Christmas flowers: thank you all for donations received for Christmas flowers - £112.06.

Crib collection: At the request of Bishop Paul, the crib offerings from both our parishes this Christmas will be going to the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem, which has care of the Catholic parishes in the Holy Land, including Bethlehem and Gaza. These parishes have suffered much, but remain open to provide safety, shelter, aid and food to those in need. The crib collection will remain open until the 2nd February.

From Fr Stephen: Thank you to all who have assisted in the preparations for Christmas Day and the Christmas season. People who helped clean our churches, prepare flower displays and decorations, put up Christmas trees, sang in choirs, served Holy Mass, read at Mass, welcomed people into church, collected the Christmas offering (most important!), the Bethlehem Construction company (who put up the cribs) and assisted in any other way not already mentioned. I am most grateful for your cooperation in parish life and examples of "Getting involved". Thank you also for the prayers, gifts, and cards sent to me personally. This was my first major season with our communities since arriving back in June, and it feels even more solid that this is where God wants me as his priest. Thank you. Fr Stephen.
