

Sin Miedo is Spanish for “Fearless”, and it’s also the name of one of the best Salsa bands in Washington. Led by French pianist Didier Prossaird, the name sums up the band’s attitude towards music. Sin Miedo has been performing in the DC-Baltimore area for the past 15 years, collaborating with salsa greats Tito Allen and Frankie Vasquez, touring the US and abroad with the Washington ballet and providing Salsa music for the hottest dance nights in the Capital. The repertoire of the band includes the Salsa classics of the 70’s to today’s latest hits as well as original music with Spanish and French lyrics.

Sin Miedo has released four CDs: “Mama Linda” in 1999, “La Clave” in 2002, “Estoy Enamorado” in 2009 and “The New Salsa Standard” Live in DC in 2011.

“Sin Miedo is a truly International group that makes the Afro-Cuban rhythms of Salsa jump into your blood stream and move your hips around.” (Eric Brace-Washington Flyer)
