CALEB B. SMITH MEDAL OF HONOR
S R. 62 080 Indiana Blue Book of Masonic Law

The Caleb B. Smith Medal of Honor is the most prestigious award given by the Grand Lodge of Indiana. This honor is given to Brothers for service in one of three categories: (1) for distinguished service in some field of endeavor beneficial to mankind, or in the public service, to a member of an Indiana Lodge who by preeminent achievement in a field other than Freemasonry, has brought honor and distinction to Freemasonry. Elective officers of the Grand Lodge of Indiana and Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Indiana shall be considered eligible for awards in this category. (2) for eminent leadership and outstanding achievement in and service to Freemasonry at large, to a member of a Lodge in any jurisdiction recognized by the Grand Lodge of Indiana. Elective officers of the Grand Lodge of Indiana and Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Indiana shall be considered eligible for awards in this category. (3) for outstanding service to Freemasonry in Indiana, to any member of an Indiana Lodge without regard to the number of years of membership or Lodge offices held: PROVIDED, that elective officers of the Grand Lodge of Indiana and Past Grand Masters of the Grand Lodge of Indiana shall be considered ineligible for awards in this category.
