“So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

Dear Welcome,

I would like to take this time to wish each and every one of you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Our Savior with family and friends; I hope that you will also be in prayer for our military members who are serving far from family. Let this season draw us closer to those we love. Let us remember that it can be a hard time of the year for those who have lost loved ones, let our hearts and hands extend to them this season.

It is exciting, with our freshly remodeled Sanctuary and 2019 looming on the horizon let us be in prayer as to how we, as Welcome can impact God’s Kingdom next year. Let 2019, be the, “year of the invite” inviting at least one new person a week to Welcome. Let us be known as a church with a big heart, and big prayers.

Once again, Merry Christmas from Marianne, Jay and myself, have a blessed holiday.
