Course Texts:

Kate Mangelsdorf and Evelyn Posey, Choices: A Writer's Guide with Readings, 6th Edition (ISBN: 978-0312611408)

Course Outcomes:

The student who successfully completes ENGL 080 will be able to:

1. Use writing processes that develop exploratory drafts into revised academic prose for specific audiences, including the ability to:

- Brainstorm ideas to select and focus topics
- Develop, organize, and revise writing to establish a focus and purpose
- Recognize ways of supporting positions to convince targeted audiences
- Adapt language and style for academic audiences
- Edit writing to address general conventions of Standard English

2. Compose formal college level essays that exhibit the requisite skills to attain a C level or better on the ENGL 080 course rubric, which signals that a student is prepared to enter ENGL 111 and begin engaging in academic discourse at the university level.

3. Read for meaning and identify audience, purpose, and genre using a variety of reading strategies.

4. Participate in interactive and collaborative reading and writing activities.

Credits earned in remedial courses (000 level) will not apply toward the credits required for graduation. However, they will count toward determining "full load" for students receiving financial aid. You will receive a letter grade for the course on your transcript.

Assignments:

Associated tasks (see note below): 189 points (3 points each)

Peer review: 75 points (15 points each)

Mid-Semester Assessment: 16 points

Essays (descriptions on Canvas): 250 points (50 points each)

Professional in-class work ethic (see note below): 25 points

Total Points Possible: 555

Special note about extra credit and extensions: I do not give extra credit or extensions. Please complete all assignments to the best of your capabilities on time.

Special note about professional in-class work ethic: Full credit requires that you show thorough preparation and focused participation in all required activities. You are required to arrive on time. Arriving more than 10 minutes late will count as an absence. Do not make “being 10 minutes late” a habit—you are expected to be in class on time. Excessive lateness is rude to your classmates and me. Repeated lateness will affect your “professionalism” grade. If you cannot respect your classmates and me by showing up on time, then you are not welcome to participate in that day’s activities. Additionally, we will be doing many in-class activities that will help you improve your writing and researching skills. The majority of these are “ungraded” but will help you in the long run. Even though many of these activities are ungraded, the quality work you put in during our class time effects the “professional in-class work ethic” grade. Occasionally, I will collect in-class work to monitor your progress and participation.

Grading Scale:

↑95%: A	555-527 points
↑90%: A-	526-499 points
↑87%: B+	498-483 points
↑83%: B	482-461 points
↑80%: B-	460-444 points
↑77%: C+	443-427 points
↑73%: C	426-405 points
↑60%: D	404-333 points
↓59%: F	332-0 points

Grading Scale

↑90%: A-
↑87%: B+
↑83%: B
↑80%: B-
↑77%: C+
↑73%: C
↑60%: D
0%: F

All grades will be posted on Canvas. I will not share grades on social media.

Special note on the grading scale: SVSU does not assign C-, D+, D- grades. Anything below a 73% will result in a D. Anything below a 60% will result in a F.

Special note about extra credit and extensions: I do not give extra credit or extensions. Please complete all assignments to the best of your capabilities on time.

Late work is unacceptable. Please ensure that your work is submitted on time. The deadlines are clearly marked on all assignments and on the syllabus. If you know a due date conflicts with something outside of class, plan ahead and submit your assignment early. I will send a confirmation e-mail by 9 am the next morning. If you do not receive a confirmation e-mail, I did not receive your paper.

Course Policies

The decision to take this course is yours, but once you make that decision, you have responsibilities to everyone else in this community of learners. It is your responsibility to abide by the following course policies in order to contribute to our classroom's productivity.

Special note about course meetings: Unless the university closes, we will have class. Even in the event that I "cancel" an in-person meeting, you will have some obligation for class in the form of an online activity. It is your responsibility to check your e-mail (at least once before class starts each day) and stay focused on our course material.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken during each class meeting. You are allowed two excused absences. On your third absence, your grade will be reduced by one half of a grade. For example, if you had an A, on your third absence it would become an A-. On your fourth absence, your grade will be lowered by a full grade. For example, if you had an A-, on your fourth absence it would become a B-. On your fifth absence, you will be asked to drop the class. Use your excused absences wisely. Once they are gone, they are gone.

Technology Policy

I encourage you to use whatever note taking system you prefer. If, however, you choose to use a laptop or tablet, you are asked that it be used for class work and not for homework for your other classes or social activities. Phones are prohibited during class time. Phones must be turned to silent during and must be stored away during class time. You are required to be an active member of our learning community. Be aware that I will call on people at random if the discussion is dead. If you are not prepared to participate because you are distracted by technology, this may affect your final professionalism grade.

I also strongly encourage you to use some sort of cloud storage in which you can store and access your work from multiple locations. I recommend Dropbox or Google Drive. Additionally, as SVSU students, you have access to Microsoft One Drive. Not having access to your work is not an excuse for late work. Be prepared for all possibilities.

Disability and Non-Discrimination Clause

Students with disabilities which may restrict their full participation in course activities are encouraged to meet with the instructor or contact the SVSU Office of Disability Services, Phone: 989-964-4168. SVSU does not discriminate based on race, religion, color, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, age, physical impairment, disability, or veteran status in the provision of education, employment, and other services.

Academic Integrity Policy

According to the SVSU Student Handbook, “Academic integrity is undermined whenever one is dishonest in the pursuit of knowledge. Dishonesty takes many forms, including cheating, plagiarism, and other activities for undermining the educational process and will be reported to the Academic Conduct Board for further sanctions.

Forms of plagiarism include directly transcribing (copying) without quotation and attribution, summarizing without attribution, paraphrasing or patchwork paraphrasing without attribution, patching electronic materials (including pictures, graphs, and/or charts) without attribution. In ENGL 080 Reserve the right to use Turn It In deliberate plagiarism or cheating in any form will result in the grade of zero (0) for the entire assignment.

Writing Center Information

One of the many advantages of this University is the Writing Center. You are strongly encouraged to meet with a tutor to discuss your writing. Sessions at the Writing Center are available on a first come, first serve basis. Please stop by the Writing Center anytime you need additional help.

Writing Center Hours: M-R 11 a.m.-6 p.m.

Location: Zahnnow 250 (2nd floor of the library)

Phone: 989-964-6061

Course Calendar

Please note: all readings must be completed before that day’s class. Not coming prepared with the reading completed will affect your in-class work professionalism grade.

A note on the reading: You will have a reading assignment almost every day. Make sure you plan time in your homework schedule for reading. Bring your textbook to class every day, even when there isn’t a reading from it. We will use it at different times for various in-class activities.
