

Mabel Munoz has been serving her community for many years helping individuals with disabilities in accomplishing employment goals. Her experience in crisis counseling and employment centered case management has enriched her abilities and skills. She is currently employed at Full Circle Employment Solutions as a Certified Benefits Counselor where she continues her close collaboration with communities and individuals with disabilities. She has an AA in Psychology and is certified as a Community Work Incentives Coordinator through Virginia Commonwealth University. Mabel is proficient in writing and speaking English as well as Spanish. She can be contacted at mabel.munoz@fullcircledc.com.

