

Jacqueline Barnes, D.D.,CPC

Founder

A Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Author, Writer, Motivational Speaker, Certified Life Coach & Licensed Minister

Dr. Jacqueline Barnes has worked over 20 years in the Telecommunications Industry and has spent years developing her leadership skills. Her mantra to herself is, "the proof of desire is pursuit". Born out of her love of writing she started her own Desktop Publishing company called Heart 2 Heart and self-published her first book Growing In Grace.

As a licensed minister, it has always been her mission to inspire and motivate others to fulfill their potential and to pursue their dreams. Through her SEED, her leadership, and her faith she has inspired the creation of J's Sweets, Promise Wings, and many other ventures. She is considered the "cornerstone" of her family, often sought after for her wisdom.

Jacqueline is a certified life coach, a certified John Maxwell Team Member and received an honorary Doctorate of Divinity in 2008. She serves as our Board President and has a proven ability to identify organizational gaps, analyze strategic priorities, and create solid platforms for organizations to build upon.

