

This website was started in October of 2009. Prior to this undertaking I was a database administrator and never really had much to do with the internet before my decision to start this website. What an amazing learning process. I am still learning (I know – obviously...right!) and sometimes my website presentation may be jumbled and the grammar may be incorrect (I believe this is a server issue and not the result of operator error. ☺) – but I ask that you keep in mind that this is a lone person’s endeavor.

I began this adventure as a result of Hampton City Schools’ comments and behavior during the Rifing process in the spring of 2009. My thought was – no one is looking into this group – we are allowing them to spoon-feed us what they want us to believe as fact. This catapulted me into researching and doing my best to verify data; as well as, learning as much as possible about each area of interest. I often hit roadblocks but this is why it is important to fight for TRANSPARANCY in Hampton’s school district. What are they hiding and why are they hiding it?

I do appreciate the comments and suggestions readers have made, both negative and positive. Every little bit helps to guide the direction that this website takes.

Thanks for your support and/or interest, the WEBMASTER ☺
