

Jacob Ira Bouxsein Memorial Scholarship

In Loving Memory of The Warrior King

Jacob Ira Bouxsein, dubbed “The Warrior King” by his friends and family, passed away unexpectedly of natural causes on November 6th, 2019. At the time of his passing, Jacob was 29 years old. In Jacob’s short time here, he made an immense impact on others. Jacob was a true outdoorsman and his passion lied in waterfowl hunting. He was known in his and surrounding communities as a compassionate and driven young hunter. Jacob frequently took time out of his day to teach the youth in the community about hunting, outdoor activities, and gun safety. He was generous, caring, and loyal to everyone especially to those he considered friends and family. He was a mentor to many and was looked to for advice about many topics. TEACH outdoors and the Bouxsein Family hope that this scholarship will continue to honor The Warrior King for many years to come.
