

2016 Pets of the Season

January/February ~ Gibbs

Age: 9 years old

Breed: Shih-Tzu

Lives With: Linda Smart

Interesting Tidbit: Gibbs, who has the personality of a cuddly teddy bear, loves people and belly rubs. He has never met a stranger and is a great house mate and friend.

March/April – Chico

Age: 16 years old

Breed: Chihuahua

Lives With: Milli Macy and Rich Wilhelm

Interesting Tidbit: Chico is a loveable little guy who is a creature of habit.

One habit is a game he plays every night after dinner. Facing one another, Milli and Rich get down on Chico's level. With Chico located in-between, they slide the treat across the floor playing "keep away." After a while, Chico wins the game and enjoys his treat. You go, Chico!

Summer ~ Lucy

Age: 7 months

Breed: Golden Doodle

Lives With: Jim, Diana, Hannah, Sayde and Bentley Van Etten

Interesting Tidbit: Lucy joined the Van Etten household thanks to Bentley, her canine "brother," who made the final decision between her and another puppy. They have been "best buds" ever since.

If you see Lucy limping as she walks the neighborhood it's because she has only 3 paws, which she has had since birth or shortly thereafter. But that doesn't stop her from being playful.

Winter ~ Lulu

Age: 6 months old

Breed: Shih-Tzu

Lives With: Peggy and Sam Rozzi

Interesting Tidbit: Lulu is a spitfire. She gets her point across by barking and she always gets her way. She loves playing and racing thru the condo with Lely until Lely has had enough and lets her know it. She adores Sam and is most content while laying in his lap for hours. On the other hand, she runs from me as I, unfortunately, am the only disciplinarian. . But she is so darn cute, it's hard to get mad at her!
