

Purls of Joy Newsletter

September

We love September! That end of summer feeling when the days get noticeably shorter and the trees in the parks display magnificent colors before we begin to slip into the colder and leaner winter months.

It also feels like the start of the 'proper' knitting and crochet season: it's cool enough to think about handling heavy or bulkier yarn and to begin dreaming about cozy sweaters and woolly hats.

Welcome to "September Makes" - the suggestion to begin those hand made gifts, you intend to make and give this Holiday Season.

CLASSES:

Please arrive early for your class or appointment at Purls of Joy. We are available to assist with any class supplies you may need.

Ophidia Hat, by Macarena Silva

Have you ever liked a design, but want to modify it or apply it to a different project?

The Ophidia hat is a great introduction to using two colors. Additionally, it can be modify for a cowl (don't decrease the crown); make some fingerless gloves, a matching pair of mittens, or socks! It's a simple twelve stitch repeat.

The pattern is available for free via Ravelry.

Mark your calendars, you won't want to miss this event!

A demonstration and conversation with Rosanne.
