing season in 10 years. Last year looked like more of the same as Toledo started the season 4-1 including an upset over BYU and their only loss came in a competitive opener at Kentucky. Then QB Mitchell Guadagni gets hurt vs Bowling Green. Toledo goes 0-6-1 ATS in their last 7 games failing to cover the spread by a combined 123 points or 17.6 ppg and they fail to get invited to a bowl game at 6-6! Obviously, the end of season power rating chart below is not a good sign for head coach lason Candle for head coach Jason Candle.

This year Candle shook up his coaching staff including bringing in former Mount Union head coach Vince Kehres and one of the best DL coaches in CFB the last two decades in Craig Kuligowski to coordinate the defense. The Rock-ets return 14 starters and Eli Peters and Carter Bradley will battle for the QB spot. The good news is that RB's Bryant Koback and Shakif Seymour return after combining for 1,928 rushing yards and 17 TD's last season. Toledo also returns their top two receivers. The defense, which really struggled last season (allowed 476 ypg No. 123) brings back four of their top six tacklers. LB Saeed Holt (11 TFL's) and DE Jamal Hines (8.5 TFL's) are their top two guys.

The schedule could see the Rockets underdogs in each of their first three games. After that the schedule lightens up and we don't have the Rockets more than a TD dog in any of their last nine games. We project seven games to be decided by a TD or less and if Toledo can figure out the QB position, we expect the Rockets to be back in a bowl game.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Kent St's football history is not good. Prior to last season, the Golden Flashes had only managed three winning seasons since 1977! The 2019 campaign was also on the brink as Kent St was 3-6 and they trailed Buffalo 27-6 in the fourth quarter. However, the Golden Flashes pulled off the huge comeback and used that momentum to win each of their final 3 games of the regular season (all as an underdog). Then in the bowl, Kent St got their first bowl win in school history

On paper, Kent St looks to be in good shape this season thanks to the return of QB Dustin Crum who completed 69% of his passes with a 20-to-2 TD-to-INT ratio while also leading the Golden Flashes in rushing with 707 yards. His top receiver Isaiah McKoy (872 yards, 15.6 ypc and 8 TD's) returns but they do have to replace their top RB Will Matthews. Four starters are back on the offensive line. The defense has more room for improvement especially vs the run as they allowed 244.7 rush ypg (No. 127). The Flashes do return each of their top three tacklers led by LB Mandela Lawrence-Burke (104 tackles, 4 sacks). They do lose DE Theo Majette (8.5 TFL's). On special teams, kicker Matthew Trickett returns after being named the MAC Special Teams Player of the Year.

The biggest issue facing Kent State in 2020 is a schedule that easily ranks as the toughest in the MAC. Non-conference games at Penn State, Kentucky and Alabama along with MAC cross-over games vs Western and Central Michigan may see Kent State taking a step back in the win/loss column in 2020.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

LUZU UNITIEST DIFFERENCE ANALYSES Northern Illinois was the most successful program in the MAC during the 2010's with seven appearances in the MAC Championship game and four wins. However, they took a major step back in 2019 and it was the worst Huskies' team since 2007. NIU had a first-year coach in Thomas Hammock (former NIU RB) who wasn't hired until mid-January and they faced a tough schedule that included three Power 5 teams. NIU fell to 5-7 after winning the MAC in 2018.

It doesn't look like the Huskies will be much improved in 2020. NIU does bring back QB Ross Bowers (Cal transfer) who threw for 2,130 yards here last year but had a 7-to-8 TD-to-INT ratio. On the positive side, he will have plenty of re-ceiving options to throw to as the Huskies return three of their top four. Note TE Mitch Brinkman decided to transfer to USF in May and NIU lost a 1,000 yard rusher in RB Tre Harbison to transfer as well. Their best offensive lineman RT Jordan Steckler (1st-Team All-MAC) is also gone but they do bring back their other four starters. The defense dealt with several injuries last year especially at the LB position. The Huskies will lose five of their top six tacklers, but bring back Kyle Pugh who had 106 tackles in 2018 before getting injured early last season. Note starting DT Jack Heflin transferred to Iowa in May, which is an alarming sign for the program with so many starters transferring.

The schedule isn't as difficult as the last two years. However, we see NIU a least five games and a clear favorite in only 2. It will likely Per Game 5.2 come down to those remaining five "toss-up" games if NIU can get back to a bowl game in 2020. Right now, that looks like a less than 50% proposition.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Head coach Chris Creighton has done a remarkable here. When Creighton too over in 2014, EMU didn't have a winning season since 1995 and they hadr been to a bowl game since 1987. Now the Eagles have been to three bow games in the last four years and have beat a Big Ten team in each of the la three years. Prior to that, they had never beat a Power 5 team in their histo (were 0-58)! They still need to find that elusive bowl win as they've lost the three bowl games under Creighton by a combined 10 points.

Creighton will have his work cut out for him in 2020. The Eagles have to Creighton will have his work cut out for him in 2020. The Eagles have to r place QB Mike Glass who set the EMU single-season record for total offem (3,597 yards). Preston Hutchinson will likely be the replacement as he got start vs Western Michigan last year and was impressive (31 of 36 for 357 yard and 3 TD's). However, the Eagles also have to replace leading rusher Shk Vann and leading receiver Arthur Jackson as they combined for 15 TD's. Kex an eye on WR Quian Williams (661 yards and 6 TD's). The losses are als heavy on defense as EMU loses arguably its top 3 players in LB Kobie Be tram (128 tackles) and safeties Vince Calhoun (108 tackles) and Brody Hoyri (4 INT's) All three players were either 1st or 2nd team All-MAC LB Ter (4 INT's). All three players were either 1st or 2nd team All-MAC. LB Ter Myrick (89 tackles, 7.5 TFL's) is their top returnee.

The schedule is also unkind as there are no FCS opponents, EMU has to play road games and they might be an underdog in 9 or 10 games. We think the E gles will be hard-pressed to make a bowl this year but don't count out Creig ton and company especially in the road underdog role (see ATS stat below).

Akron enters 2020 on a nation-long 17-game losing streak. Year one under head coach Tom Arth set records for all the wrong reasons as the Zips became the first team ever to start a season 0-10 ATS (finished 1-11). Akron had the worst offense in college football ranking dead last in rushing ypg, rushing ypc, yards per play, yards per game and scoring. They were also the worst team in the country as far as protecting the QB (allowed 58 sacks) and the worst at getting after the QB (only 10 sacks on defense).

However, there is some good news as we think Akron could be one of the most However, there is some good news as we think Akron could be one of the most improved teams in the country. The Zips return 15 starters and per Bill Con-nelly, 44 Akron players logged at least 100 snaps last season and 33 of them return. They will be led by dual-threat QB Kato Nelson who has started 26 games the past three seasons. Nelson has 5,138 career pass yards (34-16 ratio) and 622 career rushing yards. WR Nate Stewart (14.3 ypc) is one of their better weapons on offense and keep an eye on Indiana transfer Cole Gest at RB. The offensive line lost starter Brandon Council to Auburn this spring. The defense does lose 1st-Team All-MAC LB John Lako (138 tackles last year) but return Bubba Arslanian (125 tackles). The Zips' D was much more respectable than their offensive counterparts including ranking No. 69 in yards per play allowed. The schedule is much more manageable this season as there are four winnable games starting with the opener vs Youngstown St. Akron will no doubt win a couple games this year but expecting more than three is a reach. Also note the Zips did not get in a single spring practice before the COVID-19 cancellations.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Notre Dame has won at least 10 games in three consecutive seasons for the f time since 1991-93. However, for all their recent success, the Irish have co up short in the bigger games (Miami in 2017, Clemson in 2018 and Michig last year). This year's team has a good chance to make it four straight d ble-digit win seasons but can the Irish finally get over the hump and win a game (i.e. at home vs Clemson)?

The Irish return 12 starters including QB Ian Book who will likely finish career as the No. 2 all-time passer in ND history behind Brady Quinn. ND do lose their leading rusher and their top three receivers as both WR Claypool a TE Kmet were 2nd-round draft picks. Keep an eye out on WR's Kevin Aus and speedster Braden Lenzy who could emerge this season. The best uni the offensive line which returns all five starters from last season (115 car starts) and it will be interesting to see what new O.C. Tommy Rees dials The defense has been the strength of the team the last couple of years thanks D.C. Clark Lea and this year's unit will be tough again. The Irish return the top two tacklers including LB Jeremiah Owusu-Koromoah (80 tackles, 1 total TFL's) who is probably ND's best NFL prospect. The secondary is led safety Kyle Hamilton who flashed as a true frosh last season with four INT The schedule is again among the toughest in the country, but ND should be nificant favorites in nine of their 12 games. How ND fares in the big games Wisconsin, Clemson and USC will ultimately determine if this program ta the next step and joins the nation's elite.

CUCU UNIGENSE/ DEFINITIESE ANIMITYSES This is now the 10th season that BYU has been an independent and while the schedules have featured several big-time opponents, the Cougars have yet to have a break-through season and garner a major bowl bid. Despite his recent contract extension, there certainly hasn't been much consistency for BYU in the Kalani Sitake era. For every big upset win (i.e. Tennessee or USC last year), there's been a frustrating upset loss (i.e. Toledo and South Florida last year). BYU also had three games last year where they dominated the box score but still lost the game (see game recaps to the right).

On paper, 2020 looks more of the same. The Cougars do bring back 15 starters On paper, 2020 looks more of the same. The Cougars do bring back 15 starters including their top 3 QB's who all started last year. Zach Wilson is the favorite but don't be surprised if Jaren Hall doesn't push him in fall camp practices. BYU brings back their top two rushers and adds Utah transfer Devonta'e Henry-Cole. TE Matt Bushman is one of the better TE's in the country but the Cougars must replace their top three WR's. The good news is that BYU brings all five starters back on their offensive line. The defense returns seven starters including two of their top linebackers. Keep an eye on 320-lb DT Khyiris Tonga who flashed to us on tange ga who flashed to us on tape.

The schedule is again difficult to start the season as BYU plays four Power 5 teams to open the season and all four went to a bowl game last year. Currently, we have the Cougars favored in 7 games but two of those are by less than a FG. They will need to pull an upset to top last year's win total and more importantly win the games they should more consistently. 2020 Cohodulo with DD Drojaatad Linaa

Head coach Jeff Monken is doing a tremendous job here. However, after notch-Red ing back-to-back double-digit win seasons for the first time in school history in 2017 and 2018, Army took a major step back last year suffering three outright upset losses and falling to 5-8. The Black Knights looked fine at the start of the season as they were 3-1 with the only loss coming in double-overtime to Mich-igan. Then the roof caved in as the QB position became a revolving door due to injury and Army also lost a couple of key players on defense due to injury.

This year's team looks to be in better shape provided QB Jabari Laws can return 100-percent healthy from a late season knee injury. Laws started five games last year and impressed completing 80-percent of his passes while also rushing for 484 yards (6.4 yards per carry). Army does lose their top two rushers, but FB Sandon McCoy returns after leading the team with 10 rushing TD's. Army does return their top two receivers who combined to average 20.9 yards per catch last season in Camden Harrison and Artice Hobbs. The defense loses three of their top four tacklers including LB Cole Christiansen (112 tackles) and CB Elijah Riley who led the team in both sacks and interceptions.

The schedule is among the easiest in the country as Army plays a pair of FCS teams and four bottom-tier FBS teams. The only non-winnable game is the highly-anticipated home game vs Oklahoma. We have Army projected to be a Pen favorite in six games and getting back to bowl eligibility would certainly be step in the right direction after last season.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

Liberty University has very deep financial pockets and this is a football pro-gram to keep an eye on. Last year head coach Hugh Freeze (formerly of Ole Miss) in his first season dealt with a back injury that forced him to miss 24 fall practices. He coached a game from the press box in a medical bed, and four more games on an elevated platform on the sidelines. Despite that, Liberty joined Georgia Southern and Appalachian State as the only teams to move from FCS to FBS and win a bowl game in its first season of eligibility!

It will be tough to duplicate 2019's success as Liberty loses their all-time lead-It will be tough to duplicate 2019's success as Liberty loses their all-time lead-ing passer in Stephen Calvert (12,025 yards), their No. 2 all-time receiver in Antonio Gandy-Golden (3,722 yards, 4th round draft pick) and their No. 4 all-time rusher in Frankie Hickson (2,898 yards). Auburn transfer Malik Wil-lis figures to be the favorite to replace Calvert and keep an eye on WR Noah Frith who impressed us in the bowl game. The expectation is Liberty is going to increase the tempo big-time this season. The defense also suffers some heavy losses including their top three tacklers. DE Jessie Lemonier was the Flames' best pass rusher (10.5 sacks) also departs. Keep an eye on true fresh-man TreShaun Clark who had 8.5 TFL's as a true freshman last season.

The schedule is manageable for Liberty in 2020 as it ranks only No. 127 in terms of difficulty. Despite the heavy personnel losses, Liberty could find them-selves favored in as many as 7 games. A 2nd straight bowl trip is possible provided they find themselves a QB. Note that since they play two FCS teams, Liberty needs to win seven games to get to bowl eligibility.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis After going just 9-39 the last 4 years, UConn transitions to being an independent in 2020. Randy Edsall's 2nd tenure here has certainly gotten off to a slow start with a 6-30 overall record and just one win over an FBS team the last two years. It should be noted that one FBS win was against a UMass team that we Felt were the uncert FBS team in more then four starts. felt was the worst FBS team in more than five years.

telt was the worst FBS team in more than five years. Things are looking up for UConn heading into 2020 as this should be Edsall's best team yet thanks to the return of 16 starters. Jack Zergiotis and Steven Krajewski are back at QB and RB Kevin Mensah is arguably their best player after rushing for 1,013 yards last year. Also keep an eye on WR Cameron Ross who caught 60 passes in 2019 as a true freshman. The Huskies do lose their best offensive lineman in OT Matt Peart who was a 3rd round draft choice and the Huskies lost multiple guys to the transfer portal. Depth will be an issue. The defense did make some strides last season as they went from allowing 50.4 pg and 617 ypg in 2018 to allowing 40.5 and 467 ypg last year. This year's defense looks improved again thanks to the return of 9 starters and all of those freshman and sophomores that took their lumps in 2018 are now upperclassmen. The Huskies return five of their top 6 tacklers. Huskies return five of their top 6 tacklers.

Depending on what happens with practice schedules leading up to this season we do see a major advantage for UConn in that they got all 15 of their spring practices in before COVID-19 hit! There is 3-4 winnable games on the schedule, but if you're looking for UConn to get back in bowl contention, the Huskies are still at least a year away.

2020 Offense/Defense Analysis

We think New Mexico St might be the toughest job in all of college football. Due to its location, lack of past success and with no conference affiliation, we're not sure if the Aggies will ever become a consistent winner. Just three years ago, they did get their first bowl win in nearly six decades. However, the R last two years have been a dose of reality with just a 5-19 record.

This year's team doesn't look like it will make major strides thanks to several key personnel losses including their best player RB Jason Huntley who averaged 7.1 yards per carry last season and was a 5th round draft choice. The eraged 7.1 yards per carry last season and was a 5th round draft choice. The offense was supposed to bring back QB Josh Adkins who started 22 games the last two years, but he decided to transfer (along with seven others on the team). It looks like the QB position will come down to freshman Weston Eget and JUCO dual-threat Jonah Johnson. Both could've used the 15 practices in the spring. Coach Martin doesn't think he will miss a beat at RB so keep an eye on Michigan transfer O'Maury Samuels. The defense was the weaker of the two units last year as they ranked No. 129 in the country allowing 259 rushing ypg and 41 ppg. The Aggies do lose their top tackler Javahn Fergurson (133 tackles). However, LB Rashie Hodge who had 90 tackles and 10 TFL's last year 4tl returns. They also get back DT Roy Lopez who redshirted last season.

The schedule is favorable as there are five winnable games including four of the first six. The Aggies should improve their win total. Note there was an investi-gation into head coach Doug Martin and that might be part of the reason why so many players transferred. Martin was cleared of all wrong-doing in the spring.

2020 Team Power Rating

If there was one team that could ill afford not having spring practice this season, it was the Minutemen who are coming off one of the worst seasons we've ever seen at the FBS level. Not much was expected of them coming into last season. It was the first year under head coach Walt Bell and the Minutemen were one of the least experienced teams in the country with only 8 returning starters. However, even with a win over Akron, statistically speaking UMass was by far the worst team in the country in most categories (see stat margins below). This year the Minutemen will be improved but they do lose RB Bilal Ally (853 rushing yards, 7 TD's) who was arguably their best weapon on offense. Three of their top four receivers return and they also bring back QB Andrew Brito (830 yards, 7-6 ratio). However, Brito is very small in stature at 5-foot-8 170 and he will be challenged by incoming JUCO Kyle Lindquist. Left tackle Larnel Coleman is their best offensive lineman and a 2-year starter. On defense, the Minuteman return three of their top five tacklers led by Cole McCubrey (84 tackles). However, they do lose arguably the best player on the team in CB Isa-iah Rodgers (4 INT's) who was also their top return man and a 6th round draft choice. Keep an eye on Notre Dame transfer Noah Boykin at CB. UMass' best pass rusher Chinedu Ogbonna (2 sks, 7 TFL's) returns.

The schedule is not overly difficult (No. 119 in terms of difficulty) but UMass was so far behind the rest of the FBS last year that they will likely be an underdog in every game. The good news is that Auburn is the only Power 5 opponent. We
