

Haley Florence S.

Florence S. Haley, 79, of Elkton, died Monday evening, May 8, 2006, at Bay Special Care Hospital, Bay City. She was born September 13, 1926 in Detroit and moved to the Ugly area in her youth with her parents, the late Arthur and Marguerite (Morrison) Marshall. Shortly after high school on September 22, 1945, she and Donald L. Haley were united in marriage at the First Baptist Church in Bad Axe. They spent many winters in Florida. Don preceded her in death on August 7, 1983. Florence was a lifelong and very active member of the First Baptist Church of Bad Axe. She was an avid golfer for many years, golfing on several leagues. She enjoyed art, creating many paintings herself. Gardening was also a hobby of hers, especially growing roses. Surviving are three sons, Roger (Val) Haley, of Grant Township, Randy (Cheryl) Haley, of Elkton, and R. William (Kerri) Haley, of Shields; six grandchildren, Gretchen (Todd) Roestel, Kristi (Greg) Hanby, Meghann (Matt) Herford, Casey (Carmen) Haley, Marla (Anthony) Kopah, and Joshua Haley; and eight great-grandchildren, Travis, Austin, Kendal, Ian, Tristen, Dante, Willow and Orion. Preceding her in death was a daughter, Linda; and a sister, Ruth Cramer. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, May 11, 2006, at First Baptist Church of Bad Axe. The Rev. Jay Barsaleau, pastor, will officiate with burial in Colfax Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Elkton and after 10 a.m. on Thursday at the church. Memorials may be directed to the church.
