SAFETY IN NUMBERS

The apostles and all the believers in Jesus have been through a tumultuous time. They have experienced the heights of Holy Thursday and the depths of Good Friday, the uncertainties of Easter Sunday, and the multiple appearances of Jesus after his death and resurrection. They have not recognized Jesus, and when they have, they have demanded reassurance from him. Throughout most of this time they have stayed together. Acts describes them all in one place, together, when wind fills the house and tongues of fire rest on each of them. They then find themselves able to communicate with and be understood by those who had not understood them. Everyone recognizes this as a mighty act of God. John reminds us and the disciples that receiving the Spirit brings with it peace and the need for action. They receive the Spirit so they can be sent into the world to forgive sins.

When our world has been turned upside down, when we are faced with uncertainties about what is real, when we are unsure about what lies ahead for us, when we don't know what we should do next, we do not want to be alone. Neither did the apostles and all those who loved Jesus. They wanted to be together when they needed to make sense of what was happening to them and what was going to be asked of them. There is safety in numbers but neither the apostles nor we can remain huddled together. The Spirit requires that we act. All the manifestations of the Spirit are given in order to benefit us and our world. The many different gifts given by the Spirit demand that we do many kinds of work, many forms of service. But we do not work alone. The Spirit is always with us.

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1–11; Ps 104:1, 24, 29–30, 31, 34; 1 Cor 12:3b–7, 12–13; Jn 20:19–23

4 de junio de 2017 • Domingo de Pentecostés

A los apóstoles y a todos los creyentes en Jesús les han tocado tiempos difíciles. Pasaron por la crisis del Jueves Santo y tocaron fondo el Viernes Santo, la incertidumbre del Domingo de Pascua, y las varias apariciones de Jesús después de su muerte y resurrección. Ellos no habían reconocido a Jesús y cuando lo hicieron le preguntaron si de verdad era él. Durante todo este tiempo ellos permanecieron juntos. El libro de los Hechos los pone a todos en un lugar, juntos, cuando el viento sopla y llena la casa de lenguas de fuego que se posan sobre ellos. Así ya ellos pueden comunicarse y los entienden por quienes no los habían entendido. Cada uno reconoce que esto es un milagro de Dios. Juan nos recuerda y los discípulos que recibieron el Espíritu trae paz y la necesidad de la acción. Ellos recibieron el Espíritu para que puedan ser enviados al mundo a perdonar los pecados.

ACCIÓN EN EL ESPÍRITU

Cuando nuestro mundo se pone de cabeza, cuando enfrentamos incertidumbre acerca de lo que es real, cuando estamos inseguros de nuestro porvenir, cuando no sabemos lo siguiente que debemos hacer, no queremos estar solos. Tampoco los discípulos y todos aquellos que amaron a Jesús. Ellos quisieron estar unidos cuando necesitaron darse cuenta de lo que les estaba pasando y de lo que se les iba a pedir. Hay seguridad en los números, pero ni los apóstoles ni nosotros podemos permanecer juntos. El Espíritu requiere que vayamos a la acción. Todas las manifestaciones del Espíritu se dan para que nos beneficien a nosotros y al mundo. Los diferentes dones dados por el Espíritu requieren que realicemos diferentes obras, muchas formas de servicio. Pero no trabajamos solos. El Espíritu siempre está con nosotros.

SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

Last week we heard that, following the Ascension, the disciples, Mary, and other followers of the Lord retreated to the upper room in prayer. This week we hear that, while praying in that room, the Holy Spirit comes upon them. Jesus' post-Resurrection promise, recounted in today's Gospel, is fulfilled: the power of the Holy Spirit comes upon Jesus' followers. Saint Paul tells us that all of us, in some way, are given gifts of the Holy Spirit, gifts that can be used to spread the Good News. Today is one of the Church's greatest festivals. Let us carry the refrain of the responsorial psalm with us throughout the coming week: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth!" (Psalm 104:30).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, the languages of the whole world arise to God in a Pentecost of praise. In some American dioceses, the Mass is offered every Sunday in more than thirty different languages, including the silent praise of American Sign Language. Fifty years ago, the landscape of liturgy was very different. It was grounded firmly in Latin, which is to the present day still the official language of the Roman Rite. Very few people were fluent in Latin, even though in those days Latin was far more widely studied in school. Nevertheless, almost every Catholic was competent in the responses and chants of Latin since it is not difficult to pronounce. The clergy were normally minimally competent in Latin, since much of seminary education was conducted in that language.

When the Second Vatican Council was convened, all of the debate and daily work of the council was to be in Latin. In the first session in 1962, Boston's Cardinal Richard Cushing continually complained about it, and threatened not to return in 1963 if something wasn't done. He convinced the fathers when he rose to speak in fairly fluent Latin in an unforgettable Boston twang. The next year, he returned, but with a simultaneous translation system funded by the people of Boston. The ordinary everyday language of the people, the vernacular, had arrived at the Vatican via Boston!
