Prayer for the Synod This month there is a Synod beginning entitled “Synod 2021-2023 a Synodal Church - Communion/Participation/Mission. Below you will see the Prayer of the Synod: Adsumus Sancte Spiritus This prayer, attributed to St. Isidore of Seville (560-636), has been traditionally used at Councils and Synods for hundreds of years. The version below was specifically designed for the Church’s Synodal journey from 2021 to 2023.

*We stand before you, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.
 With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;
 teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.
 We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.
 Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
 nor partiality influence our actions.
 Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
 All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen.*

Prayers of the Faithful Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

For Francis our Pope, Valerie our Bishop, and for the entire church, that the upcoming Synod may help us to discern God’s will and to boldly carry it out. We pray:

For all who struggle with jealousy and rivalry. We pray:

For the ability to recognize the true power found in service to those most in need. We pray:

For respect for all life; the elderly, the poor, the child in the womb and the prisoner on death row. We pray:

For continued effort on our part to imitate Jesus’ humility and love for all. We pray:

For the sick and for those who have died, We pray:

Exploring our Faith

Are You Able to Drink the Cup that I Drink?

Be careful what you wish for. That's what popped into my head on reading the Gospel this week.

It's a little startling to hear the request James and John make of Jesus – this apparent grab for power. Even more startling if you read the verses prior to the ones we hear proclaimed from Mark's Gospel.

"You do not know what you are asking," Jesus says. But in fact, they SHOULD know what they are asking, because they have JUST been told. "Jesus took the 12 aside ... and began to tell them what was to happen to him" upon arrival in Jerusalem where they are headed: "... the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death; then they will hand him over to the Gentiles; they will mock him and spit upon him, and flog him and kill him..." (Mark 10:32-34) Pretty explicit, I'd say.

Though it is James and John who make the request, none of the apostles – those closest to Jesus through all his ministry, those who left everything behind to follow him – understand, or likely accept, what Jesus is telling them. We know this because once the remaining 10 find out what James and John have done "they began to be angry with" them. Why wouldn't they have simply said: 'You got this James and John? Marvellous; we'll take one of the next projects then.'

The greatness of Jesus is an anomaly of that time; frankly it is an anomaly of our time also. This is a greatness that opens one up to persecution and pain. It is a greatness of service, not glory. It flies in the face of what we deem power to be – not a place of privilege, but a place of hardship. The greatness of Jesus is an acceptance of the Cross and all that brings, as described by Isaiah in the first reading. This is difficult stuff – difficult to understand, difficult to accept, difficult to live.

We are living in challenging times with complicated rules, complicated reactions, complicated decisions to make, made even more complicated because the rules, the reactions, the decisions are frequently changing. The most prevalent feeling in the world today I believe, is anger – those who are vaccinated are angry at those who are not and those who are not vaccinated are angry because they are feeling pressured to be vaccinated. It seems so clear cut to those who support vaccination: either you are vaccinated, or you can't come in. It seems so clear cut to those who oppose vaccination: you are taking away my rights by forcing this on me.

I have no intention of weighing in on this debate here. Jesus told us, "Whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave to all." He also gave us only two commandments to follow – love God and love your neighbour as yourself. This commandment appears in all four Gospels.

In the second reading, Paul reminds the Hebrews "we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but ... one who ... has been tested as we are." Jesus is fully human and fully divine. I suspect that James and John wanted the divine piece of that, but as impossible as it is to comprehend or explain, in Jesus, humanity and divinity are intricately one and the same. Jesuit priest John Kavanaugh says we tend not to be very good at being humans, never mind wanting to be gods. So, let's leave it to God then, shall we? ... and simply love our neighbour, seeking no glory.

"Are you able to drink the cup that I drink?" Jesus asks John and James. "We are able," they reply. But are they? And more importantly, are we?

WORLD FOOD DAY OCTOBER 16TH

A World Food Day has been promoted by the Food and Agriculture Organization since 1981. The Church is concerned about the issue of hunger in the world, remembering the words of the Son of Man on the last judgment of the nations, ".....I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink...." (Mt. 25:35).

Let Us Love One Another: A Three-Part Journey of Reconciliation

The recent, and continuing, uncovering of the horrific treatment of some of our Indigenous brothers and sisters at Residential Schools has left many of us struggling to deal with all the emotions that this has evoked. Feelings of anger, disillusion, and uncertainty as to how to move forward as a church are among many things we are trying to sort out. With this in mind, we are offering three evenings of prayer and discernment where people can come together and come to God to find a path forward. The three themes of these gatherings will be Reconciliation, Healing, and Remembrance and Promise, and the dates are as follows:

Wednesday, Wednesday, October 20th / Wednesday, November 24th. These will take place at Holy Family Church in Moncton and will begin at 7:00pm each night. All are welcome. Please note that we are not here to speak on anyone's behalf, but rather, to acknowledge that something went terribly wrong; to discern our part in it, and to voice our public concern in prayer.
