

Keri Little
Independent Mary Kay
Sales Director

Keri Little is an Independent Mary Kay Sales Director that is passionate about helping other women. After a divorce from a less than ideal marriage, and the sudden death of her second husband, Keri found herself a single mom responsible for five children. For eight and a half years Keri took some college classes and owned a few businesses. Independent and determined to make it on her own, Keri often work three jobs instead of opting for government assistance.

Life had certainly thrown Keri some unexpected curve balls, however, it was during these trying times that she learned a lot about herself and how her life experiences could be used to help other women see their worth in the eyes of Christ. Through all of her struggles, Keri held fast to her faith in Christ, even on the days when she wondered if He was listening to her prayers and would keep true to His direction and word.

Keri believes every woman has the right to claim and step into their God-given purpose and receiving all He has for them. Every time Keri meets with a client, she considers it an opportunity to lift up, enrich and remind women that they can still have the desires of their heart. For Keri, growing up doesn't mean giving up your dreams. It's simply a matter of never losing faith and stepping into God's plan when the opportunity knocks.

Today, Keri is happily married to her dream husband of seven years. In addition to her Mary Kay business, together they own a successful business in Norman. Keri is having the time of her life and she and her husband stay busy and entertained with their blended family of eight children and eight grandchildren.

While there were plenty of dark days, Keri continues to rejoice in God's grace, enjoys each day, and doesn't sweat the small stuff.

Contact Keri by visiting her website.