

Bonnie Krogman

Bonnie Krogman grew up on a south-central SD ranch where she now lives with her jovial husband, Kenny, an entertaining story-teller, in his own right. After 47 years of marriage, they have experienced both the good times and the bad times in ranching, but still believe that it is the best way of life. Bonnie has appeared at gatherings in Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas, and Wyoming. She values the lasting friendships that she has made while attending these events, and credits Yvonne Hollenbeck for introducing her to the world of cowboy poetry.
