the forest cabin mad of wood life logs in mud stable stood upon the earth a dragon's den crafted in gold to defend upon attack; upon itself, - a place to hide walled by jeweled greed's fortified evil-breathed meanness across the land accounting for any who took stand or waking up to dream fever?

nestled in the world so fair the energy of a mountain glare a volcano of anger erupted magma of nature's spell corrupted

Dragon of wise, Dragon of glory steaming pot stoved each man's story ignited, set off, unleashed, controlled Mother's spells tectonical plate fold rocks compressed, time stressed, metals hammered and flexed dragon-scale armor, akin! - you be annexed! time out of time, ferociously blind best ceasing Cesar's mankind to the test a wizard, princess and a knight upon contrived the blight of bright whispered quickly a timely path let loose the crystal of his staff time unleash, magic twist a'loose centrifical force; arcane of truth a void ellipse, vividly amiss matter divorces stopping all courses deep inside a voided spell uttered madness of mankind's hell!

a wizard, , and a knight contrived of night of blight light upon the negative sight the rib of natures is "always right" now vacuumed through a singularity of constant pearl ocean swell reflecting lightly off the lake convexed eye light of mistake lavish at the color taste red nature that's been forsake

O splendor the living chill of living fresh dead until kill Savor the sinew and the twelve feast of Mother's multiple selve a wizard, them bones, and a knight convicted light of night's blight digging thy own grave of revenge fearing heart's sense afar folded held by hell ocean current swell ever-long beaches tell curvature of liberty bell!" a knight upon the word of light who preached the balled of the sight unlike the Leo who time stood align fighting lion to death's family feline henceforth within the past of now the lions alone and on the prowl into the night, into the grass the final moments of the last truth, valour, virtue stood tall against downfall, nature's up-hall malice, greed, hate, volcanic anger set the mood of set to danger arcane and cosmos, birth and death fire smouldering water's still breath of voids, magic flames, flying twists a beast devours all who persist insisting on existence persistence existed an persisting insistence a ripple on revenge lake eye mistake, mother nature's snake the air was vibrant, full and elective motives and blood feuds selective objective balancing the winner of who's line could be thinner energized lines as small as hair the atoms of universal prayer spliced plane of visual pain overlapping energies picture frame framing such a disturbing scene fright was convicted to the serene of nature of time, nature of man dragon -stanced houses stand inside the heat twisted fate reversal of the almost to late matter's over mind ceasing to insist that a positive matter battle should exist ions changed to sceptre of destiny single prophet sermon ecstasy about how both master's fell to existential particle hell may the war still rage in no-day no jewels, sapphires, emeralds of the gay for one's mans treasure is another man's chest folded greed, earth's mankind true test deep within the forest cabin wood the might of Virtue held by mud stood until the course of time knocks it down and returns it to the center of the ground a knight upon the day of bright for his harvest of death first time loan has only interest of death family bone he who wields no sword or shield runs deep through an unharvested field for the scythe all but all wields the strength of ox triangular unreal a knight upon his day of bright contriving a story of blight right light armoured only by sinew and flesh of might prophecy in all in all time psyche the spirits whisper and talk amongst the dew of battle in zero time crunch he who listens, waits and mind debunks will win the strategy battle of the month fatigue is a presence that alleviates the essence of all the natural condition state menace who lurks and hides in the corner tired dissonance a shadow shape wall of all evil sense the knight of valour and justice stands tall uphalling the mountains unlikely falls for this place I am stalled is all but a call nor menu voices of my own menu voice call a knight upon this light bright night

To fight to sing melody harmonic ring Trumpets through time throughout all sing
The hunger for notes unfolded unto men; bring A new salvation light bringing king

Composed now here is but all a note Which floats down river on an ocean bound boat
For the life of water swims around round' a moat A savoir to castles signing afloat

The lookout towers of high set in stone
A structural fortress of the light coming home Home in the house of spherical cone
A light shining in darkness a matters alone

The castle radiates a home for all the see How a deepest trench treachery Harnesses every fleeing moment past alee Caged inside its own walled fortune city

A knight within a castle of light Contriving all light to fight in might The walls and towers uphold a new sight Sighted of me harbour nature psyche

Yet the castle bones are the castle walls
A skeleton system to negate the fall Of mankind on earth, earth inside man a crawl Each wall restricts all from growing tall

Tall like a tree whose roots run deep Into the lions castle mountain keep For what grows up also grows downward
A force acting each way sky bound ward'

Outside the castle wall is a new panacea Were new life and growth add three fold sum A trinity land on the hypotenuse of some For standing upright makes an equilateral sum

For upright with time is a beautiful sense A loss of comprehension in time's minute sec'
A small white land seen through the fence
A boundary of man being put to the test

A knight without a castle of light Contrived all night into a bright light His own soul the keeper of bright A new conscious era of the psyche

The conscious knights fares far and wide To proclaim the story of his confide To there, to here, out on sea on land abide Please listen to the burden of his fright!

He seen the twists and toils of an evil king Who debased throne is an evil wing A crow that flies through death and sings Hark herald death unto the new born king

Though haunted and dead, fulfilled full of dread
The monster of your demon must only be fed By a justice that sets wrong; lying in your bed Gravity pulling you downward into a monster hungry red

A knight with a light shining bright Contrive all bad nature to the sight Of all men in time of nature light A human effort of past death psyche

Now within the present past of now A lion hunger on the hunting prowl
For the soul of dark to what they bow

For every meal of every soul Adds less matter to an existence whole For whole is the one heart of all men soul
Which is black and potential energy mole

The two sided dime of all men

Unrestricted or restricted playground pen Calls left to right spectrum to bend A letter of hope through faith was send Without a castle, shield or sword

The only attack is a search soul to bore

A knight's spear of death's light Pierced holes in the shining dark night
For all matter course must set a 'right Death,death,death to all alike psyche

Of the death wizard battle debase
A fowl odour that attracts all to late Master destiny calling fate

Underneath below the bowl of golden burning one

The reality of one is through the heats own
The maker of blazing furnace red stone Set carved in time to figurine bone Alive and active the dislodged between phone

Ring ding sing along bring The meal time voice king Beep bop boop loop to all In Eden the tree's a fall Above beyond the menu call For this ranger alone is time stalled

Now far beyond aside this spell makers sum Atonement of bell of liberty one White rabbit so black luck of clear time Maker of instant swell of sublime

Calling far off in the distant nature Is a protection of instant nature A wild magic untamed beyond the horizon Of nature's priori gate balance liaison

See were this takes me See who this fakes me Hear who betrays me
My eyes tear full white

Smoke the nature of dark spell In between a flaming vice hell Capture black matter to star ashatter Originate the natural order matter

Bright is the light dimming slow past hour For heat of truth gives virtue based power
The power of all for one one for all The liaison of hide and seek feature brawl

Swiftly cold in haste and in fire Flames the bog of unearthed hearts desire

Capture the magic of silent tranquil For hope in my light is so but a still Crackle snap pop grows outcrop Zion stop Inner Zen of Kaizen of midnight corn crop Corn still grows in the night In hindrance of reflective light

The decaying light of sun gravity time Most out of maker out of sublime Align this decaying done fight Along the Sirius one naked truth sight

Now here and there past before Along the lions of beginning ocean door
The wizard knight produces himself Along the lines of heat and of whelp

Cold fire burns the hottest In hot weather of the frost mist Jack to all hard lost set Is a jack to frost warm met

Inner yoga unleash my minds flame Ember of inner voice set endgame Reclaim the moment of fire sense Twisting twirls of inner last breath

Off the bench playing middle field Between the cross of one set two yield Three in time beyond the spell crackle O miss wolf of Mr. Hyde jackle

Lost free in space Lost me in trace Free lost in place
Space lost in trace Place lost in space Lost free in haste
My lost free race

Races of words scrambled in spells Uttered madness in a non sensual hell O this time so misspent of my own For castle rock Zion won't be dethroned

A prodded stick heats all around For not an animal makes a sound In the ground comes forth the ether

Combustible matter force of natural feature

The heat of this poem is unlike no other For my second nature of fire is my own brother Companion heating inward out The untimely timely spout

A sprout a flower a nature power For dark time's surpass this hour Early for the wolf in set for the lion Crescent roar of Viking unleashed Zion

All ash fall trash within this crash I have surpassed in my patient day fast
To the soul i find the inner guide Cupids arrow of my own self confide

Drink deep and slow for magic pulsing flow Within the heart does mans blood beat a grow Alive so ember like red hot and ready Tree of all me swing free deep and steady

An inner staff of inner wisdom Produce this dark though prison Withheld to my age and inner sight Bright light to lion who is now white

O this drink
My inner sphinx Ready hot and yellow Steady stout and mellow Realize the inner fire Caged uncage heart desire Heat me through all Cold red shiver stall Release this master call Untime this time well fall

I fell into the darkest dark hell
No light only vultures calling my name unswell Curving colors of river that do not help Only cutting up the truth of an inner kelp

The fresh seafood of ignorance full Created this dark matter factor whole Upon the unfold all time held still Eternity of pain and cold shiver chills

Set first is all life pursuits
In this cold place nothing natural noose Slings and arrows ravage due south Inside the Cyclops eye seeing mouth

Hungry for all your being and desires O listen to the magnanimity of your heart's desires Unleash all fire and pain of this fold Into the antimatter home will you a grow

Now you have only a magic eagle steak For hungry is all your being at life's sake Understand ignorance is no knowledge of fruit
But your own demise and natural singing noose

The wizard battled this place in still time
A crow of geese of vulture master mind
All evil against evil a positive sound fret Of a true color Doppler ringing affect Effected to a positive knight Affected in to a positive light From all evil the unnatural form sight My o my the die lie truth night

The colors of rainbow show
A positive refractive glow Set happy in glee of monotony Eternal is the cheapest fortitude fee

Past your time in sevens gates light Eleven the parallel absolute zero space white

Wizard is now dead
No more to be fed
Only a knight star bright Fortitude of eons in light
