Tax Collector Report: None

Treasurer: Bills were reviewed and the Treasures warrant signed

Ongoing Business:

Truck Garage: Linda Dexter talked to George Crosson and they agreed a 40 by 50 Steel Building would be a good size building for Dallas Plantations needs. George Crosson will start to look at Steel buildings and their cost to build. Linda Dexter will meet with George Crosson in a couple weeks to get an update on his progress.

Town Cemeteries: Nothing to report

Road Projects: Nothing to report

Townhouse : The electrician installed a new outdoor sensor light at the Town Office entrance. George Poland said he would get his electrician to hook up the generator in the next few days. I will ask George if we need another propane tank for the generator and if he can hook the propane to the generator in the next week.

Winter Roads: David Duchesne received his class 2 learning permit and will send in paperwork for his class 2 drivers test next week. Jim Carignan has continued to sand for the town.

Tree Growth: Linda Dexter and Pam White will meet soon

Welcome Packet: Patricia Ellis and Linda Jones continue to make progress on the "Welcome Packet".

New Business:

Franklin County Animal Shelter: A letter was sent to the Assessors stating their annual rate was going up from $618.00 a year to $679.80 a year. The Animal shelter stated higher costs and minimum wages going up were the main contributors to the increased rate. Linda Dexter signed the contract.

David Schinas: David Schinas requested December 24, 2018 off. The Assessors granted the day off 2-0.

Meeting: Next Assessors meeting is Tuesday January 2, 2019
