

“10 Questions That Jesus Asked: ‘Who Do You Say I Am?’ – Matthew 16:13-17

Questions have a way of getting S_____ to the P_____... and cutting straight to our C_____.

Jesus asked a total of _____ questions.

WHO DO YOU SAY I AM?

Here are a few answers to how the “crowds” might answer that question today...

1) Jesus was a M_____ U_____ P_____ (But what about the evidence...?)

2) Jesus was JUST an H_____ P_____. Period. (Good and moral teacher? Prophet of God?)

3) Jesus as a C_____ L_____ (see Mark 4)

4) Jesus as a G_____ in a B_____

One more truly amazing and incredibly significant thing about this particular Jesus question...

How Jesus structures this Q_____...

In the way Jesus answers, He is giving Peter a C_____ to His very N_____.

He is actually providing us (within that question) the very A_____ to His own question.

Could you answer: “You are the O_____ who S_____ me... you are the L_____ of my day to day L_____!”