CLOSE CLOSES OUT VICTORY IN TOUR DEBUT

MOORE ADDS 5th TITLE TO RESUME

CLOSE DEBUTS IN WINNING STYLE

Tyler Close is the tour's newest champion. Making his tour debut at the season opener, the 2-hander from Aurora, Colorado became the tour's 141st boy's champion since the tour began in August 1992. He also became the 9th first-time champion in the past 10 events.

Close was one of four 2-handers to qualify for this month's match play finals. After qualifying in 6th, he was one of just 2 finalists to average 200 for his 8 games in match play, as the tricky 39-foot Seoul pattern got very challenging late in the day.

Close pocketed a $450 paycheck for his championship performance; he also earned the winner's plaque, and a permanent place on Championship Row. He averaged 212.40 for his 15 games. Congratulations, Tyler!

BOWLER OF THE YEAR SIDERS EARNS RUNNER-UP

Kendric Siders continues to be a dominant force on tour. The right-hander from Eagle River, Alaska – last year's GISBT Bowler of the Year – began the 2024-2025 campaign with a runner-up showing, pocketing a $325 payday.

Siders was consistent throughout the event, and he posted the best match play record by earning 7 wins and losing just once during the finals, with that loss coming to the champion. This was the 5th match play appearance of his career.

MASTROIANNI MATCHES CAREER BEST FINISH, TAKES 3rd

Anthony Mastroianni was in great form to open the season. The Brooklyn, New York native qualified for his 4th place finals, and would wind up finishing in 3rd place, taking home a $300 scholarship. The right-handed stroker matched the best finish of his tour career; his previous 3rd place showing came at last season's October event in Waterloo.

OLIVA EARNS 4th IN TOUR DEBUT

Jayden Oliva rolled into his very first GISBT event and came away with a 4th place finish. Oliva, from Sacramento, California, stashed away a $275 payday for his performance.

TOP QUALIFIER KIDD FINISHES 5th

Nicholas Kidd was this month's 5th place finisher. The talented right-hander led the boy's field into the match play finals by averaging 225.28 for his 7 games. Kidd, from Kaneohe, Hawaii, was appearing in his first GISBT match play finals, and remained in contention until late in match play when he slid into 5th place. He took home a $250 scholarship for his day's work.

BURNS, PAST TOUR WINNER, PLACES 6th

Tommy Burns, from Voorhees, New Jersey, was back in the finals at the season opener. The smooth-rolling righty took home a $225 paycheck for his 6th place finish. Burns was one of 2 past champions among this month's boy's finalists.

DOHAN EARNS 7th

Ian Dohan returned to the match play finals for the 3rd time in his GISBT career. The lanky right-hander kicked off his season with a 7th place finish, earning a $200 scholarship for his efforts. The Tampa, Florida resident was appearing in his 3rd match play finals.

KIDWELL QUALIFIES FOR FIRST FINALS, PLACES 8th

Noah Kidwell rounded out this month's boy's finals field. The powerful right-hander from Bettendorf, Iowa qualified in 8th place, earning the first match play finals appearance of his promising career. His 8th place finish earned him a $175 scholarship for his performance.

MOORE ROLLS INTO WINNER'S CIRCLE FOR 5th TIME

MOORE DOMINANT IN POSTING CAREER VICTORY # 5

Rachel Moore grabbed her 5th tour victory in dominant fashion at the season opener in Davenport. The right-hander from Keokuk, Iowa was tied for the lead after her 7-game qualifying round, moved into the lead by herself after her opening match, and never looked back. She won all 6 matches, and eventually pulled away from her field of rivals, winning by 159 pins. In victory, she became the 16th competitor in girl's division history to rack up at least 5 championships.

This marks the 2nd straight season that Moore has kicked off her season with a victory; she also won last year's season opener – also hosted at Big River Bowling. Moore has now racked up 23 match play finals appearances in her tour career.

Moore reeled in the championship plaque as well as the $300 championship prize. For her 13 tournament games, she averaged 197.30. Congratulations, Rachel!

ABDUL JALIL EARNS RUNNER-UP

Malaysia's Nada Abdul Jalil was this month's runner-up. The smooth-stroking right-hander matched her best tour finish, earning a $225 scholarship for her performance. She previously finished runner-up at last November's tour stop in Cedar Rapids. This was her 4th match play finals appearance.

PAST CHAMPION CARR CLAIMS 3rd

Elena Carr enjoyed another fine day on the lanes. The Hilton, New York native placed 3rd at this month's event, earning a $200 scholarship. Two years ago, the right-hander claimed her only tour victory at the season opener in Cedar Rapids. Carr has qualified for a half-dozen match play finals in her tour career.

SALZMANN FINISHES 4th

Brooke Salzmänn finished 4th at the season opener. The talented right-hander from Inver Grove Heights, Minnesota took home a $175 paycheck for her efforts. Salzmänn was enjoying her best tour finish since placing 3rd at last season's opening event.

DAY TAKES 5th

Chloe Day was this month's 5th place finisher. The Galesburg, Illinois resident was appearing in the 7th match play finals of her career, and this time out, she wound up with a $160 scholarship for her efforts.

PUNTER PLACES 6th

Emma Punter rounded out the girl's match play finals field. Punter, from Lockport, Illinois, rolled into her 5th match play finals, and secured a $150 payday by virtue of her 6th place finish. Unfortunately, Punter was forced to withdraw from the finals due to injury prior to the position round.
