

DOT Quarterly STAR

Shannon Morgan-Leonen

Shannon Morgan-Leonen is an Assistant Vice President, Branch Manager with Investors Bank, at its Williamstown Branch.

She has more than 28 years of experience in the financial services industry and started working for Investors in May 2014. Her main responsibility is new business development while building relationships in the community, in addition to overseeing a staff of employees, managing the branch's daily operations, and ensuring customer satisfaction. She has been recognized at Investors for leading her branch to meet its sales goals in both 2014 and 2015.

Shannon was nominated in 2015 by SJ Biz Magazine, as one of the "Super Woman" in our communities. She was also nominated by SJ Biz Magazine as one of the "Women to Watch" in 2016. Shannon is Vice President/Board Member of the Williamstown Chamber of Commerce. She serves as an Ambassador for the Gloucester County Chamber; She is a on the Fundraising Committee for the Arc Gloucester of Gloucester County; a Member of Williamstown Sunrise Rotary, a board member on the Schalick Diamond Club, which supports the High School Baseball and Soccer teams at Arthur P. Schalick High School in Pittsgrove Township and a member of the Schalick High School PTO. She is avid volunteer in the above mentioned organizations and others.

She previously served as a councilwoman on the Pittsgrove Township Committee, Board Member of the South Jersey Volunteer Center, and Vice President of the Woman's Leadership Group/United Way, where she developed and facilitated a Ready4Work program, which provides mentors for women reentering the workforce.

She was a recipient of "The Best of the Bank" award from Fulton Bank in 2003, strictly nominated by her team and chosen by the senior management team.

She is a graduate of Cumberland County College with a degree in Applied Sciences and has received several Leadership Certifications.

When she is not working, she enjoys reading, going to the beach, watching movies, and cooking. Her passion is gardening, and her favorite hobby is sharing her free time with her family.

Shannon and her husband Steven have three children—Greg, Hunter, and Ava.