RELEASE FROM LIABILITY FOR ANY AND ALL LESSONS TAKEN FROM SEVEN J'S FARM

It is hereby agreed to as follows:

1. AWARENESS OF RISK: I fully understand that by its nature, riding and handling a horse involves inherent risks of possible injury or even death which cannot be entirely eliminated. Horses are unpredictable by nature, and Seven J's is not responsible for such things as acts of nature, weather, terrain, or insect stings (as partial examples) that could cause a horse to react in an unsafe way. Horses are extremely large and powerful, and if a rider falls from a horse it will generally be at a distance of from 3 ½ to 5 ½ ft. As a condition of my (or my child) participating in any program or lesson, it is understood that I assume all risks in connection with any accident, personal injury, damage, personal or otherwise, resulting therefrom.
2. LIABILITY RELEASE: that I hereby release, discharge and hold harmless Seven J's Farm, and all agents and servants, subagents and the like, from any claims for damage on account of negligence or breach of contract or warranty in any form whatsoever. I understand that, except in the event of Seven J's wanton and willful misconduct, I am responsible for bodily injury, medical expenses, or any other type of expense incurred. This agreement will continue until termination of the course and written notification by either party to the other.
3. RIDING HELMETS: I have been fully warned and advised by Seven J's Farm the RIDER should purchase and wear protective headgear. All riders are required to wear helmets regardless of age.
