

Inside Me

I will find you in the Darkness
And bring you to Light

I will show you the Wisdom
In the All that is Right

I will hold your hand
When you feel alone

I will walk with you
'til we make it home

I will jump for Joy
When sparks reach your Heart

I will see and create
When you say start

I will always love you
Unconditionally

I will help you let go
And finally be free

I will whisper Secrets
From deep within your Soul

I will always be reborn
And never grow old

I will direct you
And show you where to go

I will give you the Book
So you can know what you Know

I will embrace you
And protect you from harm

I will envelop you
To keep you warm

I will follow you always
Because I am the seed

I will nourish you always
Give you everything you need
