

Klump, Charles

Charles Henry Klump, 74, of Scottsdale, Ariz., passed away Thursday, Feb. 27, 2003. He was born in Harbor Beach on May 1, 1928 to Edwin and Ada Klump. He and Acenith "Acie" Stevens were married on June 4, 1948 in Grand Rapids. He was the owner/operator of Charlie Klump's Restaurant in Harbor Beach for 25 years. In 1980, Charlie and his wife Acie moved to Scottsdale, Ariz. where he worked for McCormick Ranch Golf Club as a chef until he retired in 2001. He loved to cook and loved to be among his family and friends. He thoroughly enjoyed cooking for the people he loved. The memory of his remarkable sense of humor will keep his family and friends smiling for many years to come. He will be missed by many. He is survived by his children, Randy and his wife, Jackie, of Rogers City, Jackie Gieger of Mesa, Ariz., and Eric of Port Huron; nine grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; sister, Marge Cottrell of Hallowell, Maine; and special friend, Virginia Nauman of Decker. He was preceded in death by his wife, Acie; and in 1996 by his eldest daughter, Jan. Cremation has taken place as per Charles' wishes. No funeral will be conducted. A private memorial service will take place at a later date.
