

Please join us!

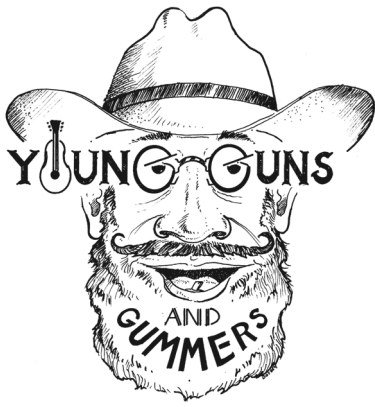

For over 25 years, poets, musicians and story tellers have come from all over the country to share their talents and to celebrate the time-honored traditions of our childhood hero's - The American Cowboy! They tell stories of the days of yester-year and of a time when cowboys were kings! You can almost hear the spurs jingling and the old camp cook calling in the riders to a hot meal of beef, biscuits, beans and boiled coffee. Not only do we hear of historic days of old, but they also tell of the contemporary western way of life we still live today.

Please consider being a part of the 26th Annual Old West Days Celebration - Nebraska's Cowboy Poetry Gathering in Valentine, Nebraska. This event draws spectators from far and wide, and is a great way to showcase your wares during our trade show. Please note the cost for a 10 x 10 booth is $50, 10 x 20 is $100, and wall space and electricity is extremely limited. Booths are assigned on a first come, first serve basis, so your immediate response is appreciated.

The events start Thursday, September 28th this year with the Old-Time Melodrama. The trade show is Friday, September 29th and Saturday, 30th, 2017. So mark those dates on your calendar, submit your registration, saddle your horse, load your wagon and head for Valentine for all the Old West Days activities this Fall. Don't hesitate to contact me with any questions!

Sincerely,

Old West Days Board
