October 26th – Read by Jim McMurray - "Assumptions" -

Once a month over the next several months, we will be doing a service based on readings from the compilation of sermons by Reverend Rudolph William Nemser and Reverend W. Bradford Greeley of the Princeton UU Society, Princeton, NJ and Main Line Unitarian Church, Devon, PA respectively. The sermons discuss in depth what it means to be a Unitarian Universalist as individuals, in our communities and in the world at large. Jim McMurray will read the sermons by Rev. Greeley and Gail Marsh Saxer will read sermons by Rev. Nemser. Following the readings, the congregation will explore its own reactions, thoughts and responses to the sermons.
