

Armstrong Nellie I.

Nellie Irene Armstrong, 90, of Bad Axe, passed away on Wednesday, April 5, 2006, at the Huron Medical Care Facility. She was born on April 23, 1915 in Bad Axe, daughter of the late Arnold and Mable (Clark) Dunlap. She married Woodrow G. Armstrong on September 25, 1933 in Detroit. He preceded her in death on May 11, 2003 after 69 years of marriage. Mrs. Armstrong, along with her husband, owned and operated the former Armstrong Lumber in Bad Axe. She enjoyed spending time with her family and traveling. She is survived by two sons, Donald Paul (Gloria) Armstrong, of Bad Axe, David (Janet) Armstrong, of Bad Axe; five grandchildren, Linda (Jimmy) Severino, of Des Moines, Iowa, Sharon Armstrong, of Cass City, Michael Baker, of Cape Coral, Florida, Linda Sue (Mike) Chumbler, of Harbor Springs, Dean Armstrong, of Filion; one great-grandson, Carson Chumbler, of Harbor Springs. She was preceded in death by one brother, Clark Dunlap; and one grandson, Mark Armstrong. Graveside services will be conducted at Colfax Cemetery at a later date. Arrangements are being handled by the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe.