Indian Bible College, Southwestern School of Missions, Flagstaff Arizona, Jason Koppen, President (wife: Sarah; four children - Angie, Abby, Lizzy, David)

Give Thanks:

1. IBC is on track to become fully accredited. This is the fruit from years of hard work. As a result of being accredited, IBC will qualify for certain financial benefits, including Pell grants for students. This process has also made IBC stronger academically.
2. Because of the pandemic, IBC has developed the ability to offer certain classes on a hybrid model, mixing on-site students with virtual students.

Pray:

1. IBC Scholarship fund. It is IBC's goal that every student graduates debt free.
2. Due to the pandemic, some volunteer maintenance workers and some staff have no longer been able to work in their roles. Pray for God to raise up replacements.
3. Pray for continued protection from the pandemic on campus. Native Americans seem to be disproportionately harmed by the pandemic. Pray for vaccinations to happen soon and to be effective.
4. Pray for Amie Palmer, an IBC graduate and former registrar of students. She is transitioning back to her home among the White Mountain Apache people. Pray for God to bless her, guide her and use her.
5. Pray for effective discipleship of all students. They all arrive with significant wounds of various kinds and need healing, love, and God's help to live in a new pattern of godliness.
