Code of Conduct Agreement

1.	(print your name), have read the attached
expectations (Code of Conduct) for HV Bridge Builders Mission Trip youth participants. I feel that I will be able to abide by those expectations. I make a commitment to participate and be present for the full five days in the prescribed camp and outreach activities. I will do my best to have a Christian attitude as I prepare for the trip and as I attend the camp. I will be willing to sacrifice, grow, be challenged, reach out to others, worship, love others even when it's difficult, and respect codes of behavior, speech and dress.

CODE OF CONDUCT – FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

KEEP THIS PAGE FOR YOURSELF

To provide the best experience, all camp participants must agree to the following:

- NO PRANKING.
- To help the camp time be focused on interacting with God and others, I will not bring electronic video devices or computers. I UNDERSTAND THERE IS NO SECURITY FOR VALUABLES.
- In order to build relationships with my group, my crew, and others on the mission trip, I will not text message or use my cell phone, iPod, MP3 player, etc. on worksites or during worship programs. I may use my cell phone to call home during free time or to respond to an emergency.
- I will NOT engage in intimate contact with any other person.
- I will NOT engage in Public Displays of Affection.
- I will not possess any stolen items, substances, articles, or weapons that are prohibited or may endanger any staff/camper.
- To respect the people of the community and other campers from diverse denominations, I will dress and behave modestly.
- I will not act or behave in a way that creates significant distractions or disruptions to other participants or staff.
- I will respect those around me by not using obscene or abusive language or engaging in reckless behavior that could cause harm to others or myself.
- I will not engage in any misconduct which can include inappropriate comments, gestures, or physical contact.
- I will respect and follow directives of adult leaders.
- I will act as a positive role model, respect the spiritual growth and work goals of HV Bridge Builders.

It is out of respect for God, ourselves, and others that we abide by these rules. If you violate these rules, you may be denied the privilege of participating in the mission camp. You may be asked to leave (without reimbursement) at the request of your church adult leader, adult track leader, or camp director.
