Essence Vitality Policies

Cancellation Policy:

Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc. requires a minimum of 48hrs notice of cancellation. For cancellations that occur within 48hrs of a scheduled appointment, the scheduled client is financially responsible for that appointment. Late cancellation appointments must be paid for prior to receiving further therapeutic services from Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc.

Invoice Policy:

In the case that invoices need to be issued by Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc., invoices must be paid in full within 30 days of invoice date. An additional 20% monthly interest fee will be applied to the amount owing until payment has been received, unless otherwise indicated by the owners of Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc. To remain in good standing with Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc., amount and interest payments must be paid in full before receiving further therapeutic services from Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc., unless otherwise indicated by the owners of Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc.

Flu Vaccine Policy:

Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc. has implemented a policy regarding the Flu Vaccine. Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc. asks ALL clients who have received the Flu Vaccine, in ANY form, to postpone ALL appointments for 10 months from the time of receiving the Flu Vaccine. This applies to not only those who are planning to schedule an appointment with Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc., but also to those who are planning on accompanying someone else (ie. parent, child, friend, dependent) to a scheduled appointment with Essence Vitality Wellness & Coaching Inc. Full documentation regarding the Flu Vaccine policy is available upon request.

"Our mission is to inspire and empower people to maximize their overall health and performance so that they can experience a life of unlimited possibilities."
