Hello Navajo Members, Associates, and Friends!

As I write this, today is Memorial Day, the day we honor the men and women who died while serving in the U.S. military. Whether they are family members or unknown persons who we've lost fighting for our freedom, this is a day of reflection and gratitude for the ultimate sacrifice that these heroes gave for this country. I eagerly await the day we elect Donald Trump so that we once again have a President who has the utmost respect for our Military and wants to provide our beloved veterans with the BEST possible medical care by overhauling the VA system. We Love Our Military!

Speaking of Donald Trump, several of us from Navajo Canyon RWF attended the Trump Rally on 5/27 at the Convention Center. What an exhilarating time we had! None of us saw any of the "uncivil" protesting as it all happened long after the 10,000 of us who were there left. All was quite peaceful inside with very enthusiastic supporters. I'm so glad we went and have wonderful experience.

Ladies, if you haven't yet purchased your tickets to our annual Fashion Show at the Bali Hai Outdoor Pavilion on June 14, there's still time to get seats! Please, please, please join us and bring a friend. We've kept the price at $40 for several years now even though the food costs keep rising, so please know that we have your best interests in mind with affordability. Glenda Boerner and her team have been working tirelessly on your behalf to make this the best fashion show ever!

There are a couple more events that are on the horizon. I'm excited to announce that we are hosting an August 9th evening Dinner and Road Show at the Elk's Lodge in El Cajon. Plus we are participating with NRA's Women on Target program on January 8th where we will learn how to shoot and handle firearms safety. Be sure to SAVE THE DATE with both of these! (See page 5)

Lastly, we are looking for a "few good women" to fill some Board positions that will be open for 2017. We want to hear from YOU! (See page 3)

Warmest Regards!

Yikes!! It's June already!! Our annual Fashion Show is in 2 weeks, and we are excited to share months of planning with all of you. So, before you go off on vacation, make sure you send your paid reservation before June 9. Final guest count to the Bali Hai is due on June 10. This venue and program is sure to bring out the patriotic spirit in all of us. Join us on Tuesday June 14FLAG DAY to celebrate our "Stars and Stripes Forever." Here is a sneak peek of a few basket creations and donations from you lovely ladies. I promise you, these gift baskets will make you want to drop a ticket in every bag!!

See the cute Elephant tea pot, or how about a bloody Mary with some Grey Goose!!

BRING A FRIEND TO OUR FASHION SHOW ON JUNE

And here's some Cruz tequila to soothe those supporters still not on the TrumpTrain!!

Traditionally, we are dark during the summer. This year, your Board has scheduled a fun event on August 9. This will be an evening social and will include a fundraising opportunity. We are repeating our famous and successful "Navajo Road Show". This gives our members the chance to donate ITEMS OF VALUE to be offered at "silent auction." We had a lot of fun (and profit!) last year. Keep this in mind as you reach past that figurine, glass or dish set or bottle of booze, that you will most likely never use!

One of the reasons that Navajo Canyon RWF has been such an active, highly successful, award-winning club is because of the dedication of its incredible members!

We currently have some Board members that are terming out their positions at the end of this year. Now is YOUR chance to step forward, share your time and your heart, and help elevate this club to new levels!

Openings: Programs, Ways and Means, Newsletter In a couple weeks we will be sending out an email detailing duties of each of these positions. We encourage you to consider taking on any of these roles and helping us promote conservative values in our community and beyond.

Campaign Precinct Chair Waskah Whelan

In just a few days, we will know who our Republican candidates will be for the General Election. The Presidential Primary season has been a long one, but Republicans are finally getting their program together. Almost every day we see new supporters standing up for our presumed Republican Presidential nominee, Donald Trump, and pledging to work to see him elected. Politics is a hardball sport. Activists like ourselves may have our hearts broken many times over the years...but when we win, it makes it all worthwhile.

Sometimes, you have to let things go in order to get what you want and that can mean letting the other guy win. If your candidate didn't win the primary...you can still win and get what you want.

And what is it we want? #1 is to save the Supreme Court and #2 is to stop Hillary Clinton from becoming the next President of the United States. Period. Anything we have to do to accomplish these two goals is worth the sacrifice. The Constitution is in danger and it is imperative that we elect a Republican President if we are to defend it.

The polling numbers for the Republicans are looking positive and that should please us all. Over the summer, Republican women should use every means they have to educate others and sell our candidates. Voting on November 8 is important, but it is not enough. We will need everyone's active support and involvement if we are to win.

The San Diego County Fair opens on June 3 and runs until July 4. Thanks to everyone that signed up to work at the SDCFRW's Fair Booth this year. We expect a big crowd and have the opportunity to sign up many new Republican voters. The San Diego County Fair is one of the top 10 fairs in the country with 1.5 million visitors during their one month run each year. They average over 60,000 visitors each day and almost all of them will pass by our booth! We need to succeed in registering as many Republicans as possible this year if we want to wins elections in the fall. Federated Women have been registering voters at this fair for over 30 years; let's make this our best year ever!

I want to thank all the gals that submitted your hours this month and hope that you'll keep track of your hours during the summer. See you at the Fashion Show or see you in September (Loved that Song.)

August 9: Summer is here, but NCRWF is still working hard to bring our membership election information and illuminating speakers. With that in mind, in August we will host a special evening event that will be both entertaining and educational.

San Diegan, Bob "Sully" Sullivan, television and radio on-air personality, entrepreneur and frequent guest on FOX Business Network and CNN, along with Scott Sherman, San Diego City Councilperson, will be on hand to give us their views on the election, as well as state and local politics. This will be an unbelievable two for one. They will amuse, provoke, and enlighten us.

Bring your family, friends and neighbors to an enjoyable evening, and dinner at the El Cajon Elks Lodge, featuring informative speakers, a Road Show, and other special events.

September 13: It is full-steam head to the election! Tony Krvaric, Chairman of the San Diego Republican Party, will talk about the differing philosophies of Republicans and Democrats, and Shirley Kaltenborn will share a brief history of Republican Women in San Diego. Our keynote speaker, Richard Rider, Founder and Chairperson of the San Diego Tax Fighters Association, will help us understand the truth and consequences of the propositions that will be on the general election ballot in November, He will also be giving us a comparison of our taxes in California versus other states. That should be an real eye-opener, and a meeting you will not want to miss.

Navajo Canyon RWF is hosting August Evening Dinner and Road Show Event!

- Tuesday, August 9th, 5-8pm
- Elk's Lodge El Cajon
- Dinner and Entertainment
- Bob "Sully" Sullivan and Scott Sherman – unique mix of political commentary and good-natured humor!
- Road Show Gather your "items of value" now for this Silent Auction!

Sunday, Jan 8th

- 1) Learn safe firearms handling
- 2) Learn how to store your firearms safely
- 3) Learn to shoot
- 4) Learn a sport you'll enjoy for a lifetime
 - Reserve your Spot NOW as we are limited to 42 women!
 - More Info Provided Later!

Tent located right smack on the concourse, across from the other party and in front of Golden Hall. Sign-in and say Hello!

At about 10:30 a.m. a large group of happy, new naturalized citizens will come streaming out of the double doors to celebrate with their friends and family. We will be there to greet them and register them as Republicans.

By 12 noon, registrations will be complete, the tent will be packed up and the area cleared. Plan then to celebrate your day's accomplishments at lunch with your team mates.

Trolley is easy from the East County. Take the green line to the orange line and exit at the Civic Center. Meet at the red tent by 10 am, then off to lunch or home by noon!

Wear your Republican red and show the Dems our patriotic spirit and spunk! Check the trolley schedule at sdmts.com

The deadline to register as Republican for the June primary has come and gone. Now the job is to gather those under the Republican wing and GOTV = GET OUT THE VOTE. The preservation of our Constitution demands we act!! For those who are on the Never Trump Train, it will concede to the Forever Hillary faction if we don't GOTV!! We have more at stake than demeanor or rhetoric. This country has been 'fundamentally changed". We Federated women need to work to make sure it doesn't concede to liberal policies. Please join me every chance you get to register voters and make every Republican aware they need to vote!!

Thanks going out to Colleen White who joined me at America on Main Street in El Cajon on May 21. No registrations, but we shared the booth with Jim Ash and his family, campaigning for the 53rd Congressional District. Let's vote that Davis woman out of office!!

Voter Registration at Santee Street Fair on May 28. Here I am with GOP interns Odili Lerecedo and Justin Hunter. NC members Gloria Harpenau and Andrea Canfield stopped by to help and interact Voter Registration at Golden Hall on May 25. I was unable to go because of our board meeting and sent out an appeal to our members. Not one NC member was represented! But, if you look on the left side, the cutie in the red sweater in front is none other than Michele Webster. Again, she has attended more NC events in the last two weeks, than any of our members!! We need this gal in our club!

Kat Culkin

Mary Lewis

Kat Culkin, Mary Lewis and I visited the dog training facility in Poway May 4th. We were able to meet one of the dogs, a very sweet Chocolate Lab that was rescued from a hoarder. Even though it was a pedigreed lab at 1-1/2 yrs it was only about 45 lbs. due to lack of proper nutrition as a puppy. Thankfully, she is very healthy now.

While looking at the Shelter to Soldier website I noticed that the price of raising a dog had increased $2000 between when we first considered choosing this as our new charity and now. I mentioned that to Graham and he said he would honor the old price. Before the next Board meeting Mary, Kat and I decided to mention the price difference to the Board and they thought we should increase our Pledge to meet the new expenses needed to train the dogs.

Nancy Amador suggested a great idea that when we get our dog, that we ask if they could periodically take a short video of the training so we can follow our dog and how it is progressing. Of course we won't know who that will be until we have raised the funds for the dog.

So far we have raised $2500 and we really haven't started our campaign!

Mary will be picking up more Brochures this week. If f you need any brochures please give her a call.

Be still and know that I am God Psalm 46.10

June is a month of busyness -- - graduations, vacations, weddings (congratulations and blessings to the Steele family), the upcoming elections and our need to help out. It is a time to rush here and there, then forget what you are supposed to do when you get "there".

Although we have the fashion show coming up and some social events planned for the summer we won't be getting together as much until September. I attended the Sharp Women's Health Conference in May and on our name badges we were to fill in our name and then complete this sentence: "this year I would like to more." My blank was filled in with the word Breathe. I feel that sometimes my life and my world rushes about hither-dither and I forget to actual feel the inhale and exhale. I need to breathe more and more deeply. Does anyone else feel this way?

I would like to offer each of you a challenge for the next few months. Read the verse above and each day find stillness, a quiet joy, a peace. Refresh yourself in being you. Take heart in this quote from Cheryl Strayed, author of the book 'Wild' about her solo hike along the Pacific Coast Trail: "Travel by foot. There's so much you can't identify at top speed."

If you find your peace, your center, how much more work can we do as a person and how much more can we contribute to our club and our nation?

Oh – the 1st is National Go Barefoot Day – wiggle those toes!

Feel free to contact me with any "Chaplain-y" type needs: prayers, a listening ear, etc...that is part of this job.

You Never

You never said I'm leaving You never said goodbye You were gone before I knew it, And only God knew why A million times I needed you, A million times I cried If Love alone could have saved you, You never would have died In Life I loved you dearly In death I love you still In my heart you hold a place, That no one could ever fill It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone For part of me went with you, The day God took you home.

5 Myths About the American Flag by Marc Leepson, June 30, 2011

Americans love our flag. We display it at concerts and stadiums to celebrate, and at times of national tragedy to show our resolve.

We have our schoolchildren pledge allegiance to it; we have consecrated it in our national anthem; we have a holiday, Flag Day, to honor it every June 14, as well as have it on prominent display for the Fourth of July. Yet the iconography and history of the American flag, especially its early history, are infused with myth and misrepresentation. Here are five of the most prevalent myths.

Myth #1: Betsy Ross made the first American flag.

Myth #2. The red, white and blue colors symbolize American sacrifice.

Myth #3: The Pledge of Allegiance has long been recited in Congress and other governmental bodies.

Myth #4: It is illegal to burn the American flag.

Myth #5: It's OK to wear a Stars-and-Stripes T-shirt.

(Please click on title above for detailed info regarding these 5 myths.)
