The Old Has Gone
March 2018 Sermon Series

So far in 2018, we've discussed impacting community in and outside of the church through the early walk and teachings of Jesus. He masterfully took the Old Testament and turned it on its head, or really, what man had done with the Scriptures and showed what God really wanted.

Sadly, what He ultimately wanted was a price for sin, and that price was too steep for you or me to pay. Instead, Jesus took it all upon Himself to pay that price, by dying on the cross. This month we'll look at the few last hours of His earthly life and see that in words and action, the old has gone.

March 4 A Shady Place Matt 27:45-49

Jesus knows His time is short, the pain in His all-too human body overwhelming his spirit. The worst of His pain, though? He feels like God has abandoned Him. Ever been so much in pain that you wonder where God is, and why He's allowing you to hurt? If so, why would He let that happen to His own son?

March 11 A Shaky Place Matt 27:50-56

When Jesus shouts that it's all over, did He just mean His life? What if He meant that it's time to do away with old ways and old habits? What if it means there's a new way to experience God? To get there, it means we may have to shake things up a bit!

March 18 A Sacred Place Matt 27:57-61

Sometimes we don't realize what we had until it's gone. (Like childhood.) After Jesus died, people that loved Him so much appear to care for His broken and dead body. In the way they did so, they left a fantastic blueprint for how to worship Jesus now that He's no longer on earth! What's your favorite way to worship Him?

March 25 A Sneaky Place Matt 27:62-66

The church leaders think the disciples will sneak Jesus' dead body away, so they get sneaky first! Pilate orders the tomb be made secure so no one can get to Jesus. (SPOILER: it doesn't work!) Regardless of how difficult others and churches make it for you to see Jesus, I've got some good news! Jesus laughs at those lame efforts, and man, does He have a surprise for all the bad guys!
